HANDICAP FOR TODAY

Weller is Asked to Donate Pounds of Weight.

who wanted Weller "pulled" in his race. The boy had taken the money without intention to be false to his employer, only to serve out the job. Then, to complete their undoing the Weller money ate up the "wise" cash, which went in with the "supposition" that the gamest horse now in training here was to be choiced out of the race. How handily Weller won, answered every question as to the integrity of the jockey.

That Honolulu men are enjoying the race period must not be forgotten. One young professional man is in pillkia owing to his obliging disposition. He acted as stakeholder for several bettors, and after reaching home Tuesday, to dress for the minstrels, found that he had $200 for which he could not account. He has not yet had a claimant for that cash, and can remember nothing about any bet involving such an amount. He is determined, however, that any one who wants that coin must prove property.

THE DETAILED ACCOUNT.

The second day's racing was of a thoroughly enjoyable description. As on Tuesday, backers of the favorites fared badly, only two of the six first choices catching the judge's eye first. Amethyst and Weller won at prohibitive odds, so that, on the whole, form players must have had a disastrous day.

The meeting sustained its reputation for surprises, Edna G and Venus being the star performers along this line.

HALF MILE, HAWAIIAN BRED.

Amethyst was a strong favorite at 1 to 4. The starter gave her four lengths the worst of the deal, but the Kealia mare, when she once got going, ran like a deer and held a substantial lead coming into the stretch with Gaiety Girl half a length ahead of Albert H. Before reaching the seven-eighths pole Albert H cracked up and Gaiety Girl was done with. Amethyst won in a walk by five lengths. Time 51 seconds.

THREE-MINUTE CLASS.

Dickey Davis drove Edna G in place of Billy Lucas, who piloted her on Tuesday, and the change worked. Edna G put one of her tootsies through a wheel of the sulky in the preliminary skirmish, and Tom Hollinger and Johnny Callahan packed the crippled vehicle to the paddock between them while the crowd whistled "Bringing in the Sheaves." The horses came up to the wire well together, with Nettie H a trifle behind, and the judges called them back. At this the crowd "booed" vigorously. When finally dispatched upon their journey, it was Edna G, Artie W, Nettie H, from start to the last eighth. The latter broke just after starting and lost a lot of ground. At this she came from far behind in the stretch and almost caught Edna G at the wire. Time 2:25. In the second heat Edna G led Artie W to the three-eighths, when Larry Dee drove Artie W ahead and held him there until a furlong from home. Then Edna G was urged to a winning effort, taking the heat from Artie W, with Nettie H close up. Time 2:25 1-2. The race was awarded to Edna G under protest from W. S. Withers, who objected to the winner being driven in hobbles. He bases his objection on section 2, rule 9, of the rules and regulations of the National Trotting Association. The betting was 10 to 8 against the field, bar Nettie H.

FIVE FURLONGS DASH.

A field of six, which is a record for the islands, kept the starter usefully employed and the public waiting for forty-five valuable minutes. Jockey Piggott was fined $5 for being backward in coming forward with Virgie A, the favorite. The flag finally fell to a good start and Venus went to the front and stayed there. There was nothing to it but old Venus. Garterline chased her throughout the journey, but couldn't get nearer than a couple of lengths. Racery occupied third place to the five furlongs pole, when she gave place to Virgie A, and from there on was never dangerous. Watossa ran like a dead one and his poor showing at this meeting is inexplicable. Venus won by three lengths in the fair time of 1:32 1-2. Garterline was second,

THIS MIDDLEWEIGHT IS AS GOOD AS MOST OF THEM

Jack Weday, of Detroit, who is now a resident of Honolulu, is the champion middle and welter-weight of the navy, and has defended that title for the past five years.

Weday is well known in pugilistic circles in the States as "the man with the iron jaw." His fighting record is without a blemish, and perhaps his most notable battle was with Billy Gallaher, whom he defeated, and by so doing demonstrated his ability to hold his own with the best of them. In his many fights he has never been knocked out. Personally, Weday is a man one is glad to meet; always quiet, unassuming and gentlemanly in his demeanor, and all those who have met him are glad of the opportunity.

two lengths ahead of Virgie A, which defeated Racery for show money by four lengths, Virgie A was favorite at 100 to 224, against any horse named to beat her.

THE MILE.

Aggravation was a slight favorite over General Cronje and both horses were liberally supported. Cronje led by three parts of a length at the quarter and had increased his advantage to an open length at the half mile pole. The mare closed up a little at the five furlongs pole, but ran as if stale and trailed the General to the wire, arriving a length and a half too late. Time 1:45 3-4.

GENTLEMAN'S DRIVING RACE.

W. W. Wood was the choice. Wait-a-Little, driven by Chris Holt, led to the quarter, when Wood joined him, and they stayed neck and neck to the five-eighths, where Wood broke badly and allowed Wait-a-Little to secure a big lead, and Walter P to take second position. This he kept until the wire was reached, succumbing to Wait-a-Little and taking second honors from the fast-coming Woods, which, but for his break, would have won. Lustré was fourth. Los Angeles finished Racery for show money by four lengths, Virgie A was favorite at 100 to 224, against any horse named to beat her.
