Gentlemen:—I have much pleasure in bearing testimony to the high value of your Minerva Tonic. During the holding of the Grand Australian Fair it was very greatly appreciated here by the Clergy and others, who found it most palatable and energising. Everyone who has had experience of it pronounces it admirable.

Yours Faithfully,

THE LABOR LAW

How the Senate Disposed of an Island Act.

Activity of Pettigrew—Fairbanks—The Intervention of Morgan—Executive Session.

During the closing hours of the session of the Senate on March 4th, Senator Fairbanks asked for permission to take up the bill to extend the anti-contract labor laws of the United States to Hawaii. Senator Pettigrew made a speech, in which he referred to the large increase of Japanese immigration to the Islands. He had a list of the importations of laborers, and asked that the full list be printed in the Record. He then read the warning sent by the Odd Fellows of Hawaii, discouraging white immigration. He then read the circular letter issued by the Masonic Fraternity in Hawaii, stating that the conditions of the country did not favor white immigration.

The Senator said that he had tried to have the anti-contract laws extended to Hawaii, but that Senator Morgan had objected. He charged that the Commissioners sent to Hawaii had blocked legislation, in the interests of the sugar planters.

Senator Perkins advocated the immediate passage of the bill. He caused a letter to be read, written by W. M. Rice, of Yokohama, to Labor Commissioner Powderly, in which it is stated that Japanese immigrants are being rushed into the Islands before any laws can be passed preventing it.

At this point of time, Senator Morgan entered the Senate Chamber. Senator Chandler had at the moment asked that the bill be passed at once. Senator Morgan moved that the Senate go into executive session. It was agreed to.

When the Senate came out of executive session, a message was received from the House, saying it was ready to join the Senate, in informing the President that both houses were ready to adjourn. No further notice was taken of the bill extending the anti-contract laws to Hawaii.

Two Clergymen Talk of Doan's Backache Kidney Pills.

It is a minister's duty to tell the merits of a medicine which has benefited him and which he believes has merits to cure disease. Any sufferer from any form of kidney ill or urinary trouble, will read the statement of the following clergymen with interest:

Rev. F. A. Smith, residence 829 First street, Kalamazoo, Mich., testifies: "At the time I procured Doan's Backache Kidney Pills at Geo. McDonald's drug store, I was troubled considerably with my kidneys. The backache was quite pronounced, being especially severe when it was necessary for me to sit or stand in a stooped position for any length of time. I had other symptoms which usually arise from disordered kidneys, or from irregular action of those organs. Doan's Backache Kidney Pills corrected these annoyances in a very short time and I have not been troubled with them since. As I was not taking any other remedy but this at the time there can be no doubt but that they were the direct means of curing me, and I am most favorably impressed with them."

Rabbi L. Liebman, residence 715 South Fourth street, Hamilton, Ohio, testifies:

"I have been troubled with my kidneys, having had attacks of lumbago or backache and a lameness in the lumbar region. I had also dizziness and headache when my back was troubling me so much. I could usually tell when these attacks of the kidneys were coming on by a peculiar feeling in the eyes. I was in intense pain when I procured Doan's Backache Kidney Pills. I had not taken very many before I was completely relieved of the whole of it. I am quite free from the aching in my back, and the lameness. They acted so promptly, I am confident that they are a good kidney medicine. From my experience I could not hesitate recommending them, and I have no objection to your referring to me as one who could vouch for them."

This valuable medicine may be had of dealers generally, or will be mailed by the Hollister Drug Co., Ltd., Honolulu, on receipt of price, 50c a box (6 boxes for $2.50.)

Under the New Law.

The ship Emily F. Whitney, Pendleton master, bound for Honolulu March 6th, was the first American ship to leave New York under the new law which allows the ship owner to advance to the sailor no more than the equivalent to one month's wages. The efforts of the Boarding-house keepers to prevent her securing a crew proved futile and the sailors shipped are said to form one of the best crews shipped out of New York for many years. If the new law is a success, as it should be, and could be made so by the cooperation of the shipmasters and others interested, there would be less trouble for the ship's officers when at sea through the incompetency of the men and at the end of the voyage the sailor would have a more satisfactory amount of money coming to him than under the former regulations.—N. Y. Marine Register.

A. R. De Fluent, editor of the Journal, Doylstown, Ohio, suffered for a number of years from rheumatism in his right shoulder and side. He says: "My right arm at times was entirely useless. I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and was surprised to receive relief almost immediately. The Pain Balm has been a constant companion of mine ever since and it never fails." For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., wholesale agents.

Has a Good Reputation.

Why did some of the greatest mechanical schools in this country demonstrate by scientific tests that a higher standard of efficiency is obtained with a Sterling bicycle than with any other put in competition with it?

Why did the National Exposition at Brussels, Belgium, deem the Sterling most worthy of the Grand Prix?

Why did not the Sterling show appreciable wear after being ridden 28,000 miles? In doing this the wheels rotated in their bearings twenty-five million times.

When the Sterling Mfg. Co. began manufacturing the Sterling bicycle, they determined to build a wheel that would insure permanence of their business; that would make a reputation of itself, knowing the "treasure of modern times is spotless reputation."

A reputation for good judgment, for fair dealing, for truth, and for rectitude, is itself a fortune. If you want a wheel that contains the finest material and workmanship, and whose reputation is established, call upon the Pacific Cycle & Mfg. Co. and see the new 99 model Sterling, price $60.00.
