A pair of gold mounted eye glasses are advertised as lost.

Pay your taxes before the 15th of December, or get 10 per cent added.

At noon Mr. Morgan will sell 153 tons of Cumberland coal on Brewer's wharf.

Mr. J. G. Hitchfield, marine expert, has an important notice elsewhere to mariners.

On the first page will be found items of the latest San Francisco shipping news.

A copy of the TOURISTS' GUIDE gives more interesting reading about the islands than anything published.

The monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A. parlors.

Applications for foreign money orders per S. S. Australia will be received at the Post Office up to 4 o'clock this afternoon.

If you are intending sending Christmas presents or cards to Europe, to-morrow's mail will be the one for them to go on.

As far as can be learned it is probable that His Majesty the King will leave on the flagship Charleston Tuesday for the Coast.

The Hawaiian band will give a public moonlight concert at Emma Square this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Programme elsewhere.

The regular weekly meeting of the Honolulu Arion will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the room of Engine Company No. 1.

Dr. F. L. Miner returned from the Coast on the Australia and has resumed practice at his office and residence, Beretania street.

Capt. Angus of the barque Girvan gives notice that he will not be responsible for debts contracted by his crew without his written order.

The mail by the Australia to-morrow closes at the Post Office as follows: 10 A. M., registered letters and parcels post; 11 A. M., letters and papers.

We congratulate Mr. John M. Dowsett on the announcement that he is authorized to sign the firm name of Messrs. Bishop & Co. per procreation.

The sale of household furniture by Mr. Morgan at the residence of Hon. E. Muller yesterday, was largely attended and good prices were realized.

Bills against the committee on His Majesty's birthday celebration should be sent in at once to Mr. J. U. Kawainui, corner of Queen and Nuuanu streets.

The bridal party were driven to and from the Cathedral last evening in a double carriage with two fine looking gray horses attached, from the Hawaiian Hotel Stables.

At 11 o'clock this morning Mr. J. F. Morgan will sell at Messrs. C. Brewer & Co.'s store, Queen street, carts, wagons and carriages built of superior stock. They include all kinds of styles.

Seats can be reserved to-day, November 20th, at the Hawaiian News Co.'s Music Department for season tickets only for the baseball games. Friday and Saturday seats can be reserved for general admission tickets.

Mr. Geo. C. Stratmeyer got hold of a good many new ideas while over at the Coast. One is the use of the aluminum paint for signs, and a specimen can be seen outside Mr. W. S. Lucas's store, Merchant street. You cannot tarnish the paint, and it looks nobby.

The Hawaiian Hotel catered at the Fowler Neumann wedding last evening. The menu was a sumptuous one and its service perfect. Mr. P. M. Lucas, the popular steward at the Hotel, is deserving of much credit for the skillful manner with which he arranged everything.

The choir and organist of the second congregation of St. Andrew's Cathedral will render the musical portion of the service on board the Flagship Charleston next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. A read organ will be taken on board. Chaplain Frank Thompson conducts the service.

The magic lamp and cigar lighter is the latest novelty that has been introduced by the Hawaiian Hardware Co. The oil, match and lamp are contained in a small case which can be carried in the pocket, and by pressing a spring the lid flies open and the lamp is lit in one operation.

In many ways, when a light is wanted for a moment or so, this novel lamp will prove indispensable. Each case is fitted with a thousand matches.

Don't forget the Sale of Residence and Building Lots at Pearl City on Nov. 29th.

A BRILLIANT WEDDING.

Mr. Alfred Fowler and Miss Eva Neumann Married.

ST. ANDREW'S CATHEDRAL WHERE THE CEREMONY WAS PERFORMED CROWDED TO THE DOORS.

A Fashionable Assemblage - The Reception, Presents, Music, Etc.

One of the most brilliant weddings that has taken place in Honolulu, was that at St. Andrew's Cathedral yesterday evening, when Mr. Alfred Fowler and Miss Eva Neumann were united in the holy bonds of matrimony.

Miss Eva Neumann is the eldest daughter of the Hon. Paul and Mrs. Neumann, and has been a bright ornament in Honolulu society circles, from which she will be much missed. Handsome, highly accomplished, having travelled extensively, and charmingly gracious in manner, she has endeared herself to hundreds of friends. Mr. Fowler, the bridegroom, is the junior member of the well known firm of Messrs. John Fowler & Co. of Leeds and London, England, and a gentleman of cultured taste, one who makes friends wherever he goes. He is a most excellent business man.

The invitations announced the ceremony for 8:15 o'clock, but long before that hour the cathedral was crowded in every part, and many hundreds of persons were simply unable to obtain admission. Even the windows were filled with people anxious to get a glimpse of the bridal party. There was no attempt at decorations, only two handsome bouquets of choice white flowers, which stood on the altar. The ushers were Mr. Oscar Herold, Mr. J. M. Monarrat, Ensign Blow and Cadet Gartley of the flagship Charleston. These gentlemen were kept quite busy showing the invited guests to their seats.

At 8:05 the organ struck up with a Wedding Hymn by Raderger, followed by a Wedding March by Wornford. Mr. Wray Taylor presiding at the instrument. During this time the groomsmen took their places at the head of the nave. At 8:20 o'clock the arrival of the bride was announced by the strains of the Lohengrin Bridal March. Leaning on the arm of her father, the bride advanced slowly up the aisle to the chancel steps, where she was met by the bridegroom. They were met by the bridegroom. They were met by the bridegroom.

Mr. T. McKenzie Fowler, a cousin of the bridegroom, was best man, having accompanied Mr. Fowler from the Colonies for that purpose. Col. the Hon. G. W. Macfarlane, H. M.'s Chamberlain, and a close friend of Mr. Fowler's, was a groomsmen, the others being, Assistant Engineer Jones and Cadet Churchill of the Flagship Charleston, Messrs. John S. Walker, Jr., Ernest H. Wedehouse and Aika C. Dowsett.

The maid of honor was Miss Inez Neumann, sister of the bride, who looked very pretty in a costume of pale green trimmed with pink and lace. The bridesmaids were Miss Agnes Walker dressed in pale blue, Miss Rena Herbert in white, Miss McGrew in cream, Miss Hattie Brown in rose, Miss Helen Wilder in lavender and Miss Delia Widdifield in canary color. Mrs. Neumann, mother of the bride, occupied a seat in the royal pew during the ceremony.

The bride looked perfectly lovely in a handsome costume of ivory colored satin, en train, trimmed with orange blossoms and wearing a white tulle veil.

After the bridal party had taken their position at the chancel steps, our popular clergyman, the Rev. Alexander Mackintosh, commenced the ceremony, performing it in such a manner as to deeply impress the vast assemblage, an undercurrent of melody issuing from the organ throughout. The bride was given away by her father.

After the ceremony the bridal party withdrew to the vestry to sign the register, while the choir of ladies and gentlemen sang the hymn, "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden." As they left the cathedral, Mendelssohn's Wedding March pealed forth from the organ.

Between the hours of 9 and 11 o'clock a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents, King street. The parlors were decorated with flowers, flags and evergreens. A canopy of white tulle, wreathed with choice flowers, occupied one corner of the main parlor, and suspended from it was an exceedingly handsome marriage bell of white chrysanthemums and yellow roses. Under this the happy couple received congratulations, which were eagerly offered by their large circle of friends and other specially invited guests. Panels of different colored flowers, principally roses were to be seen in every direction, while the veranda with its decorations of flags and illuminated by many colored lanterns presented a very pretty scene. In one of the rooms on the wall were the initials in white and green, E. N. and A. F. The grounds were also illuminated with lanterns and torches. The Royal Hawaiian Band was present and under the skillful direction of Bandmaster Berger played a choice programme of music.

The presents were very numerous and of the most costly nature. The wedding cake, made with warm friends of the bride's family, was a very handsome one. Refreshments were served during the evening in abundance. After the reception, dancing was indulged in to a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Fowler will leave on the R. M. S. Mariposa, December 20th, for the Colonies, thence to England by way of India. The Advertiser extends its congratulations, and wishes them a joyful wedded life.

Public Moonlight Concert.

The Hawaiian Band will give a public concert at Emma Square this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Following is the programme:

- 1. March-Imperial City..... Schrammel. 2. Overture-Berlin Lie..... Conradi. 3. Finale-Belario..... Donzetti. 4. Selection-Italian Melodies.Rompozetti. Mikoi. Pun O Hulu. Hiti no me Au. 5. Medley-Christy Minstrel..... Riviere. 6. Patrol-Mount Guard..... Ellenberg. 7. Waltz-Vienna Chronicle..... Strauss. 8. Quadrille-Taiapan..... Offenbach. Aloha Oe! Hawaii Pono!

Errata.

In the last column of the report of the charge to the jury in the Robinson will case printed yesterday the word not was erroneously inserted in the clause "as in fact he did (not) make the signature, so he was in a condition to understand what he was doing."

In the second column "I shall say some things myself," should have been, "I shall say some of the same things myself."

Police Court.

Wednesday, Nov. 19. Two drunks were fined the usual amount. Tin Lung was charged with having opium unlawfully in possession. Sentence was suspended for three days.
