HOW BRAVE SONS OF NEW ZEALAND HELPED MOTHER COUNTRY. War imposes many sacrifices upon a nation engaged in it, and civilian life necessarily is disturbed.

Canada and Australia have been no less unselfish in supporting the war. The whole-hearted and entirely voluntary exertions of the British dominions furnish an inspiring example to the American people.

Why Mangin Called a Halt. Soldiers have no illusions. They believe in blunt facts, and General Mangin is no exception to the rule.

How 'Silent Drill' is Done. The battalion drill is, of course, the great display feature at the United States disciplinary barracks at Fort Leavenworth.

Why Compass is Well Protected. One of the safest places in the war airplane is given to the compass, for without its aid the airman who is flying overseas or land on a misty day is hopelessly lost.

Epidemic Causes Heavy Loss. Montreal—Fifty per cent of the inhabitants of Northern Labrador perished during the winter from an epidemic of influenza, smallpox and measles.

To Combat the White Plague. The mortality from tuberculosis during the last ten years in British Columbia has increased 100 per cent and the government intends taking active steps of a remedial nature to combat the white plague inroads on public health.
