

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Register before it is too late. Bargain. Sturdevant's. Owing to the holiday, there will be no paper issued from this office tomorrow.

The warships in the harbor will be dressed tomorrow and a salute fired at noon. Crepe and silk negligé shirts, white and colored starched shirts at K. Furuya's.

Order your lunches and ice cream for tomorrow from Poppleton's Home Bakery. Fresh California fruit, vegetables, fish, oysters today at the California Fruit Market.

The wife of Admiral Beardslee and Mrs. Stoney are expected on the Australia today.

Poultry dinner today at the Occidental Hotel. Fresh California salmon and celery for supper.

There was a very large attendance at the band concert on the Hawaiian Hotel grounds last night.

A furnished house with nine rooms can be rented for four or five months. Address "H." Gazette office.

The Regulars marched by a drum and fife, instead of a drum and bugle, while drilling yesterday morning.

Julius Asch, his wife and one of his children are still seriously ill at their home on Alakea street, near Hotel.

Owing to the Jubilee celebration holiday, H. May & Co. will deliver groceries at Waikiki today, instead of tomorrow.

You don't get "something for nothing" in this world, but you get the most goods for the least money at Sturdevant's.

The ladies of the Valley Tennis Club will hold a reception at the grounds on Saturday from 3 to 6 p. m. A general invitation to the public is extended.

The grocery firms of H. May & Co., Lewis & Co., H. E. McIntyre & Bro., and Charles Hustace will be closed tomorrow, the Queen's Diamond Jubilee.

A native by the name of Keokoa is getting up a company of native hula dancers, to furnish all of the old-time hulas to those who may desire to see them.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. O. King left for their home in Kealia on the James M. Keene yesterday. Quite a number of friends were at the steamer to say good-bye.

An official program of the regatta, sports and other events on Queen Victoria's Jubilee Day is being compiled and arranged for the committee by Frank Godfrey.

"Two Ways to Buy Clothes" is the subject of a very interesting article from the well-known house of M. McInerney, haberdasher. Read it and draw your own conclusions.

Kawaapae Resort, on the slope of Haleakala, Maui, will be open to guests on and after July 1st. For further particulars see advertisement.

Sam Dowsett returned from the Sound on the Diamond Head yesterday, after a pleasant trip in Seattle, Port Blakely and other places near by. Sam had a fine time, and is looking exceptionally well.

School children are now visiting the Animatoscope in a body. On such occasions the Corbett fight is eliminated from the show, there being plenty of other material to make it interesting and instructing. Animatoscope parties are now the fad.

The sub-committee of the various events in tomorrow's celebration handed in their reports to the General Committee at the Arlington Hotel last night. The arrangements are perfect, and the reports were accepted.

Lieutenant-Commander Briggs, the new executive officer of the U. S. S. Philadelphia, has adopted the regulation time of marching the battalion, a 30-inch step and 120 to the minute. Under Lieutenant Ingersoll, the time was much slower.

The petition now being gotten up by the teachers of the city and looking toward the retention of John F. Scott as Deputy Inspector-General of Schools, will be presented to the Commissioners of Education on Thursday. It is understood that this petition will be signed by a very large number of people.

Register for next election.

American Literary Exercises.

The literary exercises of the American Fourth of July celebration will be held in the Opera House at 11 a. m. on the day of the celebration. The program will be similar to that of previous years. American Minister Harold M. Sewall will deliver the address. It is the intention of the committee to limit the exercises to one hour. Mr. Sewall's address will probably occupy about 20 minutes. The Declaration of Independence will be read by Professor Howard, of Punahou, and the musical program will be in the hands of J. Q. Wood and a chorus of 20 voices.

Special Services.

The celebration services at St. Andrew's Cathedral will begin at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. Special invitations have been sent to President Dole and Cabinet, members of the Diplomatic and Consular Corps, Admiral Beardslee and officers of the American and Japanese warships in port. The sermon will be by Rev. Alexander Mackintosh. A chorus of 80 voices will sing in the choir and Wray Taylor will preside at the organ.

Daily sessions for registration.

Grand Ball Tonight.
The grand ball in connection with the celebration of Queen Victoria's Diamond Jubilee, will take place in Independence Park Pavilion tonight. Great preparations have been made, and the affair promises to be a brilliant one. The hall will be decorated as it never has been before. There will be a reception from 8 to 8:30. After that will come the grand march, and then the program of dances, 18 in all, with three extras.

EX AUSTRALIA.

Our Underwear Sale a Success.

Will be Continued This Week.

The low prices astonish and please all. We have been asked dozens of times how we do it.

First. These goods are made specially for our trade.

Second. We always buy for cash.

Third. Small profit satisfies us.

We will continue the sale this week, but as we are fast running out of sizes we would advise an early call.

The 50 cent night gown is a wonder. The $1 night gown is the best value ever offered and can't be made at home for that price.

The drawers for 50 cents with tucks and embroidery, can't be duplicated.

The skirts at 50 cents and $1 are genuine bargains.

The corset covers for 60 cents are going fast, and the sizes are already broken.

A hint to shrewd buyers is sufficient.
