W., June 10.

ARRIVALS.

Wednesday, June 15. U. S. S. Mohican, Hook, from San Francisco. Steamer Iwa, Townsend, from Waialua ports. Steamer J. A. Cummins, Searle, from Oahu ports.

VESSELS LEAVING TODAY.

Steamer Kaena, Mosher, for Puniki, Mokuia, Waialua and Waimea at 10 a. m. Steamer Hawaii, Andrews, for Kahupapa, Lahaina, Olowalu, Kula, Okaia, Papaia and Lanipohohoe; for Mahukona and Hilo, (small and passenger only).

WHARF AND WAVE.

The Kaena sails for Oahu ports this morning. The Iwa sails for Waialua ports at 12 noon today.

The Mo'i Wahine sailed for Hamakua yesterday. The Alden Besse is about half full of sugar already.

The Waialua will sail for Kauai ports this morning. The Bennington sails for San Francisco at 8 a. m. today.

The Marie Hackfeld has hauled over to the railroad wharf.

The S. G. Wilder is already to sail for San Francisco. She is awaiting orders.

Captain C. W. Saunders has succeeded Captain Turner as commander of the bark Mohican.

The steamer Iwa came in yesterday with a full cargo of paddy. She returns for another load today.

The ship John Ena, Hawaiian, has arrived at San Francisco with coal from Newcastle. She won handsly a three cornered race.

The gunboat Marietta which left San Jose, March 16th to accompany the Oregon, has arrived in Key West after an uneventful trip.

The Geo. Curtis hauled back to the Oceanic wharf yesterday where she took on sugar from the Maina Loa. While at the railroad wharf she took on a thousand tons of Ewa sugar.

A Few Things Wanted. Among the supplies desired at once by the Red Cross Society of Hawaii are the following:

Iron bedsteads, straw mattresses, silk floss pillows, woolen blankets, bed spreads, mosquito nets, sheets, pillow slips, rubber sheeting, towels, cuspidors, bed pan, washbowls, and pitchers, soap, soap dishes, chairs, rocking chairs, stove, soup boiler, sauce pans, frying pans, kitchen knives, forks and spoons, ladles, coffee makers, coffee pot, tea pot, milk pitcher, wash tub, iron chest, meat safe, soup plates, dinner plates, small plates, mush bowls, vegetable dishes, cups and saucers, table, dessert and tea spoons, tumblers, sugar bowl, dust pan and brushes, brooms, soap, looking glasses, brush and combs, lamps, kerosene oil, matches, wardrobe with shelves.

Hawaiian Boy An Officer. Fred. Maby, son of Capt. Maby of the United States Navy and is aboard a ship in one of the Atlantic fleets in Cuban waters. Fred. is an engineer and has a commission as a junior officer. In passing the examination he was given high marks.

Fred. Maby is a graduate of Kamehameha School, class of '95 and Principal Richards spoke of the young man last evening in flattering terms. It was while at Kamehameha that Fred. became interested in engineering. At one time he had charge of the dynamo in the school electric light plant.

The Missing Peru. There did not seem to be any news at all last night of the S. S. Peru. There was in town some unopposed mail that may tell today definitely of the ship about which there has been so much speculation.

Sunday or Monday night the Mohican passed a ship which some people think might have been the Peru. It was more than likely the Miowera, as the Peru would be further north than the route of the Mohican.

CAPT. HUBBARD WILL FIGHT. Claims Commissioner North Does Not Attend to Business.

Captain Hubbard of the barkentine S. N. Castle, says the Chronicle, is preparing to resist in court the demand of Commissioner North for $6,000 penalty because passengers were landed without permission of the immigration office.

Captain Hubbard states that he arrived from Honolulu at 10 o'clock Sunday night, May 29th, and was boarded without delay by the quarantine and customs officers. At 9 o'clock the next morning he sent his first mate on shore to hunt up the Immigration Commissioner. Finding the office closed the mate went to the Custom-house, where Deputy Surveyor Chauncey St. John attempted to telephone to Commissioner North's office and to his law office, but was unable to get any response. As the Commissioner lives in Oakland and could not be reached, Captain Hubbard allowed the passengers, who were by this time very impatient, to land at noon. The names of the passengers are as follows: A. H. McChesney, Charles Rhodes, S. M. Corke, Mearle Rhodes, Mrs. M. B. Rhodes and Dr. C. M. Pease, all citizens of the United States.

Captain Hubbard says he will not only contest the case but will bring charges against Commissioner North for neglect of duty.

RAPIDLY DISAPPEARING.

The supply of the "Celebrated Seattle Beer" is rapidly disappearing in town. The lovers of this nutritious spring beverage can obtain it for a limited time at the Criterion Saloon.
