The Swastika.
The original place and significance of the "Swastika" sign are alike unknown, various theories having been put forward in answer to both questions. It is certain, however, that the symbol has been known for centuries, and in prehistoric times, in various parts of the world, as an emblem of benediction or good luck. The word is from the Sanskrit and means "well-making." The four-branched monogrammatic sign has been found in Europe, Asia and America. It was known first in the bronze age, and it occurs in the Swiss lake dwellings. In the historic period it is found in Japan, Korea, China, Tibet, Armenia, Asia Minor, Greece, and its islands, especially Cyprus and Rhodes; Italy, France, Germany, Scandinavia, Great Britain—perhaps only under Scandinavian influence—Ohio, Tennessee, Mississippi, Alaska, Mexico and Brazil. It was not known in early India, and is not known to be native to Egypt, Babylonia, Assyria, Phoenicia, or, till a late date, Persia. It was particularly adopted by Buddhism, and its presence in Japan, China and Tibet is thus explained. Its origin as a symbol has been the object of endless speculation; some scholars say it is a solar symbol; others an earth symbol, wind symbol, etc.; others that it is merely decorative in its origin. The cross, the lotus petal, the circle, etc., have been suggested as derivations for its form. It is probably chiefly talismanic.

LIVELY TIME IN PROSPECT

"Irish" Comedians Likely to Have Grand Welcome at Reception of the A. O. H. Rifles.

Two visitors at a burlesque show got up between acts and went out, according to a narrative by Jimmy Reddington of Milwaukee. They repaired to the box office and asked to see the manager of the company on a matter of business, the request bringing him to the window.
"We want to know," began one of them, "who are the fellows playing the two Irishmen?"
"Their names are Cohen and Schwartz."
"Do they get big money?"
The manager did not overlook this bet and the questioning went on.
"Can they give a show outside?"
"It might be arranged. What's the occasion?"
"The annual reception of our society."
"What's your society?"
"The A. O. H. Rifles. Tell them to name their own price."

The Test Supreme.
"You say that women haven't the endurance of men?"
"They haven't."
"That they cannot successfully resist unusual mental strain or physical fatigue—that they lack nerve and patience and endurance?"
"Yes."
"Do you see that little woman over there?"
"Yes."
"You have never known a man who could endure what she has endured."
"Eh! Why, what is she?"
"She's the reader of the love stories submitted to a popular magazine."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

SOME KITCHEN HINTS

DISPOSITION OF INGREDIENTS IN THE PANTRY.

Flour Must Be Sifted Several Times to Secure the Best Results—Use of Bread Crumbs—Tin Cake Boxes.

Flour.—Flour should always be sifted several times, as this adds to the lightness of bread or cake. When sour milk is to be employed with the flour, cream of tartar or baking powder is omitted and only soda used. Tea biscuits, made with soda and sour milk, are delicious southern delicacies. A quarter of a teaspoonful of soda is sufficient for a quart of flour.

Bread Crumbs.—Crumbs that are to be kept for any time should be put in glass jars. Jars with the tight screw tops used for preserves are excellent for the purpose. The crumbs will keep better if the bread is first dried in the stove, then grated and bottled when entirely cold. All scalloped dishes include crumbs in the mixture and a dry dust of them on top. With the addition of the crumbs, and proper seasoning, all fragments of fresh meat, fish and poultry may be used up.

Salt and Pepper.—Table salt should be fine—in fact, almost as smooth as powder. Black pepper has more taste and pungency if ground freshly in a little pepper mill at the time of using.

Heating the Bread Knife.—When you are cutting new bread for the table did you ever try putting the knife in hot water? Try it some time and see if you don't find it cuts much easier.

Tin Bread and Cake Boxes.—Always keep cake and bread in tin boxes, as wooden boxes, unless well seasoned, are apt to give them a disagreeable taste, and wrapping them in brown paper should be avoided for the same reason.

Pork Chops and Spaghetti.

Fry pork chops brown with three sliced onions and a tiny clove of garlic, peeled and sliced. Then pour a can of tomatoes over the meat; season well with pepper and salt and a little paprika, and add a chopped green pepper. Cook slowly for an hour. Meanwhile boil a package of spaghetti in plenty of salted water, leaving it whole if possible. Cook till tender, then drain and rinse with cold water, and again with boiling water. Place the pork chops on a large platter and strain the gravy, which should have cooked till rather thick, over them, and border with spaghetti. Over the latter sprinkle grated cheese rather thickly and pass a dish of the same for those who like a more decided cheese flavor. Mushrooms, either the fresh or dried, may be cooked with the spaghetti and it will improve the dish greatly.

French Toast With Marmalade.

A fancy toast reminds one of what is sometimes called "French toast." Plain white bread is cut in rather generous slices, brushed lightly with a mixture of egg and milk, not enough being used to moisten more than the actual surface of the bread. The direct heat of toasting quickly dries this, and when the bread so treated is carefully browned it is difficult to guess wherein lies the secret of this particular brand of toast. With a spoonful of jam or marmalade this makes an ideal novelty for the afternoon tea table.

Banbury Tarts.

One cupful of raisins, ground; juice and grated rind of one lemon, one-half cupful of sugar, two tablespoonfuls of boiling water, one soda cracker rolled, salt, season with nutmeg and cinnamon or other desired spices. Boil until the proper thickness and use as filling for turnovers.

Molded Beef.

Procure a shin of beef, have the bone sawed in four or five pieces, cover with boiling water and cook until the meat leaves the bone. Then chop fine, discarding all the gristle and hard bits; set the liquor away until all the fat has risen to the top; then remove the fat and boil the liquid down so it will jelly when cold. Season with one-half teaspoonful allspice, one-half teaspoonful black pepper and salt to taste. Add the chopped meat and simmer for ten minutes, stirring often. Pour into mold until cold.

Strawberry Mousse.

Pick and wash two quarts of strawberries or use the preserved fruit. Put through a sieve with a potato masher. Dissolve one-half box gelatin in a cupful cold water. Strain through a cheesecloth and add two cupfuls of sugar. Stir well over strawberry mixture. Whip a pint of cream until stiff. Add juice of one-fourth lemon, mix with strawberries. Put in a form and stand on ice for two hours. Turn out on platter and serve with whipped cream and powdered sugar.

The "All-Mine" Trick.

A wandering sleight-of-hand man was entertaining some loungers with an exhibition of tricks. After showing a goodly number of them he said: "But I have one good trick that I call the All-Mine trick."

Of course they all wanted to see that, so he instructed a goodly number of them to give him a dollar, after having marked it and carefully noted the date. About a dozen of the bystanders did so, and he took them all, shook them up, then showed each man another dollar than the one he had marked, accompanying each coin with the question:

"Is that yours?"
Each man, of course, said "No," and he strolled away, saying:
"Then they must all be mine."

CAMDEN, N.J.—"I was sick for two years with nervous spells, and my kidneys were affected. I had a doctor all the time and used a galvanic battery, but nothing did me any good. I was not able to go to bed, but spent my time on a couch or in a sleeping-chair, and soon became almost a skeleton. Finally my doctor went away for his health, and my husband heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got me some. In two months I got relief and now I am like a new woman and am at my usual weight. I recommend your medicine to every one and so does my husband."—Mrs. TILLIE WATERS, 530 Mechanic Street, Camden, N.J.

From Hanover, Penn.

Pinkham's Vegetable Compound proved an excellent remedy for it made me a well woman. After taking a few bottles my pains disappeared, and we now have one of the finest boy babies you ever saw."—Mrs. C. A. RYCKROBE, R.F.D., No. 5, Hanover, Pa.
