MASONIC TEMPLE.

THE BREW OF OLYMPUS.

THE "HOFFMAN," corner of Hotel and Nuanu streets, claims to be the "Banner" resort for gentlemen and holds the flag. L. H. Dee, the proprietor, has attained success in his line, by specially and personally supervising everything connected with his establishment. He now introduces to his patrons "Olympia Beer." This brew is from the "Capital Brewing Co." of Olympia, the capital of the State of Washington, and was received by the "Garonne." Mr. Schmitt, the leading spirit of this corporation, is a practical Chemist and Brewer, and after years of search and investigation located his plant at Olympia, on account of the peculiar virtues of the water of the Tum Falls, a stream that is noted for its distinctive qualities of clearness, coldness and lack of mineral and decaying vegetable impurities. Pure beer can only be made with pure water, and Tum water is traditional in Washington with the Indians and original white settlers. The "Olympia Draught" is under the special control and agency of Mr. Dee and he invites his patrons and friends to a personal test and is willing to abide by their judgment on the merits of his latest venture.

KEEN FOR STOCK

Applications for Bank and Olaa Shares.

First American Doubly Subscribed—Appropriation—Olaa Taken Three Times Over.

George W. Macfarlane, the promoter, Cecil Brown and F. M. Hatch, the attorneys, and a few others interested in the new enterprise were in the office of Mr. Brown yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock to close the list of subscriptions for stock in the First American Bank. This is to become the First National Bank of Hawaii, with the Seligmans, the Anglo-California Bank, Mr. Lillenthal, Perry S. Heath and others interested. James Campbell will be the heaviest stockholder here.

The Honolulu public asked for about double the amount of the stock that it had been calculated to place here at this time. Shares to the total of $300,000 par value were available. The application total is approximately twice this sum. There was over-subscription at the close of the first day the list was open. The list was held the second day for the reason that such had been the advertisement.

Allotment of this stock is to be made at San Francisco. The result will be known in about three weeks. It is likely that those who have signed and deposited their five per cent will receive in the neighborhood of fifty per cent of the stock for which they applied.

The stock in the new Olaa plantation company that was offered to Honolulu investors has been subscribed three times over. The final calculation was made in the office of B. F. Dillingham, in the Judd building last evening. The work of filling in the stock certificates has begun, and these will be ready for delivery by the end of the week. Trading in the stock will then be the order. It is not likely that the transfers will be heavy. Very few of those who have gone into Olaa did so for the purpose of speculating. Most of the buyers are strictly investors, and will hold the shares representing interest in one of the greatest enterprises ever launched in the Islands.

Kahuku Men Pay.

"Are you acquainted with any of the lunas or employes of the plantation?" asked Attorney-General Cooper of John Sullivan, the stable man, yesterday at the jury inquisition.

"Oh, yes; several of them have horses cared for at my place when they are in town."

"Do you know their names?"

"No, sir; I do not. They always pay cash."

"Did you hear my statement of this case this morning?"

"Yes, sir; I've heard it all day. I've been here since half-past nine." This was at 3:45.

"Do you know now of any reason why you should not sit as a juror in this case?"

"Only one; I'd sooner be down town attending to my own business."

Station House Addition.

Work on the addition to the police station is well under way. A portion of the present receiving station will be torn down and replaced by a two-story building. An additional story will be added to the portion of the receiving station adjoining the police station proper. This will make a uniform two-story structure. There will be direct communication between the addition and the courtroom, which will be an advantage. The stables will be on the side of what was formerly used for that purpose. In addition to stalls for the horses of the mounted police there will be a space reserved for the patrol wagon, which will then be used night and day. Contractor Thomas, who has charge of the work, expects to have the building completed in a few weeks.

Into New Offices.

David Dayton and Paul Neumann are leaving the Merchant street offices they have occupied so long, but will not get off the block. The buildings are to be sold at auction tomorrow, and are to be carried away to make room for the workers on the foundations of the five-story building that is to be reared on the Waikiki side of the Judd building. Judge Dayton and Mr. Neumann go for the present to the old Bulletin building, next to the Irwin warehouse. They will have offices in the new block. Mr. Neumann, who has been ill for several days, was at his place of business yesterday.

Gleaner's Lawn Party.

Last year Honolulu missed one of the pleasures of this month since the "Missionary Gleaners" gave no lawn party. But this year the young ladies of that society will welcome their friends to a fête that promises new attractions. Mrs. W. R. Castle has offered the use of her grounds as before, and, if the twenty-seventh of May brings fair weather, a delightful afternoon is assured all who attend the party.

A Joke on Mr. B.

Without particularly intending to do so, a couple of friends perpetrated a pair of striking practical jokes on Mr. B. of C. & C. yesterday. About 9:35 a. m. Mr. B. was informed by a friend in the firm that he was wanted at the Judiciary building to serve as a juror. Mr. B. took this seriously and hurried to the courtroom. It was past the hour for the opening, and as Mr. B. entered he was told that he had been fined for tardiness. Mr. B. was writing a note in extenuation to Judge Perry, when an attorney happened along. The lawyer readily volunteered his good offices and learned in a minute that Mr. B. had not been summoned at all.

Sixty-six Challenges.

Five of the Japanese charged with committing murder in the course of the riot at the Kahuku plantation are now on trial. They have the right, even while being heard together, of twelve challenges without explanation for each man, or sixty for the quintette. Only a few of these challenges have been used so far. The Government has but six peremptory challenges altogether, just the same as if a single individual were on trial. But two of these have been used. It is believed by many attorneys that an error was made in drawing up or compiling the law, as they say it could not have been the intention to restrict the State challenges in any instance.

A Residence Robbery.

A young boy who has been in jail before was arrested last evening by Deputy Marshal Chillingworth on the charge of larceny in the second degree. A day or so ago Henry Congdon reported that some person had broken into his house and stolen a quantity of clothing and other articles. After the suspect was arrested last evening he confessed to the deputy marshal that he had stolen some shirts, neckties, hats, soda water bottles and enough other articles to stock a good-sized store.

Queen's Birthday.

It is very likely that the Executive Building will be the scene of the grand dancing party to be held by the British residents on the evening of the 24th inst., in honor of the birthday of Her Majesty Queen Victoria. The former throne room is considered the best place for such a function as is proposed and several prominent members of the Government are in favor of tendering the use of the building for the evening to the committee of the British organization. The matter will probably be decided today. If the Executive building is secured it will be handsomely decorated for the occasion.

The Orpheum.

There will be the usual midweek change of programme at the Orpheum tonight. The opening farce will be warranted to drive away the blues and to bring out a good hearty laugh. It will be entitled "An Editor's Troubles." There will be an additional sketch introducing James Posts and Miss May Ashley. All the other artists will change their specialties, and will present new and novel features.

To Discuss Exposition.

The Chamber of Commerce has received a letter from Commissioner Umsted of the Omaha Exposition. The Chamber will meet today and discuss the subject of an exhibit. Mr. Umsted will be present. The name of George H. Paris has been mentioned to represent Hawaii at the exposition in case the Government decides to make an exhibit.

Soldiers Paid Here.

There was a busy scene at the United States paymaster's office on Emma street yesterday. The troops on board the Senator and Ohio marched up in companies and received their pay. Although very little freedom was allowed the soldiers afterward a number succeeded in getting up town.

City of Columbia.

The City of Columbia is being subjected to a thorough overhauling and repairing. She is at present on the marine railway. The leak has been disclosed and can be easily mended. The broken propeller blade is to be repaired and the other blades will be cleaned and painted. The machinery is also being inspected.

A White Cross Woman.

Mrs. A. F. Newman, president of the White Cross Society of the State of Nebraska, an arrival here by the S. S. Newport, is visiting with her friend, Mrs. L. A. Holmes, at the Tregloan house on Beretania street. In a short time Mrs. Newman will resume her journey to the Philippines, whence she goes as the official representative of the White Cross Society of Nebraska. Mrs. Newman in her home State and beyond its confines is well known as prominent in all philanthropic and charitable work and a laborer in the interest of prison reform. In 1896 she was a delegate to the National Council of the Women of America and was elected a delegate to the International Council at Berlin. In 1897 she was commissioned by the W. C. T. U. to the International Conference in Switzerland. Some of the ladies here purpose requesting Mrs. Newman to address a meeting.
