

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A large tent is wanted. The Board of Health advertises for tenders for furnishing medicine.

Miss Kate Dalgleish will be the leading feature of the Dailey Stock Company.

John Hapa, who was convicted of highway robbery, has asked for a new trial.

At the concert to be given this evening, the band will play three new selections.

Hall & Son have an "impressionist" column in another portion of this paper.

The time for making tenders for the pumping plant wanted by the Government ends at noon today.

The Board of Education advertises for tenders for building a new schoolhouse at Hualoa, North Kona.

The Hawaiian Hardware Company have a fair in progress; that is, they are selling goods at fair prices.

Considerable interest is being taken in the exhibit of Miss Lowden's water colors at King Brothers' art rooms.

L. L. McCandless or Cecil Brown, are the men to apply to in case any fine Polled Angus stock is wanted.

Marshal Hitchcock will leave for Hawaii this morning on the steamer W. G. Hall. He will return by the same vessel.

The condition of Naylor, the man who was stabbed with a fork by Tom Carpenter, is reported as quite serious. It is said that he received fourteen wounds.

The sale of the lease of a piece of property on the esplanade, containing a two-story building, will take place at noon today in front of the Executive Building.

The Kinau will arrive tomorrow morning. It is expected that she will bring the details regarding the murder of the Japanese policeman, mentioned in this paper on Saturday.

It was reported yesterday that the Charleston was to remain here indefinitely, but one of the officers said last evening that they would probably leave early Thursday morning.

M. Verlaye, the French Commissioner, called on Minister of Foreign Affairs Hatch yesterday, and told him that he had received a telegram from his Government, to the effect that this Republic had been recognized by France, and that his credentials had been sent. They will probably arrive on the next through steamer.

The Kindergarten Work. The free kindergarten work will re-open next Monday, at Queen Emma Hall, which has been repainted and fitted up for the purpose. Many know that the kindergarten has been carried on for a year with great success. Hitherto it has been held in the afternoon; but it is thought best to change the time, and in future the children will be taught from 9 till 12 every morning. All who have anything to do with children know how much fresher and brighter, and better able to learn, they are in the morning than in the afternoon.

Miss Snow, whom the committee has secured as teacher, has had experience in teaching and will undoubtedly gain the love of the little ones. Miss Mary Eastman, who for several years engaged in the kindergarten work in San Francisco will superintend all the kindergartens.

Public Moonlight Concert. The Hawaiian band, under the leadership of Professor Berger, will give a concert this (Tuesday) evening at 7:30 o'clock, at Thomas Square. The following is the programme:

- PART I. 1. Overture—"Berlin Life"....Conradi 2. March—"The Golden West".... (new).....Oettel 3. Cornet Solo—"Sea Flower"..... (new).....Rollinson Mr. Charles Kreuter. 4. Selection—"Martha".....Flotow

- PART II. 5. Medley—"Plantation Melodies".....Contorno 6. Waltz—"Danube Waves"..... Ivanovici 7. Ballad—"Some Day" (new)..... Welling 8. Polka—"Hilo Bay".....Berger "Hawaii Poniol."

Nearly all the monarchs in Europe have their lives insured. The most notable exception is the Russian Emperor. The companies would not insure him, regarding his chances of long life as extremely hazardous.

THEY WANT WATER.

A Windmill is Needed Badly at the Insane Asylum.

In the ante-bellum days, the necessity for a larger water supply at the Insane Asylum was apparent to the Superintendent, and pressure was brought to bear upon the powers that were for an appropriation for an artesian well and a steam engine or other motive power to force the water from the well to the building. Until the new Government took the reins, nothing was accomplished. Now, there is a fine artesian well on the ground, and a contract let for the erection of a windmill that will force the water to the building. In the interest of cleanliness and good health, the general opinion seems to be that the mill should be set in motion without delay.

SHE IS LUMINOUS.

A Chance for Those Who Want Some Match-Boxes.

The following specimen of "English as she is wrote" was received at this office on Saturday. It is in the form of a printed circular, and is undoubtedly considered a gem of composition by its author:

DEAR SIR:—I have the pleasure to advise you, that if you will send me 150 used postage stamps, but only from your island, not dirty, damaged or rubbed, I shall send you free of carriage, a very nice and splendid Luminous Small Match Box. This object, very advantageous, is discovered immediately and without light, in the deepest darkness, why, she is made of luminous metal, which produce a certain clearness at the place where she is put. Awaiting your orders, to which I will give my best attention. I am Dear Sir, yours very obediently. MAURICE DUGOT. Bordeaux, France.

A WRONG CHARGE.

Mr. Meyer Has Taken the Oath of Allegiance to the Republic.

MR. EDITOR: In the list of Government appointments gazetted last Saturday the name of R. W. Meyer, agent for the leper settlement at Molokai, appears. I was informed by one of the members of the Registration Board for Maui and Molokai, that R. W. Meyer declined to take the oath to support the Republic of Hawaii. Ought not the Board of Health to inquire into this? Yours, etc., REPUBLIC. Lahaina, Maui, Sept. 7, 1894.

[The correspondent is wrong, Mr. Meyer did not receive his appointment until he had taken the oath.]

The College-Bred Sister. She has just returned from college, where she studied each improvement which has been achieved in learning and in scientific lore; she has stored her mind with knowledge vast enough to start a college—but she cannot carve a chicken without mauling up the floor. She writes philippics and stories, and in thoughts poetic glories, and talks "universal suffrage" in a way that strikes one dumb. With undisguised admiration at her learned inspiration—but she cannot darn her stockings without boring through her thumb. She's a crank on household neatness, and will frown with pouting sweetness should my shoes mud-splashes scatter on the polished hall-way floor; But she thinks not of demurring when her pet cat comes a-purring, and, with arched back, rubs the varnish off the panels of the door. She will frown if I say "ain't he," and on grammar lecture to me until my poor head is swimming with the strict rules of syntax; But she'll listen with great relish when her beau talks "baby English," and gets mad should I hint gently that his Ferris wheel is lax. Oh, she is a pearl, a treasure, this sweet Sis, with eyes of azure, and I'm sure she'll make a record as a happy mortal's wife; But I warn the swain aspiring that she'll boss with sway untiring, and will make him walk a chalked line for the balance of his life. —New Orleans Picayune.
