ADVERTISER'S NEW YEAR ISSUE

The holiday number of the Pacific Commercial Advertiser, published at Honolulu, is a remarkably fine specimen of the printer's and newspaper art. A colored cover bearing a highly artistic representation of Hawaii's big volcano in full action, forms a striking feature, while the ninety pages inside are liberally sprinkled with excellent views of Honolulu and other places and of prominent residents.

A copy of the Pacific Commercial Advertiser of Honolulu, Hawaii, January 1, 1922, has reached this office through the courtesy of Hon. R. H. Chamberlain of this city, United States collector of internal revenue for the district of Hawaii, at Honolulu. The publication is a special number setting forth the history and advantages of Hawaii, and Honolulu in particular. The story it presents of that region of Uncle Sam's domains is fascinating, and shows a very advanced state of civilization and prosperity existing there.—Clarinda (H.) Herald.

RUN AND WALK.

Interesting Match Made for Next Saturday Morning.

A friendly pedestrian contest has been arranged for next Saturday morning at the race track between "Denver Ed" Smith and H. M. Ayres. The agreement calls for Ayres to walk a mile while Smith runs the same distance.

Both men are old hands at the game, Smith having trained with Dan O'Leary, one of the greatest pedestrians the world ever saw. Ayres has a race or two to his credit in "the old world," as well as in the States and here.

Neither man has been on the cinder path for a long time, and this fact helped the match along. Ayres thinks that Smith carries too much avoidipolis to run as fast as he can walk, and Smith banks on the belief that his opponent has lost his form through lack of practice.

The race will start at 10:30 a. m., and will be for a dinner.

Weight-Paty Wedding.

This evening, at 8:30, at the Paty residence on Bates street, the wedding of Miss Paty and Mr. Charles Weight will take place. The maid of honor will be Miss Lillie Paty, the bridesmaid, Miss Irmgard Schaefer, while the groom will be attended by Mr. W. T. Schmidt, Rev. H. H. Parker of Kawaiahaeo Church will officiate. W. O. Smith will give the bride away. The honeymoon will be spent at the Wailae beach residence of Mr. E. A. Mott-Smith. Upon their return to the city the couple will reside in a cottage in the Mott-Smith premises on Nuuanu street.
