

SOCIAL EVENTS

Children's Day Services at First Christian Church.

A large and appreciative audience witnessed the annual Children's Day program on Sunday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the First Christian church.

A splendid program was given and was prepared and arranged by Mrs. W. S. Davis and Miss Frances Humphreys.

The invocation was given by Rev. W. P. Jennings, the pastor, and the program opened with a chorus "Children's Day" by the children of the church.

A song, "Wee Little Tots," was given by five little folks and was a very enjoyable feature of the program.

Master Peyton Priddy in his always pleasing style gave a reading, "The Judgment Day."

The entire chorus all wearing the white flags rendered the chorus, "Line-ups."

The song, "I'll Try," by eight little girls and eight little boys was well rendered.

An interesting reading was given by Miss Elizabeth Benton.

The "Rose Drill," by sixteen girls in crepe paper costumes and carrying roses was the prettiest number on the program and was greatly enjoyed.

Little Miss Helen Montgomery sang a Goodnight solo.

The chorus sang "Tell It Out" and the program was brought to fitting close by the Goodnight drill.

The proceeds were for the benefit of the foreign mission fund and the offering was most liberal.

Marguerites Begin House Party.

The Marguerites, a recently organized girl's club, is enjoying a delightful round of pleasures this week in the form of a house party, line parties and bunk parties will continue throughout the week, beginning at the home of Judge and Mrs. S. Laundry Satisfaction

WE LOVE A KICKER, for we make it our business to make them KWITCHERKIKKIN. Your complaints are the guide to our success for we study out how to eliminate them by the installation of new and modern machinery, scientific principles, and result getting improvements and processes. We have long ago solved the problem of broken cuffs, frayed collars, bulged bosoms, and damaged shirts, but as a genuine kick-exterminator, satisfaction giver and damage eradicator

Our New Electrical Process DELIVERS THE GOODS

No Fabrics too Dainty and no Colors too Delicate

WE HAVE DELIVERED this week, Navajo Rugs, Pure Wool Blankets, Silk and Gauze Embroidered Overdresses, Silk Neckties, and many other of the daintiest fabrics, many of them in delicate colors, tints, flowers or stripes, and every garment has been a revelation to the customer, and delight to us. We especially solicit the work that you have always thought the "laundry couldn't do." We do it and we do it right. Our new electrical process is the very latest thing in scientific laundering, whitening and perfectly cleansing every article, and by an adjustment of the current it will not fade or run the most delicate colors. Running the current directly into the water eliminates all chemical bleaches or other damaging elements, thus saving your fabrics, from the heaviest to the most delicate. WE ABSOLUTELY DO NOT USE Chloride of Lime or ANY OTHER damaging chemicals—the electricity does the work by merely pressing the button, and the daintiest goods is not harmed. We have also handled this week Curtains of all kinds, the daintiest, costliest and most delicate fabrics known to the trade,—ask our customers what the results have been. Profit by their experience, send for our driver, give him your most particular work, and

"Get it Where they do it Right"

Our Laundry always does it right, guarantees everything from a five cent pair of socks to a five hundred dollar gown from Paris—what more can you ask for the same old price you have always paid for inferior work? We sit up nights studying how to improve our service, our processes and our customers' good humor and satisfaction.

NEXT WEEK we will begin to operate our new plant we are installing for cleaning and pressing men's and ladies' suits, and it will be equipped with the latest and most down-to-the-minute machinery, and in connection with our electrical washing process will give us an equipment not equalled in Texas.

We don't know where you send your laundry, but you ought to get it where they do it right, and get righter every month; you ought to appreciate progress you ought to save money by saving your garments, and it is a cinch that if WE do your work you'll have to
