WHERE IS THE GRIEVANCE?

Mr. Bice, one of the non-commissioned officers of the Boston, writes this morning complaining of an item which appeared in yesterday's ADVERTISER, and which he claims, is grossly unjust. The item in question is as follows:

A number of American sailors rode through the streets yesterday in a wagonette. They sang patriotic songs and otherwise enjoyed themselves. They will not have another opportunity for sometime, as it is understood that no shore liberty will be allowed for a period of thirty days.

Now, where does the grievance come in? The ADVERTISER is certainly the last paper in the world to comment unfairly or invidiously on the conduct of American sailors. But American sailors, like others, are not superior to the weaknesses to which frail humanity is subject. One of these is the propensity to take a drop too much. It would certainly not be just to report the excesses of our British friends while leaving the peccadilloes of the Americans out of account. Reputable newspapers endeavor to report facts, without regard to political prepossessions, and the practice of the ADVERTISER is in accordance with this principle.

THE NEW FIRE LAW.

The Fire Bill has become a law, and its full text is published in this morning's issue of the ADVERTISER. The measure represents a genuine reform, and will be hailed as such by the majority. Honolulu has become a city of sufficient size to require a regular paid department, which will not cost more than the volunteer system, while its efficiency should certainly not be less.

We cordially recognize the valuable service rendered by the Volunteer Department for many years past. It has had many efficient engineers, many devoted firemen, and we believe the quality of its work to have been on the whole of a high order. It has become, however, a rank political hotbed, and some of the companies were the center of a great deal of activity which had nothing at all to do with their duties as firemen. The abating of this nuisance will be regarded with a feeling of general satisfaction.

It is a pity that the services of Mr. Asch as Chief Engineer could not be retained. He was sincerely devoted to the public interest and zealous in the discharge of his duties. We have, however, no quarrel with his successor, and we believe he will prove a capable engineer.

SUNDAY LIQUOR SELLING.

There is a law in this country prohibiting the sale of liquor on Sunday. It is a good law, and should be enforced. It has not been very strictly carried out in the past—such laws, unhappily, seldom are; and it is well understood that there has been no great difficulty in getting a drink in this city, whatever the day of the week.

Liquor-selling of the kind referred to has generally been secret in manner and discreet as to the amount sold. Last Sunday, an exception to the rule of prudence occurred. Sailors were drunk early in the morning. Now a morning drunkard—if a landsman—if a Robert Louis Stevenson observes, a poor creature, and it has been welling to modern reckoning, 9 o'clock in the morning. When men are drunk before that, it must be because liquor is very plentiful. This is the view taken by Marshal Ashley, and he has served a penal summons on the owners of the saloon from which it is claimed the liquor was furnished. Last Sunday there was, it is said, not only gin flowing from bottles, but beer from the capacious barrel. Marshal Ashley thinks it is time this should be stopped.

No effort was made under the late police regime to stop Sunday selling, and Marshal Ashley will deserve great credit if he succeeds in putting an end to it now.

An Appeal For Justice.

U. S. S. "MOHICAN," FLAGSHIP PACIFIC STATION, Honolulu, H. I., Feb. 27, '93.

MR. EDITOR:—Monday's issue of the ADVERTISER published an article reflecting on the conduct of men from the American war ships while on liberty last Sunday.

Just to show the ADVERTISER that it has taken a step in the wrong direction I will here inform him that not one of all the newspapers of the United States would be so unjust as to speak of men-of-war-men in a general way condemning all for the actions of a few. I will also volunteer the information that there is good and bad in all things, as was conclusively proven by the late Church controversy in the United States.

It may be that some of the very religious were shocked yesterday; but, then, some people get shocked when they see an ice cream parlor open on Sunday. This time I speak from experience. Yesterday, as myself and a friend were coming out of an ice cream parlor, two passers-by made the remark (evidently intended for our ears), that it was a shame those places were allowed to keep open on Sundays, as there was no telling what was sold there.

Do the majority of Honolulu citizens take all men-of-war's men for drunks? If so we object, and hope our vessels will soon leave these waters.

Again, I wish to impress upon some of the Honolulu people I met while driving yesterday, that it would not have taken a very close observer to notice noses turn up as we approached and passed them. And I suppose the uniform was responsible for it all. But people in civilian dress commit themselves sometimes. I treated the ADVERTISER man to all the information of the Washington birthday affair and I most earnestly hope he will return the courtesy by informing the people of Honolulu that we have relatives and friends in the United States (if we have none here) who would blush to read an article, no matter how small, that touched our character.

The thirty days quarantine we can bear without a murmur, but slander we can not.

What Willett & Gray's Sugar Circular Says.

The most notable fact of the week has been the receipt of news from the Sandwich Islands of a revolution in the islands, which has overthrown the government of the Queen and placed in power a Provisional Government of the people, which has sent a delegation to the United States for the purpose of procuring the annexation of the islands to the United States. Although there is a difference of opinion as to the ultimate success of this project, yet the majority appear to think that it will be successful. The main object of the islands in asking for this annexation is, of course, that they may procure the 2 cent bounty on sugar.

On the part of the United States there are, undoubtedly, many good reasons in favor of control of the islands, and inasmuch as the continuation of the bounty law is a matter of serious doubt, it may be as well for the United States to take advantage of this favorable opportunity for securing the islands. It would please a great many people much better, however, if the proposal for annexation had come to us from the island of Cuba. That is the island which would prove of immense value to the United States, and we can conceive of no sum of money that would be too large for the United States to pay for its purchase, provided it ever becomes a question of purchase.

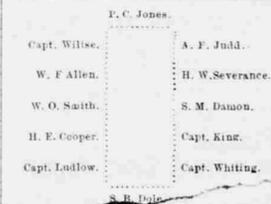

The ADVERTISER has the largest circulation and prints more live news than any of its alleged contemporaries. The advertising columns prove that business men know a good thing when they see it. If you do not take this journal you are behind the times.

FAREWELL TO WILTSE

MINISTER JONES ENTER-TAINS THE DEPARTING CAPTAIN.

A Pleasant Dinner Party of Twelve.

Last evening His Excellency P. C. Jones, Minister of Finance, gave a farewell dinner in honor of Capt. G. C. Wiltse of the U. S. cruiser Boston. The guests were, besides Capt. Wiltse, Capt. Ludlow of the Mohican, Capt. Whiting of the Alliance, President S. B. Dole, Minister King, Attorney-General Smith, United States Consul-General Severance, Vice-President Damon, Hon. A. F. Judd, Chief Justice and Chancellor, and Messrs. H. E. Cooper and W. F. Allen of the Advisory Council. The guests were seated at table in the positions indicated in the following diagram:

Dinner was served at 6:30. The table was beautifully decorated with flowers, a magnificent bunch of bigonias being the center piece. Mr. Lucas, formerly steward of the Hawaiian Hotel, was the caterer, and the menu was a masterpiece. Its discussion, agreeably varied with conversation, kept the company at table from 6:30 until 9. No wine was served, but Apollinaris furnished a sparkling substitute. The menu cards—the work of a son of Capt. Mist—were a model of delicacy and ingenuity. Each represented a yacht, painted in water colors on cardboard covered with tapa.

The Hawaiian Quintette Club was in attendance and furnished music from the veranda. There was plenty of conversation, but no politics. The following was the menu:

- MENU.
- Eastern Oysters.
 - Soup: Consomme aux Oeufs.
 - Hors-d'oeuvres: Celery, Devilled Crabs, Olives.
 - Fish: Halibut, Sauce Tartare. Mullet.
 - Entrees: Quail on Toast, aux cresson, with mushrooms.
 - Fillet of Beef, chestnut sauce, with French peas.
 - Lemon Sherbet.
 - Roast: Turkey, bread sauce. Teal Duck, currant jelly.
 - Vegetables: Cauliflower, Green Corn, Mashed Potatoes.
 - Chicken Curry and Rice.
 - Chicken Salad.
 - Queen of Puddings.
 - Ice Cream.
 - Cakes, Biscuits, Fruit, Candies.
 - Coffee.

SOME FRESH SAILORS.

They Attempt to Bulldoze the Captain of an American Schooner.

Capt. H. Piltz, of the American schooner Robert Searles, had trouble with his second mate and five of the crew yesterday. Five of the troublesome men are Britishers, whom Capt. Piltz shipped at Australia on his present voyage. The unpleasant attitude of the sailors was first noticed on Sunday evening at sunset, when the British sailors refused to haul down the American flag.

Yesterday morning, the men went to the captain and demanded that they should be paid before the vessel is discharged, or, in other words, they refused to work any longer on the vessel. The captain replied that he could not grant their request. The discontented men then left the vessel and went direct to the U. S. Consulate to lay their case before that official. Consul-General Severance after listening to their tale, ordered the men to return to their vessel to work, and only the second mate was allowed to receive his pay.

The sailors returned to their vessel, but after taking a look at their craft for a few moments they went up town again to enjoy the rest of the day.

Capt. Piltz employed six natives all day in place of the men. He says that if the men will not return to work this morning, he will have them arrested for refusing duty.

AMERICAN

Waltham Watch Co

Our last talk with you was about Dr. Jaeger's Sanitary Underclothing. We hope you have taken our advice and commenced to profit by it already.

We have another subject to discuss with you to-day. The cut at the head of this will show you that our remarks will be on TIME.

You are not perhaps aware that we are the Agents of the American Waltham Watch Co. of Waltham, Mass. We have been such for many years and keep constantly on hand a large assortment of Time Pieces of this company's make. In fact we make a specialty of their goods and handle none of any other make.

Let us tell you something about this famous Watch Co.:

Established in 1854 at Waltham, Mass., the pioneer of American Watch Co.'s, with a daily capacity of 2000 Movements, 500 Gold cases and 1000 Gold filled, Silver and Metal cases; and in the making and sale of these, employment is given to about 4000 people.

Big concern aint it? We carry a big assortment of their goods; all sizes and grades.

Come and see what we can do for you before purchasing elsewhere. We have Open face and Hunting cases in Gold and Silver Pendant, Lever Setting, and non-magnetic movements. In these days of common use of generators of electricity, your Watch should be non-magnetic to secure accuracy in time-keeping.

We guarantee all our Watches to keep good time. We have in our employ a reliable watchmaker and can repair watches of any make with accuracy and dispatch and at the
