FEDERAL COURT HOLDS LABOR
BOYCOTT OF BUCK'S STOVE AND RANGE COMPANY IS IN CONTEMPT.

JURISTS REVERSED

FEDERAL TRIBUNAL HOLDS JAIL SENTENCE
ON BUCK'S STOVE AND RANGE COMPANIES
BOYCOTT IS INVALID—
PRESIDENT COUNCIL ON BOTH SIDES.

Washington, May 19.—Setting aside the sentence of imprisonment imposed by the Supreme court of the District of Columbia for alleged disobedience to a court injunction, the Federal court of the United States today ruled against Gompers, John Mitchell and Frank Morrison, president and secretary, respectively, of the American Federation of Labor, who had been erroneously sentenced to jail on a charge of contempt of a local court.

The first case announced was the contempt case against Messrs. Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison. Justice Lamar delivered the court's decision. Charges Came From Labor War.

The charges of contempt against Gompers, Morrison and Secretary Morrison arose from a bitter labor war between the labor and the Buck's Stove and Range company of St. Louis, Mo. The St. Louis concern came into the picture when the labor of Columbia, Mo. failed to prevent the American Federation of Labor and the company from negotiating its own contract with it. The question involved the labor contract which the company had made with the labor of Columbia, Mo.

The company's claim that the labor of Columbia, Mo. had broken its contract with the company was "null and void" because the company had made a contract with the labor of Columbia, Mo. The labor of Columbia, Mo. had broken its contract with the company because the company had made a contract with the labor of Columbia, Mo.

The labor of Columbia, Mo. had broken its contract with the company because the company had made a contract with the labor of Columbia, Mo. The labor of Columbia, Mo. had broken its contract with the company because the company had made a contract with the labor of Columbia, Mo.
