

ALOHA TEMPLE, A. A. O. N. M. S.

(PHOTO BY DAVEY.)

THE ABOVE GROUP presents an excellent photograph of practically all of the officers and members, in full regalia, of the lately instituted temple of the Ancient and Arabic Order of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine. The picture in the foreground is that of Lou B. Winsor, Imperial Potentate of the order, who was at the head of the visiting members instituting the local shrine. In the center of the group stands C. B. Wood, Illustrious Potentate, and around him are grouped L. T. Grant, Chief Rabban and F. J. Amweg, Assistant Rabban. Clarence Crabbe and J. G. Pratt wear the ominous robes of the astrologers and magi, while beneath the flowing and venerable whiskers of the pseudo Prophet and Prophet of the temple, peep the youthful lineaments of E. G. Holt. Len Ables is the burly Captain of the Arab Patrol; Francis is Captain of the Guard, and Andrew Brown is the Oriental Guide. George Ashley and Dr. Tucker are also officers. Tucker being the Outer Guard. Ranged along the bottom of the group lie the stalwart members of the Arab Patrol, whose duty it is to keep in the narrow path of duty, that leads to the rope, all aspiring pilgrims and Recorder Rothwell are among the officers who wear only the fez as the outward symbol of their office. The costumes are made of the richest materials and are an item of no little expense to the officers of any Temple although those of the local shrine were pronounced by the costumers to be as elaborate, and therefore as expensive, as that boasted by any of the order. The photograph from which the half-tone was made was taken by Davey in the interior of the Masonic Temple.

There is no exception except a visit to the encampment at Pacific Grove along the Ocean Drive, and the two days before the President and the Ordeal they will have in San Francisco next week. The delegation also will visit the Hotel this morning for San Francisco this afternoon.

AND WALL STREET.

Abroad in the Speculative Craze. May 11.—British half-breed now has a more contented theme, says the Tribune correspondent, than mere speculation or a multi-million dollar raid. The incidents of the Wall street are entering the moral is drawn by sheer excess of recklessness to join in the American speculation and sobriety of London in the American speculation were cautious and ill-informed and predicted the break in the market long before it came. Perhaps the best "tips" for the American market were provided by Mr. Labouchere's Truth and those who needed them profited by the rise in certain securities, but sold out prematurely. Stories are told of some fortunate drives made in American and Canadian Pacific stocks, but the majority of the speculators stayed out and when the activity of the American market was suspended wagged their heads and said that they had foreseen the inevitable collapse. These brokers were surprised by the dispatches just received indicating a greatly improved feeling in the American market, and the leader writers were convinced that they had been premature in playing to the English galleries.

THE RAILROAD TRUST.

Private Barter Which May End in General Ruin.

LONDON, May 11.—The Economist, which comments upon "the dangerous influence that has come to be exercised by the powerful financial groups which in recent years have obtained control of railroads," says: "Fortunately the commitments in 'Yankees' here are small and the only matter for regret is the effect which the collapse has had on the general market." The Daily Chronicle, which thinks Mr. Morgan's purchase of the Leyland line a much more serious matter than the Wall street panic, says: "It becomes a serious and urgent question whether the nation will not have to adopt some means to check the process of private barter which may end in general ruin."

Equador and Peru. LIMA, May 11.—A cablegram has been received from Quito saying that Ecuador, desirous of maintaining cordial relations with Peru, has suspended the obnoxious decree which created the Department of Nap Zamora.

HEAT OF THE STARS MEASURED

Another Remarkable Triumph Scored for the Science of Astronomy.

CHICAGO, May 11.—A special to the Record-Herald from Williams Bay, Wis., says: Whether the stars, millions of miles away, send to the earth's surface any heat along with their rays of light, a question which has long puzzled astronomers, has been finally solved. The heat from these far-off bodies has not only been detected but measured. It has been measured by one of the most delicate and sensitive astronomical instruments ever made—an instrument capable of measuring the heat of a candle a mile away.

The credit for solving the problem and for constructing this delicate instrument belongs to Professor E. F. Nichols of Dartmouth College. The experiments were, however, performed at the Yerkes Observatory of the University of Chicago, where Professor Nichols spent two of his summers' vacations. The results obtained from these experiments have just been carefully reviewed and computed and sent to Professor George E. Hale, director of the observatory. Prof. Nichols' experiments at the Yerkes Observatory have for the first time proved beyond a doubt that the planets and some of the fixed stars send an appreciable quantity of heat to the earth. The quantity, however, is so minute that the wonder is that an instrument could be made sensitive enough to detect it. The instrument which can record such an infinitely small amount of heat is called a radiometer. Though based to some extent upon the same principle as the bolometer and radiometer, which have been so successfully used in

NEWS FROM THE FAR PHILIPPINES

Commissary Scandal and Some Incidents of the Dying War.

MANILA, May 11, 5:35 p. m.—The trial of Captain Frederick J. Barrows of the Thirtieth Volunteer Infantry, quartermaster of the Department of Southern Luzon, on charges connected with the commissary scandal, was finished today. The verdict has not been announced. The Department of Southern Luzon is sending various expeditions in pursuit of the remaining Filipino bands. It is expected that the Island of Mindoro will be occupied in the near future. Many fugitive Tagalogs and a quantity of arms are reported to be concealed in Mindoro. The United States Philippine Commission is overrun with applications for civil positions and the officers of the new provinces are submitting many questions to the commission. The routine business of the commissioners is heavy. The provincial officers have encountered no serious difficulties. A party of insurgents partly burned the bridge near Luchan, Tayabas province, Thursday night, but were driven back without loss on either side.

STRAITS OF MAGELLAN.

Are They Being Fortified by Chilean Government?

NEW YORK, May 11.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: Representatives of the Chilean and Argentine Legations here are not able to confirm the story that the Straits of Magellan are being fortified by the Chilean Government, contrary to the treaty between the two nations. At the Chilean Legation it is said that no official information has been received there which would indicate that any such step is in contemplation and there is a disposition to discredit the report. A similar statement is given at the Argentine Legation, although it is admitted that no official information on the subject has been received there. Reports have been in circulation to the effect that Chile is preparing for a conflict with some of her neighbors; therefore the report that operations are not in progress by the Chilean Government is regarded as probably by others of the South American colony.

FINED AN AMERICAN.

Former Subject of Czar Punished for Not Serving Army Time.

CHICAGO, May 11.—A special to the Tribune from St. Paul, Minn., says: I. D. Horne, a naturalized American citizen and member of a wholesale firm in this city, has been forced by the Russian Government, of which country he is a native to pay a fine of 600 roubles, amounting to $350. Mr. Horne received notice several months ago from Russia that the fine had been imposed because he did not serve his time in the Russian army. Through the American Minister at St. Petersburg he arbitrated the matter, claiming exemption because of now being an American citizen. He desired to go to Russia in person, but the American official informed him that it would be exceedingly difficult to secure his release from the arrest which would surely ensue as soon as he entered the Czar's domain. The Russian Government attached the homestead of Mr. Horne's parents at Niesin, Northern Russia, to secure payment of the fine. Mr. Horne's parents are aged, and their only property is their home. To prevent them from being turned out, Horne paid his fine.
