

DROWNED AT THE BEACH.

Harry Welch, Car Driver, Loses His Life.

NOT A CASE OF SUICIDE.

Been Ill With Heart Trouble—Found Floating at Long Branch—Tramway Employees Bury the Body—Evidence of Persons Who Knew Welch.

Harry Welch, an Englishman, aged 45 years, and up to the time of his death a driver on the Beretania line of the Hawaiian Tramways Company, came to his death by accidental drowning off the pier at Long Branch, Waikiki, between the hours of 9 and 10 a. m. yesterday.

A Coroner's inquest, presided over by Deputy Marshal Hitchcock, was held in Long Branch at 1 p. m. The following-named persons constituted the jury: A. M. Beattie, J. H. Gibson, Thomas Paterson, Senator A. Hocking, Benjamin Gallagher and H. McCallum. The witnesses were Lieutenant Coyne, N. G. H., Jim Sherwood, John Ritch, Lieutenant Renken of the mounted patrol and H. Mortensen, foreman at the Punahou stables of the Tramways Company.

Full particulars of the movements of the unfortunate victim, from early morning until the time of his death, will be found in the testimony of the witnesses as detailed below:

H. Mortensen, foreman at Punahou stables, sworn, stated: Saw Welch at 6:50 a. m. He had just come from Palama, in which vicinity he lived. Said he wished to be relieved, as he was feeling very badly. He had been sick all night. Deceased was not a drinking man. Knew him from the time he reached the islands, five or six years ago. He was sick for about five weeks four or five months ago and was forced to quit work on that account. Since that time he had been working steadily. Welch had no relatives in the city.

Lieutenant Renken overheard Welch say to a driver: "I am going to lie in the water for a half hour."

Lieutenant Coyne testified—First saw deceased coming out of the bath-room. Saw him get into the water. I was fishing on the pier. He swam out around the pier and shouted, "What luck?" Told him it was too windy for fish. I then left and returned to the house. Coming back to the main beach entrance, I noticed Welch floating in the water with his face under. This struck me as very peculiar and I ran to John Ritch—Jim Sherwood's assistant—telling him that I thought a man had been drowned. Ritch called Sherwood, and together we ran out on the beach, Ritch taking the pier, Sherwood rushing into the water and I following. Ritch and Sherwood hauled the man out of the water and tried to resuscitate him, but life was extinct. The body was found about eight feet off the end of the pier, just about in the same position where it was when he spoke to me. The water at that place is about 4 1/2 feet deep.

Jim Sherwood—Was in bed at the time Welch came. First I knew about the matter was when Ritch came in. I ran out and jumped in after the man but it was too late. We laid him out and telephoned to police headquarters. It was between 9 and 10 o'clock.

John Ritch—Welch came and asked me where Sherwood was. Told him he was in bed. Asked for a bathing suit which I gave him. Left me some money and a silver watch to take care for him.

Dr. Emerson—Have examined the body of deceased and find that he came to his death by drowning. The peculiar position of the face in the water and the arms and legs hanging down lead me to believe that he fainted or had a fit while in the water which brought about unconsciousness. Remember a case of the same kind that happened on Long Island. Position was the same.

The jury returned a verdict of death by accidental drowning.

An incident in Welch's life is well remembered by Lieutenant Coyne and others. Lieutenant Coyne was commanding a detachment of soldiers on the road to Nuuanu Cemetery, to bury one of their comrades killed by the leper Koolau, at Kalalau, Kauai.

Welch was coming along in a street car. He was angered because the soldiers would not get out of the way, and drove into them. He was arrested and tried, but got off. Lieutenant Coyne was principal witness for the prosecution, and was the first man to see Welch after his death.

Welch has no relatives in the city, so the street-car boys have volunteered to see to his burial. The funeral will take place from St. Andrews' Cathedral at 3:30 p. m. today. Rev. Alex. Mackintosh will conduct services.

Scrofula

The Worst Case the Doctors Ever Saw

Hood's Sarsaparilla Perfectly Cured "C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass." "Dear Sirs—I wish to testify to the great value of Hood's Sarsaparilla. For some time I had been troubled with scrofula, which early last winter assumed a very bad form.

Sores Appeared on My Face and hands and gradually increased in number until they reached to my shoulder. The doctors said it was the worst case of scrofula they ever saw and also went so far as to say it was incurable. I tried ointments and other remedies but to no avail. A friend recommended Hood's

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures Sarsaparilla, and although I was completely discouraged, as a last chance I resolved to give it a trial. After taking one bottle I noticed the sores had commenced to heal. After the sixth bottle

They Were All Healed. I continued to take it, however, until I had used nine bottles, and now I am perfectly well. MISS KATIE ROSEGRANT, Ulster, Penn.

Has Any Body Found In Honolulu

A place where they employ better workmen than we do? Or where the cost of repairing furniture is so reasonable? Has anybody ever had any work done by us that was not SATISFACTORY BOTH IN PRICE AND WORKMANSHIP?

There is but one answer,

NO!

And yet we are doing better work today than ever. We are not only

REPAIRERS BUT MANUFACTURERS OF FURNITURE.

Think it over, you may have something in the house that needs touching up; if you think it will cost you a dollar, the chances are it will only cost you half that amount. Try it and see.

Vacuum Oils

If a new broom sweeps clean, a well oiled piece of machinery ought to run smooth. There is a saving of 150 per cent. to those who use VACUUM OIL. An engineer of one of the principal plantations says of 600 Cylinder Oil "That one barrel is as good and goes as far as three barrels of other kinds."

Those who are agents for other oils are forced to get VACUUM OIL to send to their own mills.

Hundreds of competitive tests have been made with the 600 W Cylinder Oil against other grades, and it has demonstrated its value for economy and utility beyond all question.

We also handle this oil in three other grades known as Vacuoline Engine, Arctic Engine and the Heavy Dark Lubricating Oil.

It is about time to think of placing your orders for picture frames for the holidays. We have the finest assortment of new and unique designs ever sent to the Islands. Spare us a few minutes of your time and we will show you the samples. They are BEAUTIES.
