STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA. HEADQUARTERS, July 15, 1861. By the Governor of South Carolina. A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS THE PRESIDENT OF THE CONFEDERATE STATES OF AMERICA has made a requisition upon the State of South Carolina for three thousand men, that being the quota of the State in the additional force now being called out; and whereas, it is required that the Volunteers offering for this service shall be received "for and during the continuance of the war" and whereas, it is right and proper that such requisition should be promptly complied with.

Therefore, I, F. W. PICKENS, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over the State of South Carolina, by virtue of authority vested in me by law, do hereby proclaim that Volunteers for this service are desired and will be accepted, in this manner, "for and during the continuance of the war," to the number of the three thousand men, each company to be composed of one Captain, one Lieutenant, two Second Lieutenants, four Sergeants, four Corporals, two musicians, and not less than sixty-four, nor more than one hundred privates; the officers to be elected by the companies respectively. No men will be received, except those of proper age and health.

And for the purpose of organization and instruction, I do hereby designate "Lightwood Knot Springs," near Columbia, and some proper place at or near Aiken, as points for the establishment of camps; and each company, after a full and accurate roll of its members, and certificates of the elections of its officers, shall have been returned to the Adjutant General of the State, will repair to the camp nearest to it, there to be mustered into service, and to be organized into Battalions or Regiments. It will not be a pre-requisite in the acceptance of these companies, that they shall be armed, although it is hoped that many of them will be.

And I do further proclaim, that all the men or companies who volunteered under the Act of 1860, and who declined, for divers reasons, entering into Confederate service, and whose Regiments have gone to Virginia, may now volunteer into this service, and in certain cases where cavalry companies have been disbanded, their members also may volunteer as infantry under this requisition.

And I do further proclaim, that no other Companies, Battalions or Regiments will be received until this force of three thousand men has been raised.

Two additional Regiments "for the war" are also called for immediately; and I have designated the Regiment now raised by Colonel Orr "for the war," as one, and have offered the other to Colonel Gregg.

Given under my hand, as Governor and Commander-in-Chief, and under the seal of the State, at Columbia, this 15th day of July, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, and in the eighty-sixth year of the Independence of South Carolina. F. W. PICKENS.

All papers in the State will publish this for the next four weeks. July 19, 1861 12
