STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA. HEADQUARTERS, July 15, 1861.

By the Governor of South Carolina. A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, THE PRESIDENT OF THE CONFEDERATE STATES OF AMERICA has made a requisition upon the State of South Carolina for three thousand men, that being the quota of the State in the additional force now being called out; and whereas, it is required that the Volunteers offering for the service shall be received "for and during the continuance of the war;" and whereas, it is right and proper that such requisition should be promptly complied with.

Therefore, I, F. W. PICKENS, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over the State of South Carolina, by virtue of authority vested in me by law, do hereby proclaim that Volunteers for this service are desired and will be accepted, in companies, "for and during the continuance of the war," to the number of the three thousand men; each company to be composed of one Captain, one Lieutenant, two Second Lieutenants, four Sergeants, four Corporals, two musicians, and not less than sixty-four, nor more than one hundred privates; the officers to be elected by the companies respectively. No men will be received, except those of proper age and health.

And I do further proclaim, that all the men or companies who volunteered under the Act of 1860, and who declined, for divers reasons, mustering into Confederate service, and whose Regiments have gone to Virginia, may now volunteer into this service, and in certain cases where cavalry companies have been disbanded, their members also may volunteer as infantry under this requisition.

And I do further proclaim, that no other Companies, Battalions or Regiments will be received until this force of three thousand men be raised.

Two additional Regiments "for the war" are also called for immediately; and I have designated the Regiment now raised by Colonel Orr as the "FIRST REGIMENT IN NOVEMBER," and in the eighty-sixth year of the Independence of South Carolina. F. W. PICKENS.

All papers in the State will publish this for the next four weeks. July 19, 1861 12

PROCLAMATION. STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, July 6, 1861.

ACCORDING to an Act of the Confederate Congress, entitled an "Act to put into Operation the Government under the Permanent Constitution of the Confederate States of America," it is provided that each State shall vote, on the FIRST WEDNESDAY IN NOVEMBER NEXT, for President and Vice President of the Confederate States, which officers are to be inaugurated on the twenty-second of February next; and whereas the existing law of the State provides that the Electors for President and Vice President shall be appointed by the Legislature; and whereas the Legislature of this State will not be in regular session at the time prescribed by the aforesaid Act for appointment of Electors;

Therefore, be it known that I, F. W. PICKENS, Governor in and over the State of South Carolina, by virtue of the power vested in me by the Constitution, authorizing the Governor, on extraordinary occasions, to convene the General Assembly, do issue this my proclamation, calling upon and requesting the Senators and Members of the House of Representatives to convene in COLUMBIA, ON THE FIRST MONDAY IN NOVEMBER next, at ten o'clock, A. M., to elect a President and Vice President of the Confederate States of America, in conformity with the Act of the Confederate Congress aforesaid.

As the Permanent Constitution is to be organized, an election will be required; and two Senators in this State, and also, the probability considering the peculiar state of the country, other important matters will be acted on at the same session of the Legislature.

Given under my hand and the seal of the State at Columbia, this the sixth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and in the eighty-sixth year of the Independence of the State of South Carolina. F. W. PICKENS.

ISAAC H. MEANS, Secretary of State. July 12, 1861.

All papers in the State will copy twice a month till day of election.
