

MOTHER! LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE

If cross, feverish, constipated, give "California Syrup of Figs"

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Adv.

No Voice for Singing.

Vivian, age three, and Marion, age two, were doing the street car tango. Accompanied by their mamas, they were on their way to town. They were standing on the car seats, and, of course found added motion to their terpsichorean endeavors in the swaying of the car. Then they turned to a song and dance turn.

Suddenly the car stopped, but the singing continued, and, of course, the attention of the passengers in the car was directed to the children.

Vivian frowned, but Marion did not stop.

"Marion," she finally said, rather sternly, "you must not sing; you haven't a good voice for singing."

And the concert came to an end with the laughing of the crowd.—Indianapolis News.

Views of Little Folks.

In the spelling class Nona was asked to define "animals."

"Anything that has fur or hair, or walks on four legs," she said.

"Not necessarily," corrected the teacher. "There are two-legged animals, which have feathers or smooth skins. Birds are animals, and so are people; you are an animal."

"Well," remarked Nona, "I always knew that boys were animals, but I didn't think girls were, too."

One Weakness.

"When Filbers goes fishing and fails to catch anything he says so."

"Marvelous!"

"If he stays out late, and his wife asks him what he's been doing he says that he has been drinking liquor and playing poker."

"Incredible! What does he say when asked about the salary he gets?"

"Oh, he's like other men in that respect. He doubles the figure."

KNOW NOW

And Will Never Forget the Experience.

The coffee drinker who has suffered and then been completely relieved by changing from coffee to Postum knows something valuable. There's no doubt about it.

"I learned the truth about coffee in a peculiar way," says a California woman. "My husband who has, for years, been of a bilious temperament decided to leave off coffee and give Postum a trial, and as I did not want the trouble of making two beverages for meals I concluded to try Postum, too. The results have been that while my husband has been greatly benefited, I have myself received even greater benefit."

"When I began to drink Postum I was thin in flesh and very nervous. Now I actually weigh 16 pounds more than I did at that time and I am stronger physically and in my nerves, while husband is free from all his ills."

"We have learned our little lesson about coffee and we know something about Postum, too, for we have used Postum now steadily for the last three years and we shall continue to do so."

"We have no more use for coffee—the drug drink. We prefer Postum and health."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

Postum comes in two forms: Regular Postum—must be well boiled. 15c and 25c packages.

Instant Postum—Is a soluble powder. A teaspoonful dissolves quickly in a cup of hot water and, with cream and sugar, makes a delicious beverage instantly. 30c and 50c tins.

The cost per cup of both kinds is about the same.

FRENCH LEADERS OF FASHION DECLARE FOR SOMBERNESS.

World is Likely to Fall Into Line—Tones of All the New Spring Shades Show Subdued Effect—Some Early Hints.

That Paris will present many of its models in black is well understood, although for the American openings there will be the colors that no city in Europe considers today; also, it is established that the garish combinations to which Paris has been over-prone during the last three years have vanished for a time, at least, because these colors are the children of a reckless and slightly decadent era, as every student of dress history knows, and the world is sad, serious and virile today.

There is no doubt that the entire world will follow the lead of France and garb itself in demure colors, if not in black. The tones of all the new spring shades show this subdued effect and one feels respectfully toward the fashion, knowing the heartache in which it was born. Blues, pinks, yellows are quiet in shading, grays have leaped to the front, and the tones of red used are so obviously inspired by the uniforms of those at and for everyday use it can be carried out in art linen, and for special occasions, perhaps, in silk.

Diagram A shows the cover spread out quite flat, and it is trimmed at the edge with a hemstitched fringe and at each corner tapes are sewn on by which it may be tied in position to the woodwork of the chair.

In each corner a little floral design is embroidered consisting of three pale pink daisies with white centers and three leaves worked in various shades of green.

Diagram B gives the detail of this design so that it can quite well be worked from our illustration.

Diagram C shows the cover upon the chair, and it is, of course, tied on over the canvas. Materials of fast colors should be used in making this cover, and it can then be easily removed and washed when occasion requires. Prettily patterned cretonne made up in this way forms a very useful cover, as it is easily washed.

REVIVING AN OLD CUSTOM

Hand-Painted Decorations Recall What Is Known as the "Victorian Period."

Pussy willow green taffeta, with hand-painted butterflies in black and orange fitting across its surface, is used here for an enchanting full-skirted costume of the late Victorian period. The little coat, lace frilled, is quantly in keeping, and so is the broad leghorn hat with drooping brim. The parasol, the new-Vanity Fair as it is called, is of pompadour taffeta, with a trimming of green taffeta.

Shirt Waists Are Severe.

Shirt waists cut along mannish lines severely simple in style are having a tremendous vogue this season. They are particularly suitable to the business girl. Three attractive models were seen here. One was a finely striped silk, black and white being the color scheme of the shirt waist. This was made with a high collar—a new idea of the season—which buttons up tightly to the throat. Very chic but boyish in the effect. The other two blouses were of dainty handkerchief linen and showed a graceful shoulder line.

the front that they, too, have a sinister and sober significance.

Black will even prevail in tea gowns which are usually brilliant. A smart tea gown that has been sent over as a sketch is in black satin, an innovation, as everyone must admit. It is cut on dignified medieval lines with a piece of itself shaped in from the back to be adjusted in the front as a girdle, caught by a great diamond of cut jet which drops strands like tears toward the floor. There is a cape of black chantilly lace flowing freely over the back and shoulders, forming sleeves in keeping with the puffed sleeves that were tentatively shown in the early winter. Evidently there is to be a radical change in evening sleeves, so it is wise to be prepared for it. It does not come about through a revolt against the sleeveless bodice, but is due to a progression of ideas along the same epochal line.

Another sketch sent over shows a polonaise of orange-colored velvet opening over the skirt made from two silver lace ruffles. At, or rather above the waist line there is an immense butterfly worked in rhinestones and jet. The décolletage is V-shaped and is a part of the orange velvet polonaise, and it, too, has a deep founce to serve as a sleeve.

One of the best houses sends a sketch for a new coat suit which has two distinguishing features; the skirt is not wide and the coat is laced down the side from shoulder to well below the waist line with a heavy gold cord. The suit is of green cloth such as the Belgian officers wear. The eyelets are conspicuously large and bound with green velvet. The long, small sleeves have flaring cuffs and above these they are laced with the gold cord that drops in small tassels at the back. There is a full peplum attached to the long-waisted coat, the joining outlined by three rows of stitching.

Each garment, as you see, has a smart new feature, and one that any of us are able to incorporate into clothes that we contemplate having in the near future.

COVER FOR THE DECK CHAIR

Practically a Necessity When This Piece of Furniture Is Given Place in the House.

Deck chairs are to be found in most households and they are comfortable and very inexpensive to buy, but they are not particularly sightly objects and, therefore, are more frequently kept for use in the garden than in a room. With very little trouble the appearance of one of these chairs can be greatly improved when required for use indoors.

In the first place, the woodwork should be painted with some quick-drying enamel chosen of a color to harmonize with the other colors in the room. Then it is an easy matter to make a cover for the chair such as is shown in the accompanying sketch, Face to Face. Suddenly they found themselves, just as our story opens, face to face in the ditch.

"You!" he whispered, strong emotion almost disguising the cloves on his breath.

It was some moments before either could speak for hiccoughs.

Then he stuttered softly, "You!"

"You!" she mumbled.

They leaned toward each other, as though the end of their noses were magnets, instead of rosy headlights.

Then he bawled, "You!"

She also had found her voice.

"You!" she yowled.

"Oh!" he said remorsefully, "this is wrong of us!"

She sighed acquiescence, and they parted.

Forgive them, reader. They had been divorced only a week!

A Draft—You Catch Cold—Then Follows Coughs, Cold Stiff Neck Neuralgia

Especially in the piercing pain of neuralgia or the dull throb of headache is Sloan's Liniment wonderfully relieving. Laid lightly on the part where the pain is felt, it gives at once a feeling of comfort and ease that is most welcome to the overwrought sufferer.

Hear What Others Say:

"There are no Liniments that equal Sloan's. My husband has neuralgia very often, he rubs Sloan's on his face and that is the last of it."—Mrs. V. J. Brown, Route 1, Box 181, Halle, Tenn.

"I have used Sloan's Liniment for family use for years and would not be without it. We have raised a family of ten children and have used it for croup and all lung trouble; also, as an antiseptic for wounds, of which children have a great many, it can't be beat. My wife sprained her ankle last summer and it was in bad shape. Sloan's Liniment applied enabled her to be as good as ever in a week. I have used it several times for sprains and rheumatism."—John Newcomb, R. R. No. 2, Keosauq, Iowa.
