Federated Mothers' Club Holds Business Meeting.

The Federated Mothers' Club held an important business meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. M. Jeter, 1001 Van Buren street, from 4 to 6 o'clock. The advisability of holding the Elison Art Exhibit was discussed, but no definite arrangements were made, the question being left open for the other clubs to vote upon. The election of Mrs. D. D. Dewing to the office of president took place Monday, the resignation of the former president, Mrs. W. M. Jeter having been accepted with regrets.

A vote was passed to allow the small amount of money on hand to remain in the treasury for the time being. The club adjournment to meet three weeks from date, the place of meeting to be announced later.

St. Ann's Altar Guild With Mrs. McKirahan.

A large attendance of the members of St. Ann's Altar Guild were cordially greeted by the hostess, Mrs. W. H. McKirahan, where the chapter met yesterday afternoon to complete articles for the bazaar to be given in December. The afternoon was very pleasantly spent, and much work completed.

The close of the afternoon announced a brief social session, during which dainty refreshments were served.

Needle Club With Mrs. V. M. Hare.

Mrs. V. M. Hare very informally but charmingly entertained the members of the Needle Club yesterday afternoon at her home, 809 Monroe street, from 3 to 6 o'clock. The afternoon was very enjoyably spent with the usual needlework and at the close of the busy period a tempting luncheon was served by the charming hostess. The pupils of Mrs. Hare's art class were guests of the club.

All Day Party at Sockwell Home.

Yesterday, all day, beginning at 9 o'clock in the morning and continuing until a late hour in the afternoon, the Sockwell home at 1109 Van Buren street, was the scene of a round of pleasures, the occasion being a series of parties. The entire lower floor was beautifully arranged with chrysanthemums, carnations, potted plants and growing ferns, and presented a truly ideal background for the large gathering of friends. Mrs. Sockwell and her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Millen, fittingly gowned, proved charming hostesses of the occasion. Bridge and forty-two were the games of the morning and closed with Mrs. Fisher as high score holder for Bridge and Mrs. Davis Tudor high score holder for forty-two, and the prizes were a pair of silk hose and a hand-painted plate. Later a delicious luncheon was served consisting of creamed chicken, olives, pineapple salad, wafers and pineapple sherbet. There were six tables of Bridge and five of forty-two.

In the afternoon there were eleven tables of five hundred. The guests of the afternoon were served with the same delightful refreshments of the morning.
