"Foolish Wives"

In sheer beauty—lavish magnificence—luxurious splendor that is REAL—beyond anything your wildest dreams ever brought you. The one picture you positively must see.

The First Real Million Dollar Picture!

Written, Directed by and Featuring
Von Stroheim
 A Man You Will Love To Hate

Remember, that for every minute you gaze upon this marvelous scene of intrigue and folly, that $6,000 was paid for it in the making.

You will forget to think in terms of money as you watch the unfolding of this thrilling drama. Here will be spread before you extreme wealth and wanton folly and fashion's frivolities; self-indulgence in all its hideousness will be shown with the cup of bitterness that follows; you will read between the lines much that the picture does not show.

"FOOLISH WIVES" cost more than a million dollars to make and nearly two years in actual time. Never before has a picture of such cost and magnitude been shown in Crossville. You would go to see it in the city and pay a dollar for the privilege and come away to rave about it.

You can see it in Crossville Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights for only 35 and 50 cents at the

CHARGED WITH ASSAULT; OTHER LAW VIOLATIONS

Draws Pistol on Officer, But Ran When He Saw There Was Fight On.

Virgil Brady was arrested Friday by Deputy Sheriff Montgomery Brandon, near Daysville, and lodged in the Rockwood lockup until Sunday when Sheriff J. H. Henry and Marshal V. C. Lyles went for him and brought him here and he is now in the county bastille.

From the best information we are able to obtain, it seems that Brady is a pretty tough character. He is said to have a brother, John Brady, in jail in Kingston charged with handling or making illicit whiskey. It seems that Virgil Brady also has some such charge against him and will probably have his trial at the next term of court on that and other charges.

It seems that Brady had threatened several persons with his pistol when they were on their way home from church and that complaint had been made to Deputy Sheriff Brandon, who went to arrest Brady. Brady is said to have drawn his pistol on the deputy but Deputy Brandon went after him without delay and Brady ran. Deputy Brandon followed in hot haste and after running him the big end of a mile made the arrest. Brady was then lodged in the lockup at Rockwood as stated above.

BURKE

Miss Mary L. Gregory has returned from New York. She found her mother some better than she expected to find her.

Rev. James Austin preached a very interesting old time sermon here Sunday, filling the place of F. B. Wyatt, who has been here for the past four years. He is now on the Evansville work.

Wm. Matthews, of Texas, is visiting his brother, O. G. C. Matthews, and other relatives. He says it has not rained in his part of Texas since last April.

Malon Mathews has gone to carry the mail this week, from Crossville to Biglick.

Mrs. Elizabeth Miller is some better this week.

Mrs. Sarah Tollett visited her aged father, "Uncle" Walker Brown, Saturday and Sunday.

Saturday E. G. Wilson and family went to his farm on the mountain. It is known as the Carpenter place. They went to gather their winter apples.

Mrs. R. L. Bise and little daughter, Martha, visited Mrs. Bise's mother, Mrs. Lila Turner, at Linary Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. John Parham and sons, J. E. and Earl, and Miss Gregory were the dinner guests of Mrs. Hattie Thompson Sunday.

E. G. Selby and sons, J. E. and Baxter, visited with friends at Biglick Saturday and Sunday.

Prof. Hanks and family and a company of young folks from Melvine attended church at Parhams Chapel Sunday. They were on their way to the big cave in the head of the valley.

J. S. Selby made a business trip to the county seat Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Selby visited their daughter, Mrs. C. A. Hedgecoth at Meridian Sunday.

ARGENTINE OPTIMISM

The Argentine government is reported to have asked the congress for the authority to lend 5,000,000 pesos to the Russian soviets without interest repayment to be made when circumstances permit. It is a rare optimism indeed that would suggest a transaction of that sort. A government that has repudiated all its indebtedness, confiscated all privately-owned property, and murdered over 1,700,000 of its best citizens in four years is never going to find it convenient to repay any new loans it may receive. If Argentina lends money to Russia it will be virtually a gift.

Saturday night, Rev. G. M. Green performed the ceremony. Both young people are highly respected and we wish them a long and happy married life.
