Wherein our Neckwear

EXCELS. In that indescribable point—taste. Chas. Frohman relates that when in England he heard an old Northumberland man ask a boy:—

"Where be ye goin', Jack?"
The boy: "Bean't goin' nowhere."
"Ye must be goin' somewhere."
"No I bean't. I'm a-comin' back."

Equally fine and fundamental is the difference between our Neckwear and the ordinary kind. That we show a much larger or more varied assortment, may or may not be so. That's not the point. Wherein our showing unquestionably excels, as people assure us is in the taste shown in its selection. Here we challenge all comers.
