

The Bismarck Tribune.

BY M. H. JEWELL.

THE DAILY TRIBUNE, Published every morning, except Monday, at Bismarck, Dakota, is delivered by carrier to all parts of the city at twenty-five cents per week, or $1.00 per month.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. One month, postage paid, $1.00. Three months, postage paid, $3.00. Six months, postage paid, $5.00. One year, postage paid, $10.00.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE, Eight pages, containing a summary of the news of the week, both foreign and local, published every Friday, sent, postage paid, to any address for $2.00; six months, $12.00.

TO ADVERTISERS! THE DAILY TRIBUNE circulates in every town within one hundred miles of Bismarck reached by a daily mail, and is by far the best advertising medium in this part of the Northwest.

EXPRESS matter is now being received by the Wells, Fargo & Co. express line as well as the Northern Pacific. It will be remembered that this matter has been in the courts for some time.

FROM various parts of the territory come kind words of endorsement for Hon. E. A. Williams of this city. The Fargo Argus says: "Hon. E. A. Williams was the speaker of the last house and many who knew how well he performed his duties, are urging his re-election."

THE Minneapolis Tribune says editorially: "The official notice of the completion of Dakota's new capitol building was issued yesterday by Governor Pierce."

AS THE papers from the various counties have arrived containing the official vote, the TRIBUNE has carefully revised it to correspond with them.

THE election in Washington territory is not quite so unanimous as in Dakota. A late dispatch reads as follows: "The official returns from all except one county and two precincts of another county in Washington territory, give Armstrong a majority of nine for delegate in congress."

BISMARCK is keeping up its reputation for lynching bees. Grand Forks Herald. There never was a "lynching bee" at Bismarck or anywhere in the vicinity of Bismarck.

GENERAL HAZEN'S annual report from the signal office, shows that 90 per cent. of the predictions made by the bureau during the past year have been verified.

THE TRIBUNE'S figures on Hamlin county, giving Wilson a majority, were a little off—in fact far from the fact.

HON. R. F. FETTERBREW is the leading spirit in the new railroad projected from Rock Rapids across to a connection with the Bismarck branch of the Burlington.

A DEMOCRATIC exchange says Maria Halpin helped Cleveland. The success of the issue would seem to justify this belief.

THE hanging of James G. Blaine in effigy by the jubilant democrats of Milledgeville, the old capital of Georgia is condemned by the southern press, which is an indication that the rebellious spirit does not exist to any great extent in the south.

THE anxiety of the Mandan Pioneer to become democratic is only equalled by the disgust of its democratic readers at the sickly attempt.

THE Philadelphia Call, a strong supporter of Blaine during the campaign, believes that Mr. Cleveland, having committed himself on several occasions, should now be taken at his word and given encouragement.

DELEGATE RAYMOND has been in Jamestown during the past few days, and in an interview with the Capital says: "There is great danger that the people of Dakota will weaken in their demands for division of the territory."

YANKTON PRESS AND DAKOTAIAN: There are eight thousand school children in Dakota. The next few years will be of vast importance to these children.

CINCINNATI MERCHANT TRAVELLER: We desire to inform Miss Daisy Dimple, who sent us a poem beginning: "Earth gives to my life no such wonderful charms"

CHICAGO NEWS: "Sassity" girls are informed that "papa" and "mamma" are now deemed vulgar. This will probably take us back to the elegant and expressive "old man" and "old woman."

THE Fargo Argus complains of the incompleteness of its table of votes, and is particularly anxious about Lake county. It seems as if the Argus ought to have as much confidence in the TRIBUNE'S figures from this county as it has had in its carefully collected returns from other counties of the territory.

THE Pierre Journal doesn't seem to be satisfied with the result of the election in that district and rather inappropriately says: "What's the use of wine and dining a set of chumps because they happen through the accident of politics to be elected to the legislature. It is not in good taste under any circumstances."

THE TRIBUNE, from its returns by counties figures that Judge Gifford has received about 90 per cent. of North Dakota's vote and 74 per cent. of South Dakota's vote.

BUD TAYLOR, of the Yankton Herald, will come as near controlling the patronage for Dakota as any other man, and being a prince among good fellows, the TRIBUNE is glad of it.

THE commissioners don't grant license to sell intoxicating liquors. They are the counties of Spink, Kingsbury, Jerauld, Charles, Minn., Sully, McPherson, Clark, Faulk, Union, Buffalo and Potter.

THE Fargo Republican halts in its democratic tendency long enough to say: "The Bismarck TRIBUNE, speaking of probable changes under Cleveland's administration, says that so far as Governor Pierce is concerned, doubtless he need feel no uneasiness, as the influences which secured his appointment have been, during the campaign, particularly friendly to Mr. Cleveland."

A WEEK ago the Bismarck TRIBUNE sent to the associated press the result of the election in this territory, giving the total vote about 85,000, and Judge Gifford's majority at 55,000.

DELEGATE RAYMOND has been in Jamestown during the past few days, and in an interview with the Capital says: "There is great danger that the people of Dakota will weaken in their demands for division of the territory."

CINCINNATI MERCHANT TRAVELLER: We desire to inform Miss Daisy Dimple, who sent us a poem beginning: "Earth gives to my life no such wonderful charms"

THE Barnes county Record is trying to work a reform movement of maetodon proportions. It has the audacity to ask delinquent subscribers to pay up.

THE latest democratic brilliancy: Mr. John A. Logan need not expect to rate as United States senator from Illinois after March 4.

POLITICS AND POWDER.

What It Costs to Run a Campaign—Opinion of a Fireworks Maker.

"Five million dollars!" "Yes, sir, five million dollars, of which two millions are spent for fireworks and three millions for uniforms, etc., every presidential campaign."

"The average spent in off years for fireworks is over one million dollars."

"Do we import the bulk of our fireworks?" "No, sir, we import nothing but fire-crackers. We make the rest in this country. There are only ten fireworks establishments in America."

"Upon invitation of Superintendent Frederick Fitz Fichner, the reporter inspected the Palmer establishment, not without some fear and trembling at first. When the superintendent said he had been blown up twice, the reporter furtherly asked:

"Is not this business a little risky?" "Yes, I suppose it would be so considered by outsiders, but I have encountered greater dangers than any I find here and don't feel concerned."

"I don't quite catch your meaning?" "Well, I have been in this business many years and the constant though unconscious nervous strain has caused greater suffering than the explosions I have 'taken'! Many a day I would be very dizzy, and everything would get dark. At other times I could scarcely breathe from choking sensations. Then my appetite left me and I grew thin, weak and lifeless. I was drowsy by day and was up by night. My side pained me, my back ached, my limbs burned, I bloated fearfully and one leg got paralyzed. For ten months I suffered desperately, and two prominent physicians gave me up for a dead man, sure."

"You don't look it now?" "No, that's so, but it was a fact, just the same. When I found out my trouble, I at once resorted to Warner's safe cure and a dozen bottles put me in possession of the best health I ever expected to enjoy, and I was pronounced incurably sick with bright's disease. It is the most wonderful medicine in the world."

"Indeed, you are a fortunate man. Is there any falling off in the fireworks business this year?"

"Not at all. On the contrary it grows more popular every year, and this year we have done an extraordinary business. The American people are getting quite as fond of display as the mercurial Frenchman, and they manifest it by rockets and volcanoes, political banner, campaign uniforms, etc. I reckon that $10,000,000 won't cover the incidental political expenses of a presidential campaign."

OFFICIAL VOTE

They Admire Royal Heroin.

ROME, Nov. 27.—The house of deputies today decided to debate President Capriotti and nine members of the house to wait upon King Humbert and Duke d'Acosta and express to them the admiration of the house of deputies at the heroism displayed by their highnesses during the cholera epidemic in Naples. The prime minister obtained a vote of urgency upon a bill for the sanitary improvement of Naples.

Doing the Crazy Act.

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio, Nov. 27.—Nothing new has developed in the Maxwell tragedy today. The prisoner is in jail but will say nothing to anyone. He is trying to play the crazy act and is playing his part well. The oldest girl died at 11:30 making three deaths. The oldest girl will recover. The mother is crazed with grief and it is feared that after a reaction sets in from the excitement she will die from the shock.

Going For a Land Ring.

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 27.—The United States grand jury returned fifteen indictments for fraud in sales of Ojce Indian lands in Dec. 1883. One thousand acres were sold at public auction and bids entered on the books at a lower price per acre than was actually bid at the sale. The scheme was manipulated by a land ring involving several prominent persons. It is estimated the Indians were defrauded out of about $30,000.

The Next Vice President.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 27.—Vice President-elect Hendricks returned to the city yesterday and made his first appearance at the Grand opera house tonight, where he witnessed the performance of Clara Morris. His box was decorated with flags and a picture of Andrew Johnson. On Mr. Hendricks' entrance the orchestra played "Hail to the Chief," and he was greeted with rounds of applause. At the close of the performance Mr. Hendricks held a reception in his box, where many persons called and paid their respects.

A State Attorney Shot.

BENNINGTON, Vt., Nov. 27.—State Attorney Edward L. Bates, was shot tonight. While returning from riding a man named Bennett, from Shaftsbury, rode past on horseback and fired at him twice, one shot taking effect in his chin. The wound is not serious. When further down South street Bennett fired the remaining barrels of his revolver in the air. No possible provocation is known. Officers are in pursuit.

A Glove Fight Stopped.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 27.—The Barnes-Norton hard glove fight, which was fixed for today, was stopped by the chief of police, who stepped in the ring formed in Barnes' gymnasium, in this city, just as the fight was about to begin, and arrested both principals. It is said the fight will take place soon outside the jurisdiction of the city.

Mexico's Representatives.

Six Business Houses Burned.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 27.—Fire at Whitehall, Ill., yesterday, consumed six business houses. Loss $21,000, insurance $14,000.

ST. PAUL DAY: It is a cold day, even in the Red River valley, when Jud La Moure can be counted out of a legislative election. Everybody else acknowledged his defeat for the Dakota council but Jud, who claimed his election, and calling for a fair count, gave the ballot boxes his personal supervision until even the opposition conceded his success. A territorial legislature without Jud's presence on the floor would be stale, flat and unprofitable.
