some form of government will be provided for those islands. During the last session Senator Culom, as chairman of a committee for the purpose presented a form of government for Hawaii, but it was apparently not satisfactory for the majority of the senators and no final act was taken, pending a more thorough discussion of the whole matter. Whatever form of government is provided for, Hawaii will be used as precedent for Porto Rico and the Philippines.

"Yes, we have to hold the Philippines. We acquired them by purchase, just as we did the Louisiana purchase. We can't go back on our treaty now. After the establishment of peace congress will form some territorial scheme of government for the islands.

"I do not think anything will be done concerning the Nicaragua canal. The senate has always been in favor of the canal, but the bill was held up in the house last session. I do not think the committee appointed to investigate the bill will be ready to report this session, so there will be no final action at this time.

"In addition to the regular appropriation bills, there will be some legislation looking toward making the gold standard the basis of our monetary system; and probably some enlargement of the power of the national banks to increase circulation.

"There are no new changes necessary in the Dingley bill, and I look for no tariff legislation.

"A bill regulating trusts may be passed, but what it will be the wisest man cannot forecast."

SUNDAY RACING IN HAVANA.

Havana Papers Object to American Press Criticism.

HAVANA, Nov. 17.—The local newspapers object to the criticisms made by some American journals upon Sunday racing in Havana. They point out that, after mass on Sunday, all Latin countries take holiday, and assert that, if the Americans wish the Cubans to popularize some sport as a substitute for bull fighting, Sundays must be devoted to it, because Saints' day are kept strictly for religious observances and at other times there is no great number of Cubans wealthy enough to forsake business for the sake of amusement.

The discussion, which urges the high American officers in the island to continue to patronize a "noble sport," says:

"When 7,000 people brave the prospects of a rain such as was before us on last racing day, among them the very best people of Havana, their course is sufficient proof that the attitude of the American officers is heartily endorsed by our representative society."

The Patria proposes that ten of the leading municipalities should each give General Gomez $30 a month, as his health is poor and he is in need of funds. The Cuban newspapers are urged to support the proposal which is "small return indeed for the services of the liberator of Cuba."

At a meeting of the Planters' Association yesterday regret was expressed that, in consequence of a depleted treasury the association could not maintain in Italy a bureau to promote the emigration of Italian labor to Cuba by issuing weekly bulletins in Italy. It was also pointed out that at present most Italian workmen go to Brazil and Argentina, where they have proved very desirable acquisitions. So far as the funds at its disposal will allow, the Planters' Association will encourage Italians to come here.

EDMUNDS ON FILIPINOS.

The Ex-Senator Wants Them to Have Independence.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Ex-Senator George F. Edmunds, in an interview at Philadelphia today, which the World publishes, gave an expression of opinion as to what action ought to be taken by Congress regarding the Philippines. He said:

"I think that inasmuch as the Senate of the United States ratified the treaty with Spain and thereby the United States became the sovereign over the Philippine Islands, the situation must be dealt with as it is, and not as we might wish it should be.

"Spain at the time of the treaty was, in the international sense, the sovereign of those islands, for the rebellion, however, strong and however good its prospects of success might have been, had not reached the stage of success which had induced the recognition of the Powers of even a state of belligerency, so far as I know. The consequence is that the United States is responsible as a sovereign to all other nations for the security of their subjects and in respect to all international rights.

"I think the short question for Congress and people of the United States is whether the principles upon which our Government was founded and the principles upon which, three-fourths of a century ago, we recognized and assisted in setting up the Central and South American Republics are still true ones and ought to be followed. I think it a mistake to suppose that these principles and policies are out of date."

The Senator believes the United States should aid the Filipinos to independence.

DEWEY NEARLY MOBBED.

He and His Wife Take Refuge in a Store.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Admiral Dewey doesn't want to be driven out of town, but threatens to leave if he is mobbed again as he was this afternoon while walking through Union Square. When several men tried to raise him to their shoulders, he said: "Please don't" and "Please allow us to pass."

The Admiral kept his temper, though his wife was frightened, and they finally managed to escape into a store at Union Square and Fifteenth street. The proprietor sent for his carriage, in which Admiral and Mrs. Dewey returned to the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel. "Oscar" at the Waldorf, has taken them under his special epicurean protection, and today presided in person over the morning meal.

Admiral Dewey fancies plain dishes, but he wants them prepared and served just so," said Oscar. "Yankee dishes are his favorites. A plain soup, fish, preferably a roast, cheese and coffee are his choices for dinner. He is one of the most charming men I ever met."

NATIONAL NAVAL RESERVE.

New Organization on a Better Plan Than the Naval Militia.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—The leading feature of the annual report of Assistant Secretary Allen to Secretary Long relative to the naval militia is his strong indorsement of the plan for the organization of a national naval reserve. He points out that the experience of the past year has suggested certain changes in the original plan for this organization as contained in the bill submitted to the last session of Congress and he therefore urges that it be again pushed with the amendments prepared by Lieutenant Commander W. H. H. Southerland, who was for a part of the year in direct charge of the naval militia bureau of the navy department. In substance, that officer says that as the personnel act has made the term of service of enlisted men in the navy four years, the same period should be fixed for the enrollment in the naval reserve and that an officer should be promoted in war time with the regular officer with whom he holds the same date of commission. It is also recommended that steps be taken for the organization of a permanent coast signal system from the retired list of the navy, and the employes of the light house and life saving service. There are several thousand of these men and with a small appropriation and an annual drill for a few days each year they would be competent, the report says, to take up their duties immediately upon the outbreak of war. With a retired naval officer in charge of each light house district, and an officer in charge at the navy department and the necessary paraphernalia at the nearest navy yard ready for use, this necessary adjunct of war could be put in working order in twenty-four hours.

During the past year the legislature of Maine passed an act for the establishment of a naval militia, as did the state of Minnesota. The department undertook to afford the naval militia of the country an opportunity to drill at sea under service conditions and the offer was accepted by the governors of all but one of the states having militia organizations. The report states in detail the result of the cruises in each case, setting out the reports of the naval officers who accepted as inspectors and noting their criticisms without reserve.

The public is invited to attend an exhibition game of basket ball at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium on Saturday evening. A match has been arranged between the city team and a team from the evening class.

Twelve of the Kinau's crew are at the station-house charged with disturbing the quiet of the night at Manuawai. The men were all swipes drunk and were arrested upon complaint from the neighborhood.
