

THE JOURNAL:

CAMDEN, AUGUST 20, 1836.

FOR CONGRESS.
COL. JOHN P. RICHARDSON.
FOR THE STATE SENATE.
COL. JOHN CHESNUT.

We are authorized to state that the following gentlemen have consented to be candidates for the House of Representatives at the ensuing election.

LAWRENCE L. WHITAKER,
JOHN D. MURRAY,
M. M. LEVY,
LEWIS J. PATTERSON,
JAMES B. CURETON.

FOR THE CAMDEN JOURNAL.

Mr. J. C. West—Dear Sir:—With the consent of J. G. Bowman, Esq., we, together with many other voters, request you to announce him as a candidate for Congress to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of the late honorable Richard I. Manning.

WILL G. COXE,
LEROY SECREST,
J. B. M'CAKILL,
J. HARRISON BROWN.

FOR THE CAMDEN JOURNAL.

Mr. Editor—The following ticket will receive the support of ALL PARTIES.
FOR SENATOR
Gen. JOHN CHESNUT.
FOR REPRESENTATIVES.
JNO. M. DESAUSSURE,
M. M. LEVY,
WM. O. NIXON.

We are authorized to announce Capt. JAMES C. HAILE as a candidate for Major of the upper battalion to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Major D. C. QUELIS.

We are authorized to announce Capt. DANIEL KIRKLAND, Sen. as a candidate for Major in the Upper Battalion of Kershaw District.

CANDIDATES IN CLARENDON.

FOR SENATE.
D. ST. P. DU BOSE.
FOR REPRESENTATIVES.
JAMES B. RICHARDSON,
WM. BURGESS.

The lines of the Bishopville Bard have been received, and are on file for consideration.

The regularity of irregular mails for the last two or three weeks, is really provoking—yet Amos KIRKLAND is not so much to blame as the overseers of roads, and the menders of bridges and ferry boats.

EXPRESS MAIL.

The Postmaster General has issued proposals for carrying an Express Mail between New York and New Orleans—time six days and a half, being less than half the time required by the present arrangements of the Department—rates triple the ordinary mail. No cumbersome packages to be carried.

Late accounts from Florida inform us that Maj. WILLIAMS was killed by a body of 200 Indians while on his way from Black Creek to Nonardville—that the Seminoles was very much exasperated against him for having killed one of their tribe in a dispute about cattle previous to the commencement of hostilities—Almost all the regular troops at Micanopy are sick, and the several stations almost totally unprotected. An escort had to be furnished from a volunteer company to guard the baggage train from St. Augustine to Picoletta.

TEXAS.

The Opelousas Gazette states that the rumor of the Texans having attacked and defeated the Mexicans, killing 500 of them, has been confirmed by several individuals direct from that country. Also that 500 emigrants from Kentucky alone, passed through New Orleans within the last three weeks, besides a company of 100 from Baltimore, and that Mr. Duval, late Governor of Florida, is determined to devote his life and fortune regardless of family ties, in revenging the murder of his son, Capt. Duval, who was executed by the order of SANTA ANNA, and is now endeavoring to raise 2000 mounted men for that purpose. Two steam boats left Natchitoches for the coast of Texas on the Gulf of Mexico, loaded with the provisions which the government had a few weeks before sent to that place for GAINES' army.

It will be seen by reference to the latest news from Texas, which will be found in another column that the army would not consent to the appointment of Lamar as commander in chief, notwithstanding the wishes of the cabinet; Gen. Iturbide is therefore to retain the command until the arrival of H. Udon.

The printing office of the abolitionists in Cincinnati, Ohio, has been entirely destroyed. The Cincinnati Whig, of August 1, says:

"About nine o'clock on Saturday evening, between four and five thousand people (as is supposed) had assembled round the publication office of the abolition paper, edited by James G. Birney and printed by A. Pugh, at the N. E. corner of Main and Seventh streets. In a few moments the types and printing materials of that establishment were seen dashing out of the windows into the street amid the cheers of the immense mass of people below. In a very short time the windows of the building and every thing in the office were completely demolished and strewn about the streets. The printing press was broken to pieces, and the largest piece dragged through several of the principal streets and then thrown into the river.

Subsequent to the destruction of the printing materials, the mob made search for the leading abolitionists, with a view of giving them a coat of tar and feathers, but as they had taken the hint, and cleared themselves, the advocates of Judge Lynch repaired to a part of the city, inhabited by a mixed medley of blacks and whites, and the inmates turned out of doors, the windows broken, and every article the houses contained, scattered to the four winds of Heaven. By the interposition of a few respectable citizens, the mob appeared now to be willing to desist, and go home, but in the course of an hour or two, another rush was made at some negro huts in a different part of the city, and the windows, furniture, &c. shared the same fate. During this attack, a gun was fired from a window of one of the houses, and a young man wounded in the hip and leg, with large size pigeon shot, though not dangerously.

We have seen a letter from Gen. DEXTER of Illinois to Col. FRASER of this state, giving an account of the gallantry of Col. CROGAN, and the cowardice of Gen. HARRISON, in the affair at Fort Sandusky. It is well known that Gen. DEXTER is opposed to the administration, and therefore would not, from personal feelings, assist directly or indirectly, in promoting Mr. VAN BUREN. Suffice it to say, he is a gentleman of the highest integrity, and was in the fort at the siege. His statement must consequently be credited. Had we received a copy of the letter in time, it certainly should have had the circulation of our paper, for the special benefit of those presses, which have been for some time trumpeting the military claims of their residential candidate, to whom the United States Senate of 1816, refused a medal with the thanks of Congress, and the coupling of his name with the gallant Gov. SHELBY. Gen. HARRISON in commenting on the proceedings, says:

"A vote of the Senate of the United States has attached to my name a disgrace which I am fully convinced no time or no efforts of mine will ever be able to efface."

How different with Col. CROGAN, who refused to desert the American fortification at Lower Sandusky, in compliance with the timid and cowardly order of his commander, Gen. HARRISON; but with a handful of brave Americans, he resisted and defeated the British troops and savage Indians with great slaughter; received the plaudits of his countrymen, and thanks of Congress for his heroic bravery and disobedience to Gen. Harrison's orders.

SPORTING.

A gentleman communicates the following phenomenon to the editors of the Georgetown Union, for the speculation of the curious and inquisitive.—He says:

"On the 3d inst a deer was shot and killed by my neighbor, W. B. BELLUCK, Esq. and out of the liver of the animal was taken a piece of wood about one and a half inches in length, and perhaps the fourth of an inch in diameter. The piece of wood, I think, is of oak—judging from the grain or texture—is black on the exterior and in a perfect state of preservation; and from the appearance of the liver, which was healthy and sound, I should infer that the piece of wood had been lodged there a long time."

Another attempt to assassinate LOUIS PHILIPPE was made by an individual calling himself ALIBEAU which fortunately did not succeed. The King was at the time on his return to Nenilly, and while under the gate-way leading to the quay, a fire arm in the form of a walking cane was placed on the door of the carriage and discharged. Alibean states that at the moment of taking aim, he received a push which was the cause of his missing him, as he was not in the least agitated. After the bustle which ensued had ceased, the King proceeded on his journey with the Queen, his sister Adelaide, and a detachment of dragoons in attendance.

MARIA MONK'S awful disclosures have been ascertained by several of the most eminent Divines and other distinguished individuals of the British province, to be a tissue of falsehoods, as regards the localities of the Hotel Dieu Nunery, in the city of Montreal. The following extract is taken from the New York Transcript:

"All these gentlemen declare that there is not the slightest resemblance between Maria Monk's description, and the buildings and vaults; and that had any alteration been made since the publication of the book, it would have been necessary to alter it from summit to foundation. Nothing can be more complete than the sworn evidence of these gentlemen, who are among the most respectable in the British province.

There are also affidavits of Jane Ray, so frequently mentioned in the "Disclosures," Maria Howard, Miss Reed, Jane McCoy, who were penitent prostitutes in the "Magdalen Asylum" at the time Maria Monk was there, and also of various persons with whom Maria Monk lived during the period she states that she was a inmate of the nunery.

"The work will be ready in a fortnight, and will be issued by one of our respectable publishers.

"We, therefore, consider this most impudent humbug as being most satisfactorily exposed. A little time was necessary for this conclusion, and that the time has been so employed as to bring conviction to the minds of the most bigoted and credulous.

To the Ladies.—The Philadelphia Ledger, in commenting upon the extraordinary trial of Robinson, makes the following remarks:—"Unfortunately for virtuous women, while they hunt down the frail of their own sex with the ferocity of tigers, barring forever against them the door to amendment and drive them to perpetual dishonor, they regard with an eye of tender forgiveness, and too often of secret exultation, the abominable perfidies, the blasting, withering, soul-destroying treacheries of men."

A Western Giant.—A correspondent of one of the Eastern papers, writing from Louisville, the following portrait of a Kentucky giant:

"I have said the Louisvillians can boast of one thing—they can of two: the best public house in the West, and the tallest man in all christendom. They challenge, and well they may, not only this, but any other country, to exhibit what they can—a youth, 10 years of age, measuring 7 feet 6 1-2 inches in height! I have seen him, and without knowing his length, should judge it to be nearer 10 than 7 feet! I conversed with him, but with difficulty. Standing on the ground & conversing with a man in a steeple, or holding converse with the spirits of the clouds, is no easy matter. He informed me that at the age of 12, he was unusually small—and growing 3 1-4 inches the last year; he is sensible of being still on the increase. His patriotism who can doubt! He stands, or stood, when I saw him, a living monument to his country's greatness. He is not corpulent but rather slender—hence he appears taller than he really is—"but really" he is enough, as the Lord knows. Add, or rather superadd, any to a man that has attained to any thing like his height, and inches appear like feet.

The Belgian papers state that a good looking young man, formerly a drum-major in the service of the King of the Netherlands, and then exceedingly tall, is now showing himself as a curiosity at Parma, being 8 feet 4 inches (nearly 8 10 3-4 inches English) in height, and weighing 416 lbs. (4 cwt 1lb.)

MATCH RACE.

To be run on the 24th of the present month, over the Camden turf half mile for $100 aside half forfeit, between Mr. Newsom's bay horse Little Billy, by Little Billy, sent out of a Bertrand mare, and Mr. Solomon Thompson's Gelding; Grey Medley, by Byron, son of Monsieur Tonsou, out of imported Ollikraka. Considerable interest is excited among the sporting public by the above match, and it is expected that a good deal of money will be lost and won, on the eventful 24th—Banters are freely made by the friends of Little Billy, and are readily accepted by the backers of his opponent. Little Billy from his previous successes and the high training of his present skillful proprietor, seems to be somewhat the favorite though the backers of Grey Medley, are very confident—there is no telling the result. Nous verrons.
