

Arrival and Departure of Trains.

LAKE ERIE & WESTERN R. R. PASSENGER TRAINS.

Leave Findlay	6:20 a. m.
Findlay	7:30
Arrive at Fremont	8:30
Toledo	9:30
Cleveland	11:00

Returning.

Toledo	6:45 a. m.
Fremont	7:45
Findlay	8:45
Arrive at Findlay	9:45

ACCOMMODATION AND MAIL TRAINS.

Leave Findlay	6:30 a. m.
Findlay	7:30
Arrive at Fremont	8:30
Toledo	9:30
Cleveland	11:00

Returning.

Toledo	6:30 a. m.
Fremont	7:30
Findlay	8:30
Arrive at Findlay	9:30

FINDLAY BRANCH—C. S. & C. R. R.

Leave Findlay	6:25 a. m.
Findlay	7:10
Arrive at Findlay	8:45
Toledo	9:30
Cleveland	11:00

Returning.

Toledo	6:30 a. m.
Fremont	7:30
Findlay	8:30
Arrive at Findlay	9:30

Book and Job Printing

EVERY DESCRIPTION

PLAIN AND FANCY PRINTING

Books, Pamphlets, Posters, Circulars, Bills, Cards, Programs, Blankets, Etc., Etc.

NEATLY EXECUTED AT THE

Jeffersonian Job Office

at reasonable rates.

Circulation double that of any other paper in Hancock County.

FRIDAY, JULY 31, 1868.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

FOR THE CAMPAIGN.

Make Up Your Clubs.

The Cheapest Paper in Ohio!

That every man in the county may be able to possess himself of a copy of the JEFFERSONIAN during the present Campaign, we will send it to any address, from the 10th of July to the 20th of November, five months, at the following rates, cash in advance: Single subscribers, 65 Cents. Clubs of ten, (each), 50 " " " twenty, (each), 45 " " " thirty, (each), 40 " " " Let our friends in the different townships take hold, and they will find it a small matter to raise a club of twenty or thirty.

Six Months at the White House. We have now received the book entitled "Six Months at the White House, or the Inner Life of Abraham Lincoln," which we offered to our subscribers as premiums. Those who are entitled to them may call at our office and receive them.

The book is got up in neat style, finely bound, plain print, and possesses great interest to all who admired the noble character of the late President.

TURN OUT.

GRANT CAMPAIGN CLUB.

The Union Republican citizens of Findlay are requested to meet at the Council Room, Saturday, August 31, for the purpose of organizing a Campaign Club.

Let the attendance be large.

By order of

COMMITTEE.

Mito Society. The Methodist Mito Society will meet at the residence of Wait. Hull, on Front street next Wednesday evening.

Subscribers to the Harbinger, who get their mail at Findlay, will receive their paper by calling for it at the Postoffice. It is not put in boxes, but is delivered upon application.

Orchestra played extensively in Findlay now. The young, middle-aged and old engage enthusiastically in it.

Camp Meeting. We understand that the M. E. Church of this section intend holding a camp-meeting near Benton, commencing the 24th of August. It is to be under the charge of Rev. Isaac Newton.

An insect found its way into the ear of a little son of Thos. Hales, residing near Arcadia, one day last week. It was removed by a physician with much difficulty, but it is thought that the hearing of the child is made defective.

State Tournament. The Ohio State Firemen's Tournament will be held at Sandusky, September 16, the Anniversary of Perry's Victory. The members of the several companies of this place have received invitations to attend and compete for prizes.

Sun-Struck. A girl named Harriet Bailey, living in North Findlay was sun-struck on Monday afternoon. She was working in a potato field, and feeling sick from heat went to the house. Just as she reached it she fell. She is insensible at this writing, Wednesday.

Free Entertainment. Wednesday night a couple of men, with melodeon and violin, gave our citizens a free concert, from a wagon, and another delivered a lecture extolling the merits of "Hamilin's Wizard Oil."

To be Changed and Improved. Something of a change is to be made in the sidewalks and gutters on Sandusky Street. The gutters are to be moved several feet towards the centre of the street and cut down, the pavements are to be widened and trees set out along their edge.

The work on the gutters has already commenced.

Accident. One day last week, Thomas Mullen, while passing in the rear of a circular saw which was in full motion in the planing mill of D. C. Fisher & Co., was struck under the right ear by a board three or four feet long, which had accidentally dropped on the saw, knocking him senseless and causing a severe, though not at present considered a dangerous wound.

A Happy Family.

Mr. Henry Poreh, who is usually termed in side shows a "Happy Family." It consists of a cat with five kittens and a dog.

A few days after the appearance of the kittens in daylight, the dog discovered the arrival and showed a disposition to take them under her care. To this the mother proper objected, and a little set-to was the result. The battle was short and decisive, and the dog remained master of the situation, and entered at once on her duty, but kindly allowed the cat to exercise her motherly duties at stated and proper times.

The dog spends about two-thirds of her time with the kittens, sometimes alone and sometimes in conjunction with the cat, and the best of understanding seems to exist between them, although the latter seems to understand that her being allowed to stay is only by the sufferance of the dog.

The case is a very peculiar one. Remove one of the kittens from the bed and the dog will immediately follow and will not be quiet till she takes it back, which she does by taking it bodily in her mouth, with great care, and puts it back. If a strange dog comes around Fanny—that is the dog's name—immediately drives it away, and if on her return to the bed she mistakes her for the dog just driven away and spits and strikes at her, she immediately takes the cat down and holds her till she is quiet and then licks her in token of amity. If the cat is gone long from the kittens and they get restless from hunger Fanny does all in her power to quiet them. She gathers them together and carefully licks and fondles them till they are quiet.

Altogether, with one exception Fanny is a model mother and expresses more motherly affection for the kittens of the feline family than does its own mother.

In our opinion the above related facts are somewhat peculiar if not remarkable.

Serious Accident.

Last Friday evening at Pat Taylor Esq., was driving, with his mother, about two miles down the river, the hold-back straps gave way, allowing the buggy to strike the horse's heels, who at once kicked viciously and ran. By some means Taylor and his mother were thrown from the buggy on the verge of the high river bank, and Taylor's feet being entangled in the reins he was dragged to the water's edge, where he contrived to break loose, and the horse continued to run up the bed of the river.

Mr. Taylor received very severe injuries, and for several days her life was despaired of, but at present accounts it is possible she may recover. Her son's injuries, though unpleasant, are not at all serious.

The New Band. Such of our citizens as heard the Cornet Band on last Monday evening may be proud that we have so well drilled an organization in our town. They have rapidly improved under the instruction of Prof. Wildman and bid fair to become one of the best bands in the State.

Emulating their example, a number of young men recently organized and secured the services of the Professor and have become so perfect in the use of the instruments formerly used by the Cornet band that they wish to get possession of them. With this object in view they will give two entertainments at Wheeler's Hall on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings next. As the price of admission is so small, only 15 cents, it is to be hoped that large numbers of our citizens will patronize them. Give them a full house.

A Valuable Book. P. D. Ardinger, the agent, has shown us the prospectus of the "Voter's Text Book," containing a biographical sketch of every President of the United States, including the present candidates for Presidency and Vice Presidency—both parties. It also contains the "Articles of Confederation" reported July 12 '76; the electoral vote of each Presidential election; a statistical view of the States; impeachment trials, Schedule of Stamp Duty, and numberless other items of interest. It is in no wise a partisan work, but one in which Democrats and Republicans will take equal interest.

Gen. Hancock has written a letter endorsing the Democratic platform and candidates. Some of his staff differ with him. One of them when asked how he liked the ticket responded, "What uniform do you suppose I wear? Do you think I am in no wise a partisan work, but one in which Democrats and Republicans will take equal interest."

On the 25th inst. Hon. Wm. Wyatt, State Senator from Franklin and Lincoln counties, Tenn., was assassinated. It was the work of the Ku Klux Klan. The Klan is a Democratic institution.

Call and See. Samuel Powell having opened a new jewelry store in Charlie Hall's clothing establishment solicits his friends to call and see him. His stock consists of Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Spectacles and everything else usually kept in a first class jewelry store. He is also prepared to do all kinds of repairing on short notice. Call and see him as he is bound to sell cheap. No 73 Main street Findlay Ohio.

Cleaning Out. Hopp & Hyl, in order to make room for their new stock of goods, will sell at surprisingly low rates. Now is the time to secure bargains. Do not delay, as their stock is now sufficiently complete to admit of purchasers making good selections.

Phalon's Puffing Soap. The finest fancy soap in market, daintily perfumed. Julia Dennis has just received a stock.

Colfax against Blair! Peace against war! Which will you have.

Line Engraving of General Grant.

We are in receipt of a beautiful engraving of Gen. Grant from Ticknor & Fields. It is finely executed and of the style of engraving known as Line. The New York Post thus speaks of it:

"The engraving aside from its fidelity to the portrait, is a noble achievement of Mr. Marshall's skill, and recalls Laboulaye's eulogium of his engraving of Lincoln, when he says, speaking of the French connoisseurs, that 'it reminds them of the burin of A'rdan and other great engravers of the time of Louis XIV.' Simply as a work of art, this last product of Mr. Marshall's skill is an engraving which ranks among the best."

The picture is only sold by subscription and agents are wanted. Address Ticknor & Fields, Boston.

A copy of the engraving can be seen in our office.

Band Festival.

The promenade concert and festival at Wheeler's Hall on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings next will, without doubt, be a splendid affair. It is gotten up by the members of the newly organized Brass Band for the purpose of paying indebtedness already incurred, and to pay for a new set of instruments.

They will be assisted by the Findlay Cornet Band, string band, Woodworth's glee club, and have a variety of pleasant features to present, making a programme full and complete. In addition, they will furnish a liberal quantity of ice cream, lemonade &c. &c. &c.

Let our citizens turn out and give the boys solid aid and comfort.

The Findlay Oil Mills building has been treated to a coat of paint. The improvement in the appearance of the building is great.

Come Out.

We publish this week a call for a meeting to organize a campaign club. We hope our citizens will take an interest in the matter commensurate with its importance and be present. There is need of earnest work this campaign and there is no way to accomplish it as thoroughly as by a live club holding weekly meetings.

Wanted to Know.

A citizen would like to know why it is that the notorious Beck Kutz was not arrested for complicity in the Bouvie robbery. A warrant was issued for her arrest at the time the young men now in jail had their trial, and the evidence before the Examining Court showed her to be one of the prime movers in the robbery. If it is just that these men should lie in jail, it is not unjust that Beck should be at large?

Who can explain?

JUSTICE.

Anniversary. Next Monday, Aug. 31, will be celebrated the battle of Ft. Stephenson, at Fremont. Both trains on the Fremont road will carry passengers the round trip at half rate. It is expected that a large number will go from this place, as the occasion is of great interest, and a good time is expected.

BENTON ITEMS.

The Masonic Fraternity of this place organized their Lodge on the evening of the 23d and will work under Dispensation until the Grand Lodge meets. Mr. Cloya B. Wilson was appointed Worshipful Master, Dr. Thos. Ballard, Senior Warden, and Esq. Downing Junior Warden.

1. o. o. t.

The annual election of the order of Good Templars resulted in the election of the following officers:

W. C. P. Engle.
W. T. Wm. F. Miller.
R. S. Wm. P. Powell.
F. S. Jacob Eaton.
T. John B. Weston.
M. Henry Hanna.
P. W. C. Daniel B. Wagner.
O. G. Joseph Soloman.
I. G. Miss Jennie Eaton.
D. Adam Wagner.

The officers will be installed on the night of the 1st of August at which time several persons are expected to lecture. The lectures will be free and all are invited to attend.

Findlay Price Current.

JEFFERSONIAN OFFICE.
THURSDAY, July 31, 1868.

Wheat, No. 1, per bushel	1 00
Do, No. 2, do	95
Do, No. 3, do	90
Oats, per bushel	45
Chaff, per cwt.	15
Butter, per pound	16 1/2
Eggs, per dozen	66 1/2
Lard, per pound	12 1/2
Tallow, per pound	9
Flour, per bushel	4 00
Hay, stacked, per ton	16 1/2
Do, unstacked, do	15 1/2
Corn, per bushel	46 1/2
Plax Seed, per bushel	40 00
Clay Seed, per bushel	40 00
Timothy Seed, per bushel	40 00
Wool, per pound	25 00

CINCINNATI MARKET.

Butter, per lb.	12 to 15
Eggs, per dozen	17 to 18
Oats, per bushel	45 to 50
Wheat, No. 1, per bushel	1 00 to 1 10
Do, No. 2, do	95 to 1 00
Do, No. 3, do	90 to 95
Chaff, per cwt.	15 to 16
Butter, per pound	16 1/2 to 17
Eggs, per dozen	66 1/2 to 67
Lard, per pound	12 1/2 to 13
Tallow, per pound	9 to 10
Flour, per bushel	4 00 to 4 10
Hay, stacked, per ton	16 1/2 to 17
Do, unstacked, do	15 1/2 to 16
Corn, per bushel	46 1/2 to 47
Plax Seed, per bushel	40 00 to 41
Clay Seed, per bushel	40 00 to 41
Timothy Seed, per bushel	40 00 to 41
Wool, per pound	25 00 to 26

TOLEDO MARKET.

Wheat, extra, per bushel	1 10 to 1 12
Do, No. 1, do	1 05 to 1 07
Do, No. 2, do	1 00 to 1 02
Do, No. 3, do	95 to 97
Oats, per bushel	45 to 50
Chaff, per cwt.	15 to 16
Butter, per pound	16 1/2 to 17
Eggs, per dozen	66 1/2 to 67
Lard, per pound	12 1/2 to 13
Tallow, per pound	9 to 10
Flour, per bushel	4 00 to 4 10
Hay, stacked, per ton	16 1/2 to 17
Do, unstacked, do	15 1/2 to 16
Corn, per bushel	46 1/2 to 47
Plax Seed, per bushel	40 00 to 41
Clay Seed, per bushel	40 00 to 41
Timothy Seed, per bushel	40 00 to 41
Wool, per pound	25 00 to 26

OUR PLATFORM.

The National Republican Party of the United States, assembled in National Convention in the City of Chicago, on the 21st day of May, 1868, do hereby issue the following Declaration of Principles:

- We congratulate the country on the assured success of the Reconstruction policy of Congress, as evinced by the adoption of the majority of the States lately in rebellion of the Constitution securing a Civil and equal Rights to all, and it is the duty of the Government to maintain those institutions and to prevent the people of any State from being readmitted to a state of anarchy.
- We guarantee by Congress to all loyal men at the South, and to all loyal men at the North, the enjoyment of public rights of justice, and we demand that the laws of the United States be maintained, and the question of suffrage be left to the people of the States.
- We denounce all forms of Disfranchisement as National crimes and National dishonors, and we demand that the National Government should be empowered to enforce the payment of the public indebtedness on the interest good faith to all creditors, at home and abroad, not only according to the letter but the spirit of the law under which it was contracted.
- It is the duty of the Labor of the Nation that taxation should be equated and levied as rapidly as the National faith will permit.
- The National Debt, contracted as it has been for the preservation of the Union for the benefit of the Nation, should be extended over a fair period for redemption, and it is the duty of Congress to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can honestly be done.
- That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to improve our credit, to reduce our expenditures, to pay our debts at lower rates of interest than we now pay, and most of all, to pay our debts as we go, in part or in full, open or covert, is threatened or suspected.
- We guarantee by Congress to all loyal men at the South, and to all loyal men at the North, the enjoyment of public rights of justice, and we demand that the laws of the United States be maintained, and the question of suffrage be left to the people of the States.
- We denounce all forms of Disfranchisement as National crimes and National dishonors, and we demand that the National Government should be empowered to enforce the payment of the public indebtedness on the interest good faith to all creditors, at home and abroad, not only according to the letter but the spirit of the law under which it was contracted.
- It is the duty of the Labor of the Nation that taxation should be equated and levied as rapidly as the National faith will permit.
- The National Debt, contracted as it has been for the preservation of the Union for the benefit of the Nation, should be extended over a fair period for redemption, and it is the duty of Congress to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can honestly be done.
- That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to improve our credit, to reduce our expenditures, to pay our debts at lower rates of interest than we now pay, and most of all, to pay our debts as we go, in part or in full, open or covert, is threatened or suspected.
- We guarantee by Congress to all loyal men at the South, and to all loyal men at the North, the enjoyment of public rights of justice, and we demand that the laws of the United States be maintained, and the question of suffrage be left to the people of the States.
- We denounce all forms of Disfranchisement as National crimes and National dishonors, and we demand that the National Government should be empowered to enforce the payment of the public indebtedness on the interest good faith to all creditors, at home and abroad, not only according to the letter but the spirit of the law under which it was contracted.
- It is the duty of the Labor of the Nation that taxation should be equated and levied as rapidly as the National faith will permit.
- The National Debt, contracted as it has been for the preservation of the Union for the benefit of the Nation, should be extended over a fair period for redemption, and it is the duty of Congress to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can honestly be done.
- That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to improve our credit, to reduce our expenditures, to pay our debts at lower rates of interest than we now pay, and most of all, to pay our debts as we go, in part or in full, open or covert, is threatened or suspected.
- We guarantee by Congress to all loyal men at the South, and to all loyal men at the North, the enjoyment of public rights of justice, and we demand that the laws of the United States be maintained, and the question of suffrage be left to the people of the States.
- We denounce all forms of Disfranchisement as National crimes and National dishonors, and we demand that the National Government should be empowered to enforce the payment of the public indebtedness on the interest good faith to all creditors, at home and abroad, not only according to the letter but the spirit of the law under which it was contracted.
- It is the duty of the Labor of the Nation that taxation should be equated and levied as rapidly as the National faith will permit.
- The National Debt, contracted as it has been for the preservation of the Union for the benefit of the Nation, should be extended over a fair period for redemption, and it is the duty of Congress to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can honestly be done.
- That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to improve our credit, to reduce our expenditures, to pay our debts at lower rates of interest than we now pay, and most of all, to pay our debts as we go, in part or in full, open or covert, is threatened or suspected.
- We guarantee by Congress to all loyal men at the South, and to all loyal men at the North, the enjoyment of public rights of justice, and we demand that the laws of the United States be maintained, and the question of suffrage be left to the people of the States.
- We denounce all forms of Disfranchisement as National crimes and National dishonors, and we demand that the National Government should be empowered to enforce the payment of the public indebtedness on the interest good faith to all creditors, at home and abroad, not only according to the letter but the spirit of the law under which it was contracted.
- It is the duty of the Labor of the Nation that taxation should be equated and levied as rapidly as the National faith will permit.
- The National Debt, contracted as it has been for the preservation of the Union for the benefit of the Nation, should be extended over a fair period for redemption, and it is the duty of Congress to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can honestly be done.
- That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to improve our credit, to reduce our expenditures, to pay our debts at lower rates of interest than we now pay, and most of all, to pay our debts as we go, in part or in full, open or covert, is threatened or suspected.
- We guarantee by Congress to all loyal men at the South, and to all loyal men at the North, the enjoyment of public rights of justice, and we demand that the laws of the United States be maintained, and the question of suffrage be left to the people of the States.
- We denounce all forms of Disfranchisement as National crimes and National dishonors, and we demand that the National Government should be empowered to enforce the payment of the public indebtedness on the interest good faith to all creditors, at home and abroad, not only according to the letter but the spirit of the law under which it was contracted.
- It is the duty of the Labor of the Nation that taxation should be equated and levied as rapidly as the National faith will permit.
- The National Debt, contracted as it has been for the preservation of the Union for the benefit of the Nation, should be extended over a fair period for redemption, and it is the duty of Congress to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can honestly be done.
- That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to improve our credit, to reduce our expenditures, to pay our debts at lower rates of interest than we now pay, and most of all, to pay our debts as we go, in part or in full, open or covert, is threatened or suspected.
- We guarantee by Congress to all loyal men at the South, and to all loyal men at the North, the enjoyment of public rights of justice, and we demand that the laws of the United States be maintained, and the question of suffrage be left to the people of the States.
- We denounce all forms of Disfranchisement as National crimes and National dishonors, and we demand that the National Government should be empowered to enforce the payment of the public indebtedness on the interest good faith to all creditors, at home and abroad, not only according to the letter but the spirit of the law under which it was contracted.
- It is the duty of the Labor of the Nation that taxation should be equated and levied as rapidly as the National faith will permit.
- The National Debt, contracted as it has been for the preservation of the Union for the benefit of the Nation, should be extended over a fair period for redemption, and it is the duty of Congress to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can honestly be done.
- That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to improve our credit, to reduce our expenditures, to pay our debts at lower rates of interest than we now pay, and most of all, to pay our debts as we go, in part or in full, open or covert, is threatened or suspected.
- We guarantee by Congress to all loyal men at the South, and to all loyal men at the North, the enjoyment of public rights of justice, and we demand that the laws of the United States be maintained, and the question of suffrage be left to the people of the States.
- We denounce all forms of Disfranchisement as National crimes and National dishonors, and we demand that the National Government should be empowered to enforce the payment of the public indebtedness on the interest good faith to all creditors, at home and abroad, not only according to the letter but the spirit of the law under which it was contracted.
- It is the duty of the Labor of the Nation that taxation should be equated and levied as rapidly as the National faith will permit.
- The National Debt, contracted as it has been for the preservation of the Union for the benefit of the Nation, should be extended over a fair period for redemption, and it is the duty of Congress to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can honestly be done.
- That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to improve our credit, to reduce our expenditures, to pay our debts at lower rates of interest than we now pay, and most of all, to pay our debts as we go, in part or in full, open or covert, is threatened or suspected.
- We guarantee by Congress to all loyal men at the South, and to all loyal men at the North, the enjoyment of public rights of justice, and we demand that the laws of the United States be maintained, and the question of suffrage be left to the people of the States.
- We denounce all forms of Disfranchisement as National crimes and National dishonors, and we demand that the National Government should be empowered to enforce the payment of the public indebtedness on the interest good faith to all creditors, at home and abroad, not only according to the letter but the spirit of the law under which it was contracted.
- It is the duty of the Labor of the Nation that taxation should be equated and levied as rapidly as the National faith will permit.
- The National Debt, contracted as it has been for the preservation of the Union for the benefit of the Nation, should be extended over a fair period for redemption, and it is the duty of Congress to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can honestly be done.
- That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to improve our credit, to reduce our expenditures, to pay our debts at lower rates of interest than we now pay, and most of all, to pay our debts as we go, in part or in full, open or covert, is threatened or suspected.
- We guarantee by Congress to all loyal men at the South, and to all loyal men at the North, the enjoyment of public rights of justice, and we demand that the laws of the United States be maintained, and the question of suffrage be left to the people of the States.
- We denounce all forms of Disfranchisement as National crimes and National dishonors, and we demand that the National Government should be empowered to enforce the payment of the public indebtedness on the interest good faith to all creditors, at home and abroad, not only according to the letter but the spirit of the law under which it was contracted.
- It is the duty of the Labor of the Nation that taxation should be equated and levied as rapidly as the National faith will permit.
- The National Debt, contracted as it has been for the preservation of the Union for the benefit of the Nation, should be extended over a fair period for redemption, and it is the duty of Congress to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can honestly be done.
- That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to improve our credit, to reduce our expenditures, to pay our debts at lower rates of interest than we now pay, and most of all, to pay our debts as we go, in part or in full, open or covert, is threatened or suspected.
- We guarantee by Congress to all loyal men at the South, and to all loyal men at the North, the enjoyment of public rights of justice, and we demand that the laws of the United States be maintained, and the question of suffrage be left to the people of the States.
- We denounce all forms of Disfranchisement as National crimes and National dishonors, and we demand that the National Government should be empowered to enforce the payment of the public indebtedness on the interest good faith to all creditors, at home and abroad, not only according to the letter but the spirit of the law under which it was contracted.
- It is the duty of the Labor of the Nation that taxation should be equated and levied as rapidly as the National faith will permit.
- The National Debt, contracted as it has been for the preservation of the Union for the benefit of the Nation, should be extended over a fair period for redemption, and it is the duty of Congress to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can honestly be done.
- That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to improve our credit, to reduce our expenditures, to pay our debts at lower rates of interest than we now pay, and most of all, to pay our debts as we go, in part or in full, open or covert, is threatened or suspected.
- We guarantee by Congress to all loyal men at the South, and to all loyal men at the North, the enjoyment of public rights of justice, and we demand that the laws of the United States be maintained, and the question of suffrage be left to the people of the States.
- We denounce all forms of Disfranchisement as National crimes and National dishonors, and we demand that the National Government should be empowered to enforce the payment of the public indebtedness on the interest good faith to all creditors, at home and abroad, not only according to the letter but the spirit of the law under which it was contracted.
- It is the duty of the Labor of the Nation that taxation should be equated and levied as rapidly as the National faith will permit.
- The National Debt, contracted as it has been for the preservation of the Union for the benefit of the Nation, should be extended over a fair period for redemption, and it is the duty of Congress to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can honestly be done.
- That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to improve our credit, to reduce our expenditures, to pay our debts at lower rates of interest than we now pay, and most of all, to pay our debts as we go, in part or in full, open or covert, is threatened or suspected.
- We guarantee by Congress to all loyal men at the South, and to all loyal men at the North, the enjoyment of public rights of justice, and we demand that the laws of the United States be maintained, and the question of suffrage be left to the people of the States.
- We denounce all forms of Disfranchisement as National crimes and National dishonors, and we demand that the National Government should be empowered to enforce the payment of the public indebtedness on the interest good faith to all creditors, at home and abroad, not only according to the letter but the spirit of the law under which it was contracted.
- It is the duty of the Labor of the Nation that taxation should be equated and levied as rapidly as the National faith will permit.
- The National Debt, contracted as it has been for the preservation of the Union for the benefit of the Nation, should be extended over a fair period for redemption, and it is the duty of Congress to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can honestly be done.
- That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to improve our credit, to reduce our expenditures, to pay our debts at lower rates of interest than we now pay, and most of all, to pay our debts as we go, in part or in full, open or covert, is threatened or suspected.
- We guarantee by Congress to all loyal men at the South, and to all loyal men at the North, the enjoyment of public rights of justice, and we demand that the laws of the United States be maintained, and the question of suffrage be left to the people of the States.
- We denounce all forms of Disfranchisement as National crimes and National dishonors, and we demand that the National Government should be empowered to enforce the payment of the public indebtedness on the interest good faith to all creditors, at home and abroad, not only according to the letter but the spirit of the law under which it was contracted.
- It is the duty of the Labor of the Nation that taxation should be equated and levied as rapidly as the National faith will permit.
- The National Debt, contracted as it has been for the preservation of the Union for the benefit of the Nation, should be extended over a fair period for redemption, and it is the duty of Congress to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can honestly be done.
- That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to improve our credit, to reduce our expenditures, to pay our debts at lower rates of interest than we now pay, and most of all, to pay our debts as we go, in part or in full, open or covert, is threatened or suspected.
- We guarantee by Congress to all loyal men at the South, and to all loyal men at the North, the enjoyment of public rights of justice, and we demand that the laws of the United States be maintained, and the question of suffrage be left to the people of the States.
- We denounce all forms of Disfranchisement as National crimes and National dishonors, and we demand that the National Government should be empowered to enforce the payment of the public indebtedness on the interest good faith to all creditors, at home and abroad, not only according to the letter but the spirit of the law under which it was contracted.
- It is the duty of the Labor of the Nation that taxation should be equated and levied as rapidly as the National faith will permit.
- The National Debt, contracted as it has been for the preservation of the Union for the benefit of the Nation, should be extended over a fair period for redemption, and it is the duty of Congress to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can honestly be done.
- That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to improve our credit, to reduce our expenditures, to pay our debts at lower rates of interest than we now pay, and most of all, to pay our debts as we go, in part or in full, open or covert, is threatened or suspected.
- We guarantee by Congress to all loyal men at the South, and to all loyal men at the North, the enjoyment of public rights of justice, and we demand that the laws of the United States be maintained, and the question of suffrage be left to the people of the States.
- We denounce all forms of Disfranchisement as National crimes and National dishonors, and we demand that the National Government should be empowered to enforce the payment of the public indebtedness on the interest good faith to all creditors, at home and abroad, not only according to the letter but the spirit of the law under which it was contracted.
- It is the duty of the Labor of the Nation that taxation should be equated and levied as rapidly as the National faith will permit.
- The National Debt, contracted as it has been for the preservation of the Union for the benefit of the Nation, should be extended over a fair period for redemption, and it is the duty of Congress to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can honestly be done.
- That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to improve our credit, to reduce our expenditures, to pay our debts at lower rates of interest than we now pay, and most of all, to pay our debts as we go, in part or in full, open or covert, is threatened or suspected.
- We guarantee by Congress to all loyal men at the South, and to all loyal men at the North, the enjoyment of public rights of justice, and we demand that the laws of the United States be maintained, and the question of suffrage be left to the people of the States.
- We denounce all forms of Disfranchisement as National crimes and National dishonors, and we demand that the National Government should be empowered to enforce the payment of the public indebtedness on the interest good faith to all creditors, at home and abroad, not only according to the letter but the spirit of the law under which it was contracted.
- It is the duty of the Labor of the Nation that taxation should be equated and levied as rapidly as the National faith will permit.
- The National Debt, contracted as it has been for the preservation of the Union for the benefit of the Nation, should be extended over a fair period for redemption, and it is the duty of Congress to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can honestly be done.
- That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to improve our credit, to reduce our expenditures, to pay our debts at lower rates of interest than we now pay, and most of all, to pay our debts as we go, in part or in full, open or covert, is threatened or suspected.
- We guarantee by Congress to all loyal men at the South, and to all loyal men at the North, the enjoyment of public rights of justice, and we demand that the laws of the United States be maintained, and the question of suffrage be left to the people of the States.
- We denounce all forms of Disfranchisement as National crimes and National dishonors, and we demand that the National Government should be empowered to enforce the payment of the public indebtedness on the interest good faith to all creditors, at home and abroad, not only according to the letter but the spirit of the law under which it was contracted.
- It is the duty of the Labor of the Nation that taxation should be equated and levied as rapidly as the National faith will permit.
- The National Debt, contracted as it has been for the preservation of the Union for the benefit of the Nation, should be extended over a fair period for redemption, and it is the duty of Congress to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can honestly be done.
- That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to improve our credit, to reduce our expenditures, to pay our debts at lower rates of interest than we now pay, and most of all, to pay our debts as we go, in part or in full, open or covert, is threatened or suspected.
- We guarantee by Congress to all loyal men at the South, and to all loyal men at the North, the enjoyment of public rights of justice, and we demand that the laws of the United States be maintained, and the question of suffrage be left to the people of the States.
- We denounce all forms of Disfranchisement as National crimes and National dishonors, and we demand that the National Government should be empowered to enforce the payment of the public indebtedness on the interest good faith to all creditors, at home and abroad, not only according to the letter but the spirit of the law under which it was contracted.
- It is the duty of the Labor of the Nation that taxation should be equated and levied as rapidly as the National faith will permit.
- The National Debt, contracted as it has been for the preservation of the Union for the benefit of the Nation, should be extended over a fair period for redemption, and it is the duty of Congress to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can honestly be done.
- That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to improve our credit, to reduce our expenditures, to pay our debts at lower rates of interest than we now pay, and most of all, to pay our debts as we go, in part or in full, open or covert, is threatened or suspected.
- We guarantee by Congress to all loyal men at the South, and to all loyal men at the North, the enjoyment of public rights of justice, and we demand that the laws of the United States be maintained, and the question of suffrage be left to the people of the States.
- We denounce all forms of Disfranchisement as National crimes and National dishonors, and we demand that the National Government should be empowered to enforce the payment of the public indebtedness on the interest good faith to all creditors, at home and abroad, not only according to the letter but the spirit of the law under which it was contracted.
- It is the duty of the Labor of the Nation that taxation should be equated and levied as rapidly as the National faith will permit.
- The National Debt, contracted as it has been for the preservation of the Union for the benefit of the Nation, should be extended over a fair period for redemption, and it is the duty of Congress to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can honestly be done.
- That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to improve our credit, to reduce our expenditures, to pay our debts at lower rates of interest than we now pay, and most of all, to pay our debts as we go, in part or in full, open or covert, is threatened or suspected.
- We guarantee by Congress to all loyal men at the South, and to all loyal men at the North, the enjoyment of public rights of justice, and we demand that the laws of the United States be maintained, and the question of suffrage be left to the people of the States.
- We denounce all forms of Disfranchisement as National crimes and National dishonors, and we demand that the National Government should be empowered to enforce the payment of the public indebtedness on the interest good faith to all creditors, at home and abroad, not only according to the letter but the spirit of the law under which it was contracted.
- It is the duty of the Labor of the Nation that taxation should be equated and levied as rapidly as the National faith will permit.
- The National Debt, contracted as it has been for the preservation of the Union for the benefit of the Nation, should be extended over a fair period for redemption, and it is the duty of Congress to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can honestly be done.
- That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to improve our credit, to reduce our expenditures, to pay our debts at lower rates of interest than we now pay, and most of all, to pay our debts as we go, in part or in full, open or covert, is threatened or suspected.
- We guarantee by Congress to all loyal men at the South, and to all loyal men at the North, the enjoyment of public rights of justice, and we demand that the laws of the United States be maintained, and the question of suffrage be left to the people of the States.
- We denounce all forms of Disfranchisement as National crimes and National dishonors, and we demand that the National Government should be empowered to enforce the payment of the public indebtedness on the interest good faith to all creditors, at home and abroad, not only according to the letter but the spirit of the law under which it was contracted.
- It is the duty of the Labor of the Nation that taxation should be equated and levied as rapidly as the National faith will permit.
- The National Debt, contracted as it has been for the preservation of the Union for the benefit of the Nation, should be extended over a fair period for redemption, and it is the duty of Congress to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can honestly be done.
- That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to improve our credit, to reduce our expenditures, to pay our debts at lower rates of interest than we now pay, and most of all, to pay our debts as we go, in part or in full,