TWO VIEWS OF CARNEGIE'S GIFTS AND BENEFACTIONS

NEW YORK, March 25.—A special to the World from Newcastle, Pa., says:

Owing to the attitude of the labor unions the city council will, in all probability, reject the $50,000 offer of Andrew Carnegie for a public library for this place.

Following the action of the Trades Assembly, division 89, Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employees, has adopted a resolution protesting against the acceptance of the gift. A committee to whom the matter had been referred at a previous meeting reported the following:

"That such donations are inimical to that independence American manhood is assumed to possess (on general principles) and especially so in this case, when such flagrant injustice, even to murder, has been done to those whose toil is represented in every dollar of the money thus tendered.

"To erect such a library here and by its silent or its partisan outspoken influence induce our children to look upon it as a logical, necessary and unavoidable method of obtaining certain benefits, tends to destroy in their minds any idea of natural justice or human rights and make of them willing supplicants at the mercy of this system of corporate greed which deals out a part of the sum in charity it originally appropriated from the producers to whom it alone rightfully belongs, which sum if they had fully received would have enabled them to own a library instead of now being, as are all others who are similarly robbed, the objects of charity.

"It would be something like a semblance of justice if these donations were made to the widows and orphans of Homestead. We deem them as worthy of remembrance as the Maine. A city will enrich enormously a few men and then be itself an object of charity. We, therefore, condemn this library move as an insult to him it is said it will benefit the most, the working man; he does not want charity, but justice."

THE CLERICAL VIEW.

NEW YORK, March 25.—Dr. Madison C. Peters, of the Sumner Avenue Baptist church, Brooklyn, and the Rev. Henry Frank, of the Metropolitan Independent church, both referred yesterday to Andrew Carnegie's offer of $5,200,000 to New York city for sixty-five library buildings.

"Mr. Carnegie, by his benevolence, has clipped the wings of riches so that they do not fly away," said Dr. Peters in his sermon last evening, "while at the same time he has sweetened the breath of society and deprived the agitator of his stock in trade when he infuriates the mob to deeds of violence and confiscation. When the rich men of America and all other lands shall stretch out to the struggling masses of humanity the kindness of Mr. Carnegie they will do what shot and shell cannot do; what severe laws severely executed cannot do—and the age of dynamite."

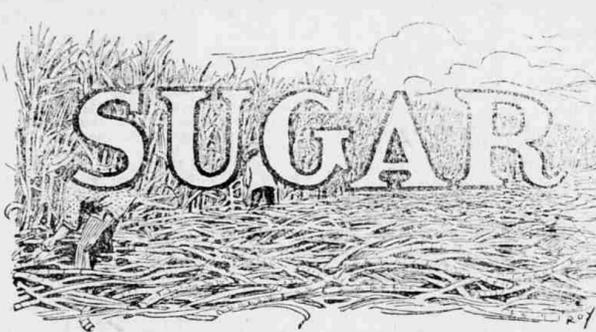

"Andrew Carnegie is a revolutionist," declared Mr. Frank. "With one bold stroke he has uprooted by the roots one of the vested ideas of the race. It has always been assumed that he who acquired wealth was its only rightful owner and possessor, despite the claims of all contestants. But this prince of industry, whose wealth has almost reached the top notch of human achievements, seems to have discovered a new gospel and fearlessly proclaims its principles.

"Whoever holds his wealth for selfish use alone is a thief; he who dies overburdened with wealth is a criminal. These sentences are the only logical deductions to be made from the recent utterances of this philanthropic iconoclast. Such language coming from the mouths of social agitators would be declared riotous and anarchistic; coming from the lips of one of earth's greatest millionaires, it is certainly little less than revolutionary.

"Mr. Carnegie's philanthropic chief d'oeuvre has created genuine consternation in the ranks of the bourgeois rich. The old school millionaires who either devoted themselves to the narrow environment of the business office or squandered their wealth in lavish expenditure and luxurious abandonment, frequenting the cafes, embellishing to the world their jeweled splendors, surrounded by women clad in decollete attire, who sought little more in life than the delight of industry or the fascination of dissipation, find in this industrial hero a silent rebuke which must in time force them to the recognition of their folly and the pursuit of sturdier ideals."

Denies the Story.

NEW YORK, March 25.—The Tribune says ex-Senator E. O. Wolcott of Colorado, has written a letter to a friend in Washington denying the story that he was to enter President McKinley's cabinet.

SUGAR

ACCORDING to the sugar statistics furnished by Williams, Dimond & Co. of San Francisco in their latest circular, dated March 26, the chances are that with the steady demand for the refined product, quotations will remain firm. The following circular is furnished by Schaefer & Co.:

SUGAR.—No changes have since occurred in the local market or for export to Honolulu, but granulated for local consumption still being quoted at 5.55c, and for export 5.20c.

BASIS.—March 15, no sales; 18, cost and freight sale, 4,200 tons, at 4.05c; 19, no sales; 20, cost and freight sale, 1,200 tons at 4.05c; 21, no sales; 22, 'to arrive' sale, 500 tons, at 4.1-3c; and on same date, cost and freight sale, 1,500 tons, at 4.05c; 23, no sales; 25, cost and freight sale, 1,200 tons, at 4.05c, establishing basis for 96 degree centrifugals in New York on that date 4.05c; San Francisco, 3.65c.

LONDON BEETS.—March 16 to 18, 98; 19, 98 1-1-2c; 20, 98 3-4d; 21 to 23, 98; 25, 98 3-4d.

DRY GRANULATED, NEW YORK.—No change.

LONDON CABLE.—March 21 quotes Java No. 15 D. S. 11s 6d; fair refining 10s 9d; same date last year 12s 3d and 11s 3d respectively. March beets 9s 3-4d, against 10s 3d same time last year. April beets 9s 3-4d, against 10s 3d same time last year.

EASTERN AND FOREIGN MARKETS.—According to latest mail advices from New York under date of 21st inst., the market for raws is steady and firm with infrequent transactions at current quotations, since sellers evince a disposition to hold off in the hope of realizing better prices for their sugars later. The demand for refined is improving and a large business is now being done at current prices. European markets strengthened for a time, but latest reports indicate that a rather easier tone prevails.

LATEST STATISTICAL POSITION.—Willet & Gray report March 14 total stock United States four ports in all hands estimated March 13, 153,031 tons, against 149,950 tons same time last year. Six principal ports of Cuba, estimated March 12, 163,500 tons, against 96,648 tons last year. Total stock in all principal countries, by cable at latest uneven dates, 1,865,531 tons against 1,700,996 tons; increase over last year, 164,535 tons.

THE POPE AND THE JESUITS

His Holiness Said to be Dissatisfied With Management of Order.

NEW YORK, March 25.—The Herald says: Among the possibilities suggested by the reports from Rome is that of an American becoming "the Black Pope." There are, according to an old saying, three Popes in Rome—the "White Pope," who sits in the chair of St. Peter; the "Red Pope," who is the Cardinal prefect of the propaganda, and the "Black Pope," who is the general of the Jesuits.

Cardinal Gibbons' name has often been mentioned for the first named office. That of Father Rudolph F. Meyer, also an American, is now spoken of in connection with the last trio.

According to reports in reference, Leo XIII has determined to remove Father Martin, general of the Society of Jesus, on the ground that the recent popular demonstrations against the order in France, Austria, Spain and Portugal are due to mismanagement, for which Father Martin is held responsible by His Holiness.

Members of the Society of Jesus in this city are inclined to doubt the accuracy of this report. They believe, however, that in view of Father Martin's bad state of health an assistant may be appointed, with every likelihood of succeeding him eventually.

"If any action had already been taken by the Holy Father," said the Rev. Father J. J. Wynne, S. J., last night, "it would have been reported to us by cable by our representative in Rome, Father Meyer. No message on the subject has, however, been received. On the other hand, there is a possibility that a vicar has or may be appointed as assistant to Father Martin, who will take charge of his work. The General has been in bad health for a year or more, suffering seriously, I fear, from Bright's disease. Though he is comparatively a young man, about 54 years old, and has several assistants and advisers, who have charge of different sections of the world under his direction, the Rev. Father Meyer representing this country, his work is very onerous. Under the circumstances I think it probable that the Holy Father has given him an assistant."

T. W. Hobron, the popular young boatsman, and J. F. Soper went to the Coast on the China.

LULIA EVICTED THE TAVISHES

And Now Damages are Claimed by the Latter for Losses Incurred.

There is war on between Oliver Tavish and his wife, Maggie Tavish, and Lulia, a native woman. The Tavishes declare that Lulia exercised undue hardships upon them by forcibly ejecting them from their house during a violent rainstorm, thereby causing them great physical and mental pain, and exposing them to the elements.

They claim to have been damaged in the sum of $2,000, resulting from the violent, forcible, illegal and unjustifiable acts of Lulia towards them on March 14.

The plaintiffs allege that on this date the defendant, without any right or justification, entered upon their leasehold premises, situated at the corner of Wallace and Liliha streets, and with force and arms violently thrust and forced the Tavishes, consisting of the wife and five small children, being from one to six years of age, out of the residence into a violent rainstorm, and with great haste and violence removed from the residence and exposed to the rainstorm all the furniture and ornaments in said house, breaking all things that were most valuable and fragile, and greatly damaging all the movable chattels, effects, and then and there causing a loss of $100 in gold coin belonging to plaintiffs by the unlawful acts of Lulia, and forcing the wife and children into the open space in a raging storm, to their great danger, peril and physical and mental suffering, and thereupon the defendant immediately occupied said residence premises, pulling up the gates and excluding the plaintiff's milk cows from the grazing afforded by the lawn appurtenant to said premises, causing plaintiffs pecuniary loss and great mental suffering.

They ask that Lulia appear before the Circuit Court at the May term.
