WISHY WASHY'S BIRTH.

And while the Lord was molding into form This wonderful and turbulent old world...

And much to his delight each species rare, Was represented by its just amount;

For man and beast, and birds that cleave the air, Appeared the instincts on the first day's count.

But in the raw material was found— Before the molding process had begun—

That some men must be angels, some round, Some made to walk and others made to run.

Yes, there were germs for men of iron will, As well as for the gentle, meek and mild;

While here was stuff for giant men, and still It had the spinal weakness of a child.

At last the work had drawn into a close, With nothing left but fragments limp and weak;

And these were raked in by the busy hoese, That into them the Lord His life might speak.

The heap was large and flabby, warm and cold; For many pieces had been chilled and bruised;

And most of all, Oh, misery untold! The last well stiffened backbone had been used.

So with a slender thread the back was braided, And then 'twas thought the form was well combined.

But hold! In all the dreary, sterile waste, No human instinct could the molders find.

The Lord then spoke, and said "Ah, me; alas, That this misfortune has so soon befall;

Just give the form the instinct of an ass, And brand it on the back with 'C. A. L.'"

EDITOR TRIBUNE: I am not accustomed to letter writing, but I have seen so much of you and am so favorably impressed with Burleigh county, Dakota, that I feel like making my thoughts known.

My dear Sir: Your resignation as keeper at the Bismarck penitentiary is accepted with regret in all its branches.

Is This True? The correspondent of the St. Paul Globe has this to say of Winona, the rising metropolis of the west half of Emmons county.

The Colonel Sold in South Dakota. Yankton Telegram: The Bismarck Tribune mourns and "bloweth its bazaar."

Chain Him Up. It is about time that Chas. C. Brown, the self-confessed idiot who is editing the Record at Royalton, Minn., is put in chains or quarantined.

So They Say. Confectioner Holland, whose magnificence of bearing and beauty of countenance have so long rivalled for supremacy with his pleasing suavity and business sagacity, departed for Fargo last Monday in company with P. F. Malloy and other friends.

Completion of the Ways. The ways at the river landing have been completed, and the work of hauling out the government steamer Missouri was commenced on Saturday.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve. The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, uncles, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions.

What Will They Say in England? Mr. E. Holland, one of Burleigh county's most prosperous cattle men and representative citizens, will soon leave for England to visit the friends of his childhood and inform them of the opportunities and possibilities of the American northwest.

Best Book for Every Body. The new illustrated edition of Webster's dictionary, containing 3,000 engravings, is the best book for every body that the press has ever produced.

WESTWARD HO!

[Columbus Dispatch.] "Oh where are you going, my pretty maid?" "I'm going to Bismarck, sir," she said, "a town far away in Dakota."

"May I go with you, my pretty maid?" "There are too many men there now," she said; "I'm told, for the feminine quota."

"And what will you do there, my pretty maid?" "Oh, that was settled long since, sir," she said; "I shall marry a wealthy young farmer."

"Are you going alone there, my pretty maid?" "There's a couple of thousand behind me," she said; "But I am the charmingest charmer."

"Oh, why don't you marry here, my pretty maid?" "Cause no one has asked me to, sir," she said; "And I am a couple and twenty."

"But, why do you hurry so, my pretty maid?" "I must get there while they're plenty."

CITY CHIPS.

The Odd Fellows' building is enclosed. Keno parties promise to be the rage among society devotees during the coming season.

The river will not be closed until December unless a very sudden change in the atmosphere takes place.

Those who attended the keno party at the Sheridan house Friday evening give the most glowing accounts of the reality and fascination of the game and the neatness of the entertainment.

There is a vast amount of work for the chamber of commerce during the coming winter, and a united effort on the part of the business men and property owners will bring gratifying results in the spring.

The shipments of east bound stock over the Northern Pacific road thus far this fall are as follows: Cattle, 3,441 car loads; sheep, 307 car loads; hogs, 119 car loads. This is equivalent to 77,840 head of stock, and is a good showing.

PERSONAL.

W. Van Dusen, the bonanza farmer of Tappen, is visiting his friends in the city.

Mrs. Hyatt, of Fargo, nee Miss Florence Barclay, of Bismarck, is visiting her friends in the city.

Marion Pace, county treasurer of McHenry county, is in the city. Mr. Pace is engaged quite extensively in the stock business and is prosperous, healthy and happy.

Col. and Mrs. N. N. Tyner, of Fargo, arrived in the city and are guests at the Sheridan. The colonel comes in the interests of the Bismarck insurance company, the organization of which is being perfected.

Captain Chance, of Fort Lincoln, will leave for the east in a few days, on sick leave. The captain's health has been failing for several months, and he hopes to recover his vigor and vivacity by rest and recreation.

Joe Hanauer, one of the brightest and most popular representatives of the Hanauer clothing company, with headquarters in New York, came in from Miles City Sunday morning, to meet his sister, and to enjoy a visit with Manager Frisby, of the St. Paul One Price clothing house.

"Wizard Jim," whose fame in Dakota is territorial, and whose fairly hand danced about the faces of the many Bismarcker in days gone by, is once more behind the glistening steel, and is located at the Paterson lonsorial parlors. As a barber this well known artist has few superiors, and Mr. Patterson is to be congratulated upon having secured his services.

O. S. Goff, who will be remembered as a candidate for the mayoralty of Dakota's capital in the memorable spring of '84, returned from the west Monday. Now this would be taken as a political "shot" by some gentlemen, but Mr. Goff will take it as good naturedly and philosophically as he did his defeat. These little episodes in the lives of men are given a new beauty when seen through the charm-wreathed telescope of memory, and as one gazes at their funeral, and ever recall the "shot" by some gentlemen, but Mr. Goff will take it as good naturedly and philosophically as he did his defeat.

Good Work. The first annual convention of the Bismarck Sunday School association, held Saturday and Sunday last was a success, and demonstrated that the young of Bismarck and vicinity are by no means suffering for want of proper religious and moral training. There is one field in which the church is supremely and absolutely essential, and that is among the young. The growth of round, plump faces and golden heads which filled the churches during the convention, and the interest manifested by the little ones in the Christian literature of the day, was gratifying and encouraging.

An Entertaining, Reliable House. Frank Frisby can always be relied upon, not only to carry in stock the best of everything, but to secure the agency for such articles as have well known merit, and are popular with the people, thereby sustaining the reputation of being always enterprising, and ever reliable. Having secured the agency for the celebrated Dr. King's new discovery for consumption, will sell it on a positive guarantee. It will surely cure any and every affection of throat, lungs and chest, and to show our confidence, we invite you to call and get a trial bottle free.

A Washington special to the Minneapolis Tribune says: Nothing is known here of the reported resignation of Secretary Teller, of Dakota territory. "If he has resigned," said the appointment clerk of the interior department to the Tribune correspondent, "we know nothing of it here. He certainly has not yet sent in a written resignation to the department. Until he does, his action is not officially recognized."

Secretary Lamar is out of town today, and the other officials of the department have no knowledge of the reported telegram from Governor Hauser asking him to modify the order of Commissioner Sparks prohibiting the cutting of timber on the government land in Montana territory, neither do the officials know what Mr. Lamar's probable action will be. Montana men now here, however, think they can induce him to modify the order at least far enough to permit wood to be cut for the purpose of supplying fuel for household purposes.

The vote on the constitution in South Dakota and its separate clauses was as follows: For the constitution, 25,132; Against the constitution, 6,522.

Kernia Must Study. The following from the Northfield Head-light exhibits an unpardonable cloud of gloomy ignorance on the part of the "ver-stalloy" Kernia:

"Richardson, the bloody and blawsted H'Engel, the d'itler of the Valley City Times, says that hanging was none too good for Riel," and the citizens of Valley City say that the volley of ripe and rotten eggs, to which Richardson was treated on his return home from the council, was none too good for a corrupt and corrupting jack-cheat, who betrayed his constituents by voting in favor of removing the capital to Pierre—a vote in direct conflict with the interests of the people he was sent to represent; a vote that looked as if it were stamped with the infamy of a bribe."

Inasmuch as Colonel Richardson voted solidly against the capital removal scheme, first, last, and every time it bobbed its head above the seething foam of the legislative sea; as he was loyal to the interests of North Dakota, and all of Dakota, during his career as a legislator, and as he was not treated to a "volley of ripe and rotten eggs" by his Valley City constituents, this unprovoked onslaught from the bizzarly pen of the cyclonic Kernia, would seem to entitle that verdant gentleman to a vacation from journalism long enough to read a few chapters from the political history of the territory, on whose face he now poses with the presumption and audacity of a pimple on a maiden's nose.
