

THE JIG IS UP

Unless Providence Sees Fit to Point Out Errors in the Returns From New York.

And With the Whole Counting Machinery in the Hands of the Democrats,

It Seems Not Likely That the Republicans Will Be Able to "Ring in a Bluff."

The Reports Are Conflicting, But Late Returns All Point to Democratic Victory.

A Dynamite Factory in Pennsylvania Explodes, Causing Loss of Life and Property.

A Crazy Woman in Chicago Shoots Her Husband, Her Baby and Herself.

George W. Childs Entertains a Dandy Lot of Farmers at a Dinner to the "Farmers Club."

Address From the Committee.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The following address has just been issued: HEADQUARTERS REPUBLICAN NATIONAL COMMITTEE, New York City.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The newspaper office are invested by crowds of people and traffic is greatly impeded. The Cleveland men throng about the Times, World and Evening Post; the Blaineites besiege the Tribune, Commercial, Mail and Express, while the people of all parties and no politics surround the Sun.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Total returns so far received from New York with forty-four election districts to hear from give Blaine 554,715; Cleveland, 554,290; Blaine's plurality 425.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The political feeling on the streets has been intense ever since the election, and now is rapidly assuming a tone of bitterness.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Evening Post, in headlines says: "Cleveland president, his election assured;" while the Commercial, in headlines, announces: "Blaine's chances in New York constantly growing. Blaine's plurality 615."

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Argus says: "No fraudulent commission will be let put James G. Blaine in the white house, or keep Grover Cleveland out of it. The men who attempt it will be killed and the legal consequences of killing them will be taken care of afterwards."

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Argus says: "No fraudulent commission will be let put James G. Blaine in the white house, or keep Grover Cleveland out of it. The men who attempt it will be killed and the legal consequences of killing them will be taken care of afterwards."

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Argus says: "No fraudulent commission will be let put James G. Blaine in the white house, or keep Grover Cleveland out of it. The men who attempt it will be killed and the legal consequences of killing them will be taken care of afterwards."

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Argus says: "No fraudulent commission will be let put James G. Blaine in the white house, or keep Grover Cleveland out of it. The men who attempt it will be killed and the legal consequences of killing them will be taken care of afterwards."

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Argus says: "No fraudulent commission will be let put James G. Blaine in the white house, or keep Grover Cleveland out of it. The men who attempt it will be killed and the legal consequences of killing them will be taken care of afterwards."

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Argus says: "No fraudulent commission will be let put James G. Blaine in the white house, or keep Grover Cleveland out of it. The men who attempt it will be killed and the legal consequences of killing them will be taken care of afterwards."

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Argus says: "No fraudulent commission will be let put James G. Blaine in the white house, or keep Grover Cleveland out of it. The men who attempt it will be killed and the legal consequences of killing them will be taken care of afterwards."

the secretary of state. During the month the state board of canvassers, consisting of Secretary Carr, Comptroller Chaikin, Attorney General O'Brien, State Treasurer Maxwell and State Engineer Sweet, meet in this city and add up the totals of supervisors' returns from the counties and the result is the official vote of the state, and according to that result certificates of election are issued by the state board to the presidential electors who have been chosen."

A Democratic Call. NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Post says: The following call for a mass meeting of citizens will be published this afternoon: HEADQUARTERS CLEVELAND AND HENDRICKS BUSINESS MEN'S CAMPAIGN CLUB COMMITTEE, STEVENS HOUSE, N. Y., Nov. 6, 1884.

Cleveland and Hendricks have been elected president and vice president of the United States, but evidence accumulates that a scheme exists to defeat the will of the people by fraudulent count and false returns. The citizens of New York who demand an honest count and honest returns are invited to assemble on Wall street in front of Washington's statue at half past 3 o'clock tomorrow, Friday, afternoon, to take such action as the emergency shall require.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The republican state committee has issued the following: "In view of the claims made as to the result of the election in New York, the republican state committee deem it their duty to announce that while the vote is very close the returns and estimates from the most authentic sources justify the belief that a plurality has been cast in favor of the republican candidates. We have received copies of the official returns as filed in the several county clerks offices in all except eleven counties. Besides these we have caused a careful examination to be made of the returns forwarded to police headquarters in New York and Kings counties. From the remaining nine counties we have procured direct information from the most reliable sources and feel justified in asserting that the state has gone republican. The result thus arrived at is confirmed by an entirely different investigation based upon the returns collected directly from every election district in the state. [Signed] JAMES D. WARREN, Chairman."

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 6.—Mr. Hendricks had numbers of callers today and was in receipt of congratulatory messages from all over the country. At various times during Mr. Hendricks' speeches he reiterated his opinion that the Western Union telegraph company and associated press were conspiring to damage him personally, throughout the country by falsely reporting that the state had gone for Blaine and Logan. The question of polygamy in Utah was discussed. Mr. Hendricks declined to enter into a detail of his opinions, but intimated that the democrats had very pronounced views and would develop a strong policy in its treatment of this evil. "The system," he said, "has become so deeply rooted that if trouble arises I fear that it will not be disposed of without a resort to force."

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The democratic national committee has issued an address which states to the people of the United States that Cleveland and Hendricks are elected with 219 electoral votes. The address names the states which have given democratic majorities, including New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Indiana and West Virginia. The address concludes thus: "No fraud or contrivance can defeat the will of the people of the United States thus publicly and deliberately declared."

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The following was received at national headquarters: AUGUSTA Me., Nov. 6. To Hon. B. F. Jones, Chairman National Republican Committee, New York: I never was in better health in my life than I am today; all rumors to the contrary are malicious inventions. (Signed) JAMES G. BLAINE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The official county returns and very close figures on the twelve counties which have not been officially reported in locate that Cleveland's plurality reaches nearly one thousand in the state. The official returns show heavy democratic gains.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Evening Post, in headlines says: "Cleveland president, his election assured;" while the Commercial, in headlines, announces: "Blaine's chances in New York constantly growing. Blaine's plurality 615."

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Argus says: "No fraudulent commission will be let put James G. Blaine in the white house, or keep Grover Cleveland out of it. The men who attempt it will be killed and the legal consequences of killing them will be taken care of afterwards."

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Argus says: "No fraudulent commission will be let put James G. Blaine in the white house, or keep Grover Cleveland out of it. The men who attempt it will be killed and the legal consequences of killing them will be taken care of afterwards."

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Argus says: "No fraudulent commission will be let put James G. Blaine in the white house, or keep Grover Cleveland out of it. The men who attempt it will be killed and the legal consequences of killing them will be taken care of afterwards."

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Argus says: "No fraudulent commission will be let put James G. Blaine in the white house, or keep Grover Cleveland out of it. The men who attempt it will be killed and the legal consequences of killing them will be taken care of afterwards."

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Argus says: "No fraudulent commission will be let put James G. Blaine in the white house, or keep Grover Cleveland out of it. The men who attempt it will be killed and the legal consequences of killing them will be taken care of afterwards."

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Argus says: "No fraudulent commission will be let put James G. Blaine in the white house, or keep Grover Cleveland out of it. The men who attempt it will be killed and the legal consequences of killing them will be taken care of afterwards."

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Argus says: "No fraudulent commission will be let put James G. Blaine in the white house, or keep Grover Cleveland out of it. The men who attempt it will be killed and the legal consequences of killing them will be taken care of afterwards."

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Argus says: "No fraudulent commission will be let put James G. Blaine in the white house, or keep Grover Cleveland out of it. The men who attempt it will be killed and the legal consequences of killing them will be taken care of afterwards."

and a republican, says: "There is no chance of stealing this state; not as long as I have charge of the affair. I don't propose that anybody shall steal the state. If Mr. Cleveland has a plurality, large or small, he will get it; the same is true of the other candidate. I don't propose to play any southern game. No matter whether it is friend or foe, with me he has to have his justice."

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Tribune estimates that Blaine has a plurality in the state of 1,114 votes. The Times returns from all but two counties show that Cleveland has 1,376 plurality. The Sun's revised figures from fifty-five of sixty counties make Cleveland's 1,205.

AUGUSTA, Me., Nov. 6.—Blaine's friends and family were greatly astonished and annoyed by the reports about his health. Blaine is in unusually robust health and excellent spirits. The democrats seemed quite confident of the election of their ticket and tonight celebrated the victory. The address of Chairman Manning as to the vote of New York conflicts with all advice received by Blaine. Blaine said he had treated the republican nomination as an honorable trust confided to him without solicitation and had therefore spared no time and no effort to secure success. He had full confidence that he has been fairly elected and trusted every effort would be made to vindicate the sacredness of the ballot. "To quote my own saying on an important occasion," added Mr. Blaine, "any party in the United States can bear to be defeated, but no party will bear to be defrauded." Mr. Blaine freely expresses the judgment that a majority of the votes of New York have been cast for the republican electoral ticket. He thought the returns and comparisons with former votes clearly established this conclusion.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 6.—Mr. Hendricks had numbers of callers today and was in receipt of congratulatory messages from all over the country. At various times during Mr. Hendricks' speeches he reiterated his opinion that the Western Union telegraph company and associated press were conspiring to damage him personally, throughout the country by falsely reporting that the state had gone for Blaine and Logan. The question of polygamy in Utah was discussed. Mr. Hendricks declined to enter into a detail of his opinions, but intimated that the democrats had very pronounced views and would develop a strong policy in its treatment of this evil. "The system," he said, "has become so deeply rooted that if trouble arises I fear that it will not be disposed of without a resort to force."

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The democratic national committee has issued an address which states to the people of the United States that Cleveland and Hendricks are elected with 219 electoral votes. The address names the states which have given democratic majorities, including New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Indiana and West Virginia. The address concludes thus: "No fraud or contrivance can defeat the will of the people of the United States thus publicly and deliberately declared."

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The following was received at national headquarters: AUGUSTA Me., Nov. 6. To Hon. B. F. Jones, Chairman National Republican Committee, New York: I never was in better health in my life than I am today; all rumors to the contrary are malicious inventions. (Signed) JAMES G. BLAINE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The official county returns and very close figures on the twelve counties which have not been officially reported in locate that Cleveland's plurality reaches nearly one thousand in the state. The official returns show heavy democratic gains.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Evening Post, in headlines says: "Cleveland president, his election assured;" while the Commercial, in headlines, announces: "Blaine's chances in New York constantly growing. Blaine's plurality 615."

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Argus says: "No fraudulent commission will be let put James G. Blaine in the white house, or keep Grover Cleveland out of it. The men who attempt it will be killed and the legal consequences of killing them will be taken care of afterwards."

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Argus says: "No fraudulent commission will be let put James G. Blaine in the white house, or keep Grover Cleveland out of it. The men who attempt it will be killed and the legal consequences of killing them will be taken care of afterwards."

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Argus says: "No fraudulent commission will be let put James G. Blaine in the white house, or keep Grover Cleveland out of it. The men who attempt it will be killed and the legal consequences of killing them will be taken care of afterwards."

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Argus says: "No fraudulent commission will be let put James G. Blaine in the white house, or keep Grover Cleveland out of it. The men who attempt it will be killed and the legal consequences of killing them will be taken care of afterwards."

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Argus says: "No fraudulent commission will be let put James G. Blaine in the white house, or keep Grover Cleveland out of it. The men who attempt it will be killed and the legal consequences of killing them will be taken care of afterwards."

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Argus says: "No fraudulent commission will be let put James G. Blaine in the white house, or keep Grover Cleveland out of it. The men who attempt it will be killed and the legal consequences of killing them will be taken care of afterwards."

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Argus says: "No fraudulent commission will be let put James G. Blaine in the white house, or keep Grover Cleveland out of it. The men who attempt it will be killed and the legal consequences of killing them will be taken care of afterwards."

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Argus says: "No fraudulent commission will be let put James G. Blaine in the white house, or keep Grover Cleveland out of it. The men who attempt it will be killed and the legal consequences of killing them will be taken care of afterwards."

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Argus says: "No fraudulent commission will be let put James G. Blaine in the white house, or keep Grover Cleveland out of it. The men who attempt it will be killed and the legal consequences of killing them will be taken care of afterwards."

report to yell themselves hoarse. A similar crowd fills the street a square distant in front of the democratic headquarters, where a similar demonstration is in progress.

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 6.—The latest figures on congressmen indicate the election of six fusion democrats, five republicans, as follows: Republicans—Allen in second, O'Donnell in third, Burrows in fourth, Cutcheon in ninth, Moffatt in fourth. Democrats—Maybury in first, Comstock in fifth, Wisans in sixth, Carleton in seventh, Tansley in eighth, Fisher in tenth. The fifth in class but this is probably correct. The delegation is the same as has been but each party gained and lost one each.

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 6.—The republican state committee now claim the election in this state by 6,000 to 10,000 plurality. The prohibition vote was much smaller than expected but is not all reported. The state legislature have thirteen republican senators, fusionists nineteen. Representatives five fusionists, forty-nine republicans.

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 6.—John P. St. John was burned in effigy here tonight. Such wild scenes were enacted as were never before witnessed in Topeka. Fully 8,000 men and boys watched the image of St. John go up in flames in front of the Western Union telegraph office. Captain F. H. Oddy made a short speech declaring that St. John had violated every trust and confidence of the people of Kansas and that the state should be cleared of his name.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The fall returns from every county in the state give Cleveland a plurality of 2,519. The state senate is republican by a majority and the house republican by ten majority.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The fall returns from every county in the state give Cleveland a plurality of 2,519. The state senate is republican by a majority and the house republican by ten majority.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The fall returns from every county in the state give Cleveland a plurality of 2,519. The state senate is republican by a majority and the house republican by ten majority.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The fall returns from every county in the state give Cleveland a plurality of 2,519. The state senate is republican by a majority and the house republican by ten majority.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The fall returns from every county in the state give Cleveland a plurality of 2,519. The state senate is republican by a majority and the house republican by ten majority.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The fall returns from every county in the state give Cleveland a plurality of 2,519. The state senate is republican by a majority and the house republican by ten majority.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The fall returns from every county in the state give Cleveland a plurality of 2,519. The state senate is republican by a majority and the house republican by ten majority.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The fall returns from every county in the state give Cleveland a plurality of 2,519. The state senate is republican by a majority and the house republican by ten majority.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The fall returns from every county in the state give Cleveland a plurality of 2,519. The state senate is republican by a majority and the house republican by ten majority.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The fall returns from every county in the state give Cleveland a plurality of 2,519. The state senate is republican by a majority and the house republican by ten majority.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The fall returns from every county in the state give Cleveland a plurality of 2,519. The state senate is republican by a majority and the house republican by ten majority.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The fall returns from every county in the state give Cleveland a plurality of 2,519. The state senate is republican by a majority and the house republican by ten majority.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The fall returns from every county in the state give Cleveland a plurality of 2,519. The state senate is republican by a majority and the house republican by ten majority.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The fall returns from every county in the state give Cleveland a plurality of 2,519. The state senate is republican by a majority and the house republican by ten majority.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The fall returns from every county in the state give Cleveland a plurality of 2,519. The state senate is republican by a majority and the house republican by ten majority.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The fall returns from every county in the state give Cleveland a plurality of 2,519. The state senate is republican by a majority and the house republican by ten majority.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The fall returns from every county in the state give Cleveland a plurality of 2,519. The state senate is republican by a majority and the house republican by ten majority.

hundred inhabitants, three miles west of Georgetown. The loss of life and property it is impossible to tell.

WHEAT, Nov. 6.—About midnight a half breed named Richard Spence attacked his wife and mother-in-law with an axe and cut their heads open. Their recovery is doubtful. The man was drunk. The police are now after him but so far he has not been captured.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—Postmaster General Fawcett has been ill at his residence in Cambridge, since Sunday, with pleurisy and pneumonia and it was expected that his illness would result fatally.

ELMIRA, N. Y., Nov. 6.—Congressman John Arnot is rapidly improving and will be out in a few days. Reports of his dangerous condition are untrue.

WHEELING, West Va., Nov. 5.—Eleven counties out of fifty-two give a net republican gain of 1,800 over the October vote. A gain of 700 more in the remaining counties would give one half of the state's votes to Blaine and one-half to Butler.

THE BURGLAR COUNTY REFORM ASSOCIATION held their last meeting last Tuesday. There was a large attendance. The immortal five gathered each entered the room in silence. Not a word was uttered for several minutes. They sat with faces wan and pallid, and gazed at each other in a low emphatic tone of voice. William looked suspiciously at Jimmy; while Jimmy looked out of the corner of his eye at L. O. Wilson. Col. Lonsberry smiled and drummed curiously on the leg of his chair, while Wright rubbed about the room as though he were waiting against Fitzgerald in a 500 mile contest. The general was seated, the cigar box was covered with heavy fumes and when the chairman "ran down" confidently for his pedal appendage to stop, he called the meeting to order. After prayer by Major Fonda, Jimmy Emmons arose and said in a soft whisper, his lips quivering with emotion:

Fellow Reformers: [Audible sobs from four quarters of the room.] We can no longer—I—I say, we can no longer hold up [Jimmy stops to sob] hold up our heads and cry victory and reform. [more sobs] We might as well fold up our papers and lay down our flags. The musical sound of my larch will no more be heard on the hill or in the valley. My popoos can never more gasp to the face of a proud and haughty sire and the fluttering of my flag—the flutter of the flag—the flag—the flag—[here he was completely choked with emotion, and burying his face in a government sock which he had in his pocket expressly for the occasion, wept aloud.]

Major Fonda—Gentlemen, I feel sick at heart—hearthy sick. Will Mr. Wright explain the cause of the muchness of the this. Wright—Gentlemen, I say gentlemen as a matter of courtesy—the inexpugnable phalanx of opposing forces were so inflexible with the plebeianistic combinations; the polychemistical politician exercised so much volucosity over the volitionary powers, that combined with the infrangibility of the reactionary adventures of reform made our army appear infinitesimally diminutive. Fellow reformers, I believe our onerousness was treacherous, and interpreted the visions of fate against us. But let them proceed; they will descend. Politically I am an intralapsarian and all will result in magnam bonum.

JIMMY [sobbing]—Yes, "Mag" may bone 'em, but they will give up nothing. "Mag" is a good girl, though. [Oris aloud like a child in distress.]

L. O. WILSON.—Great Heavens! How can we stand up under this?

Major Fonda—You'll have 'tax some one smarter man. But the major saw that he might be killed at any moment and called for Colonel Lonsberry, who arose, smiling, and told the boys that he knew it all the time. He said he was in favor of the People's Ticket. "It is a splendid ticket," said he, and with his face wreathed in the most beautiful smiles, at down amid profound silence.

A few words were whispered from ear to ear and the president said, in a soft tragic voice: Fellow Filaments of Reform: We may as well execute a vermillion line for our respective demileas. In the transitionary future, we will compel the damnable corruptionists to favor us with a vermillionization. They will be valetudinarians and we will revel in our grand, replendent feris.

THE LIGHTS were extinguished and the reformers stole quietly away and spoke not another word.

MILES CITY special: Near Hanging Woman creek, Wednesday, eight Sioux Indians raided a ranch owned by Al Alton, and drove off ten good horses and also took other things. After leaving the ranch the Indians divided into two squads, to better elude pursuit. They were come upon by two armed men, but the latter were not able to make a capture, and therefore returned for help. A strong posse is now in pursuit of the Indians, with strong probabilities of a capture.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The fall returns from every county in the state give Cleveland a plurality of 2,519. The state senate is republican by a majority and the house republican by ten majority.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The fall returns from every county in the state give Cleveland a plurality of 2,519. The state senate is republican by a majority and the house republican by ten majority.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The fall returns from every county in the state give Cleveland a plurality of 2,519. The state senate is republican by a majority and the house republican by ten majority.

FINANCE AND TRADE

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH

NEW YORK MARKETS. STOCKS. Northern Pacific... 17 1/4 Northwestern pfd. 12 1/2 Northern Pac. pfd. 41 1/2 Oregon Trac... 13 1/2 C. M. & St. P. 74 1/2 P. M. & M. 78 C. M. & St. P. pfd. 103 Western Union... 85 1/2 Northwestern... 84 1/2

CHICAGO PRODUCE. WHEAT—In good demand. November closed at 75 1/2; December, 75 1/2; January, 75 1/2; May, 83 1/2. No. 2 Chicago spring, 75 1/2; No. 3, 75 1/2; Chicago spring, 80 1/2; No. 2 red, 75 1/2; No. 3 red, 74 1/2.

MILWAUKEE PRODUCE. WHEAT—Frame No. 2, 72 1/2; November, 72 1/2; December, 74 1/2; January, 75 1/2; May, 80 1/2. No. 1 northern, 67 1/2; No. 2 northern, 64 1/2; No. 3, 60; rejected, 56.

DULUTH PRODUCE. WHEAT—The markets on change to-day were lower and dull. Closing prices: No. 1 hard, 72 1/2; cash, 74; No. 2 hard, 68 1/2; No. 1 northern, 67 1/2; No. 2 northern, 64 1/2; No. 3, 60; rejected, 56.

Table with columns for FLOUR, PRODUCE, and PROVISIONS. Items include Graham, Bran, Shorts, Flax meal, Oats, Rye, Barley, Potatoes, Apples, Butter, Pork, etc.

Table with columns for COFFEES, TEAS, SUGARS, and WHOLESALE. Items include Java, Old Government Java, English breakfast tea, Young Hyson, Gun Powder, Japan, Granulated sugar, etc.

Table with columns for FLOUR, MEATS, and SUGARS. Items include Bismarck (Climax), Graham, Corn Meal, Food, C. S. Bacon, Hams, Breakfast Bacon, Sliced Roll, Mess Beef, Pork, etc.

Table with columns for CANNED GOODS, TOILET SOAPS, and LAUNDRY SOAPS. Items include Honey Soap, Glycerine soap, Travelers, Reliable, Turkish Bath soap, White Castile, Cat Meat, Libber Falen, Honey OOC, Glycerine OOC, Brown Windsor OOC, Washmere Bouquet, Sassa, Soapstone, Marguerite, seventh Regiment, etc.

Table with columns for GOLDEN, BEAT BLUE, EUREKA, ELIDORADO, BUCKETS, CAPITAL CYLINDER, CHALLENGE MACHINE, BLACK, LARD, and LARD MACHINE. Items include Golden, 90 bars, 16 oz. pressed & wrapped, Beat blue, 60 bars, pressed & wrapped, Eureka Savon, 50 bars, pressed & wrapped, Elidorado engine oil, per gallon, Buckets fine, Capital cylinder, Challenge machine, Black, Lard, No. 1, Lard machine, etc.