Make Carey SHINGLES

the Roof for You—

CAREY Shingles are surfaced with natural red or green fadeless slate. This reduces your fire risk and insurance premiums. These shingles require no painting. Up-keep expense is practically abolished. And the farm buildings have a prosperous "kept up" appearance at all times.

The Asphalt and wool felt make the shingles flexible, easy to lay over an old roof or even a poor surface. The sun's heat does not dry out Carey Shingles. They never split or curl. On the contrary they stick together, protect the nail heads from rusting off and absolutely defy the severest windstorms.

GET THIS FREE FOLDER. We have prepared a beautiful folder in colors describing Carey Shingles fully and showing them used on all kinds of buildings. We will be very glad to mail you a copy of this if you will write us and state what kind of building you are going to roof and the approximate size.

"The Place of a Skull"

By REV. GEORGE GUILLE
Extension Department, Moody Bible
Institute, Chicago

TEXT—And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, a place of a skull . . . they crucified him.—Matt. 27:33-35.

The Spirit of God carefully marked the place where the Lord was crucified, for this, like everything else in the story of the cross, has its meaning.

The world boasts of its wisdom. At every turn we are summoned to hear what it says and to gaze upon its progress and achievements. But it disappoints us. It has brought no peace to earth nor to our sorrowing hearts, and when it comes to removing death, or the sting of death, which is sin, or indeed, any of the darkest shadows that cloud our lives, we find that it has made no progress at all. Sin and sorrow and death are still the great facts of human experience.

Nor has man's wisdom given us any knowledge of God and a life beyond death. The wisest man that ever lived was baffled in his searching out of the things that are done under heaven and was unable, by wisdom, to discover anything about God save "his eternal power and Godhead." God must reveal himself. And he has done so in the person of his son, of whom it is written: "Who of God is made unto us wisdom." And the apostle, descending upon the wisdom of the world, says, "The Jews require a sign and the Greeks seek after wisdom; but we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumbling block, and unto the Greeks foolishness; but unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God." And behold! the wisdom of God put to death in the place of a skull, the utter wreck of human wisdom. That place of a skull is God's estimate of the wisdom of men; the cross erected there is man's estimate of the wisdom of God.

How did man acquire this boasted wisdom? It was by listening to Satan's lie. The pursuit of knowledge was the career upon which that arch liar proposed to set the race, and in following his fatal suggestion there was forfeited that higher wisdom "which God ordained before the world unto our glory," and "which none of the princes of this world knew; for had they known it they would not have crucified the Lord of glory."

For twenty-five hundred years after the creation, "the invisible things" of God were "clearly seen . . . even his eternal power and Godhead." Written across the heavens with accuracy and clearness was that revelation, the heavens declaring his glory, and the firmament showing his handiwork. But men "did not like to retain God in their knowledge" and "professing themselves to be wise they became fools" and "changed the truth of God into a lie." Then began their guessing, and from that hour one school of thought has displaced another, and systems of philosophy have chased each other like shadows across the hills of time. And still, "the world by wisdom knew not God" and "the message of the cross is to them that perish foolishness," but "the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God" and "the Lord knoweth the reasonings of the wise that they are vain." "But after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe," and "we preach Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God."

Happy and wise alone is he who at the cross of the Lord Jesus has humbled himself as a sinner to accept the one "made sin" there for him. There, and there alone, shall he find the answer to the eternal question, "What is truth?" for the lips that cannot lie have furnished the one final answer forever: "I am the Truth." Oh, the marvel of divine wisdom! The very murder of the son of God, outcome of Satan's lie that men in pride and self will still cling to, is the highest wisdom of God, for it is his perfect provision for human sin and guilt—yea, for every need of the human heart. If you do not believe it, I challenge you to come and see for yourself.

His Way.

Have we quite learned his way? "Teach me thy way, O Lord!" Do we know how to lift broken limbs? Do we know how to handle broken lives? Do we find more delight in denouncing sins than in helping sinners? Are we more expert in abstract analysis than in practical comfort? There is surely an almost crushing need of gentleness in days like these. Let us make no mistake about it; we are not less strong when we come gentle. Real gentleness is not weakened strength; it is strength disciplined, purified, refined. Gentleness is a matured strength. It is the full corn in the ear. Roughness has never finished its training. It needs to be

Care and Responsibility.

THE responsibility attached to the preparing of a remedy for infants and children is undoubtedly greater than that imposed upon the manufacturer of remedies for adults whose system is sufficiently strong to counteract, for a time at least, any injurious drug. It is well to observe that Castoria is prepared today, as it has been for the past 40 years, under the personal supervision of Mr. Chas. H. Fletcher.

What have makers of imitations and substitutes at stake? What are their responsibilities? To whom are they answerable? They spring up today, scatter their nefarious wares broadcast, and disappear tomorrow.

Could each mother see the painstaking care with which the prescription for Fletcher's Castoria is prepared: could they read the innumerable testimonials from grateful mothers, they would never listen to the subtle pleadings and false arguments of those who would offer an imitation of, or substitute for, the tried and true Fletcher's Castoria.

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

A Word About Truth.

"Great is Truth, and mighty above all things." So says the Old Testament, yet it is equally true to-day. Truth shows no favors, fears no enemies.

From the inception of Fletcher's Castoria, Truth has been the watchword, and to the conscientious adherence to this motto in the preparation of Fletcher's Castoria as well as in its advertising is due the secret of its popular demand.

All imitations, all substitutes, all just-as-good preparations lack the element of Truth, lack the righteousness of being, lack all semblance even in the words of those who would deceive.

And you! Mothers, mothers with the fate of the World in your hands, can you be deceived? Certainly not.

Fletcher's Castoria is prepared for Infants and Children. It is distinctly a remedy for the little-ones. The BABY'S need for a medicine to take the place of Castor Oil, Paregoric and Soothing Syrups was the sole thought that led to its discovery. Never try to correct BABY'S troubles with a medicine that you would use for yourself.

THIN PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE PHOSPHATE

Nothing Like Plain Bitro-Phosphate to Put on Firm, Healthy Flesh and to Increase Strength, Vigor and Nerve Force.

Judging from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developed arms, neck and bust, and replacing ugly hollows and angles by the soft curving lines of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who keenly feel their excessive thinness.

Thinness and weakness are often due to starved nerves. Our bodies need more phosphate than is contained in modern foods. Physicians claim there is nothing that will supply this deficiency so well as the organic phosphate known among druggists as bitro-phosphate, which is inexpensive and is sold by most all druggists under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. By feeding the nerves directly and by supplying the body cells with the necessary phosphoric food elements, bitro-phosphate should produce a welcome transformation in the appearance; the increase in weight frequently being astonishing.

Increase in weight also carries with it a general improvement in the health. Nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of energy, which nearly always accompany excessive thinness, should disappear, dull eyes become bright, and pale cheeks glow with the bloom of perfect health.

CAUTION.—Although bitro-phosphate is unsurpassed for relieving nervousness, sleeplessness and general weakness, it should not, owing to its tendency to increase weight, be used by anyone who does not desire to put on flesh.

WOMEN NEED SWAMP-ROOT

Thousands of women have kidney and bladder trouble and never suspect it. Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased.

Pain in the back, headache, loss of ambition, nervousness, are often times symptoms of kidney trouble.

Don't delay starting treatment. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a physician's prescription, obtained at any drug store, may be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

Get a medium or large size bottle immediately from any drug store.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—Adv.

Pardonable Curiosity.
"Gabe Sogback got hold of a drink or two of bone-dry licker tuther evening and went home and threw himself on the bed, face down," related a citizen of Sandy Mush, Ark. "As soon as he was asleep his wife took and tied him fast by the four corners, spread out like a capital letter 'X,' and beat and mauled him with a wagon spoke (H) she mighty nigh smashed him flat. A passel of us fellers going by heard the howr and, 'lowing a varmint was killing somebody, went in, and sorter persuaded Mizzus Sogback to turn Gabe loose. She said she had whipped him 'cuz she loved him. I reckon that was all right, but I'm sorter curious to know what she'd add to him if she'd 'ptul—hated him."—Kansas City Star.

Happiness and Interest.
Personal happiness is almost synonymous with personal interests; the wider the range of the latter the higher is the degree of happiness.—Lillian Whiting.

WHY SO MOODY?

To feel "blue," cross and nervous all the time is not natural for anyone. Often it is due merely to faulty kidney action. Housework and the many family cares wear the nerves and so weaken the kidneys. Then comes that tired, fretful, half-sick state. If you have backache, headache, dizziness and kidney irregularities, and sharp, shooting pains, try Doan's Kidney Pills. They have brought health and happiness to thousands of women.

A Kentucky Case

Mrs. M. Griffin, 102 Church St., Cincinnati, Ky., says: "I was often nervous and dizzy. My kidneys were weak and I had backaches. I didn't sleep well nights and mornings was tired out. I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and used them. This medicine benefited me and I continued using it until I was well and strong. I haven't had any trouble with my kidneys since and I consider my cure permanent."
