

BACK FROM AUSTRALIA Return of Austin Strong to the Coast.

(Special to The Advertiser.)
SAN FRANCISCO, April 5.—Among the passengers of the Oceanic Steamship Company's Sierra was Austin Strong, the young American landscape architect, who was commissioned by cable last October to design Cornwall Park, Auckland, N. Z. The park embraces a mountainous area of 400 acres, the crest of the mountain commanding a magnificent view of the harbor. The trustees were so delighted with Strong's design that they paid a tribute to the architect's genius in this form:

"The trustees heartily concur in the broad views which have been your guiding principle in deciding how the park should be dealt with, while the leaving of the natural beauties of the scenery undisturbed appeals to them as the crowning feature of the work. * * * The trustees wish you a prosperous professional career and hope that some day in the future you may again visit Auckland and drive through the Grand Avenue in the Cornwall Park of your designing, to the summit of historical One Tree Hill."

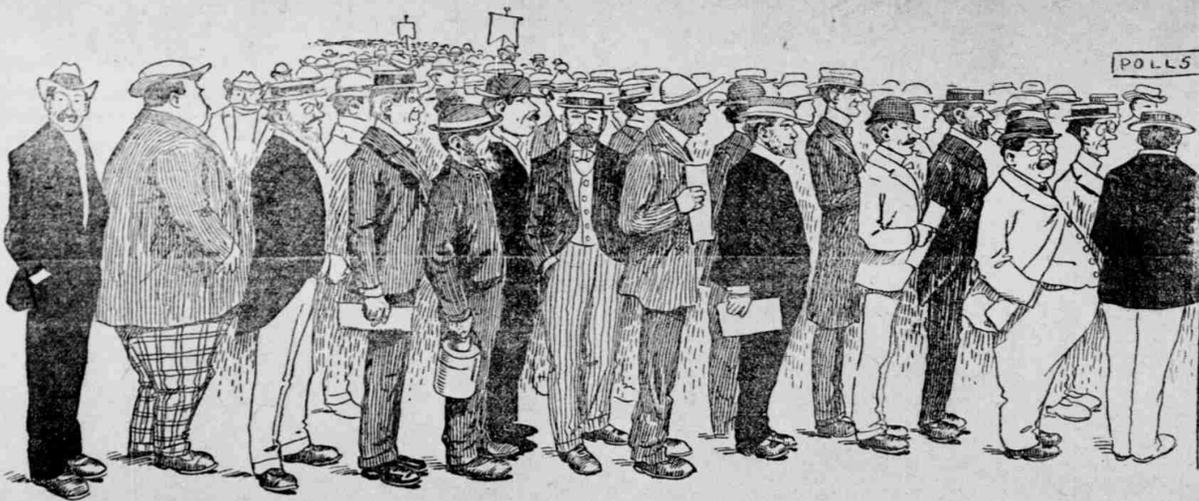

The letter commending the design is signed by Arthur M. Myers, chairman, and all the other trustees of the park board. Dr. Logan Campbell, who presented Auckland with the land for the park, joined in testifying to the excellence of the design. On the written recommendation of the Auckland Scenery Conservation Society the Council of the city sought to engage Strong to supervise the improvement of all the city parks, but professional engagements in the United States would not allow him to remain in New Zealand.

This American landscape artist who has achieved so much distinction abroad was a pupil of Samuel Parsons, superintendent of the New York parks. He is a son of the late Joseph D. Strong, the well-known artist and portrait painter, and was born in San Francisco. His mother, Mrs. Isabel Strong, and his grandmother, Mrs. Robert Louis Stevenson, are in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. William Herrin, Miss Katherine and Miss Alice Herrin will sail for Honolulu the latter part of this month. They will be absent about two months.

Our American colony in the islands has some delightful times and I understand that the belles who deal everything socially are the Misses Macfarlane and Miss Juliette King, says the society editor of the Bulletin. Miss King's engagement to Mr. Kimball of Boston is, therefore, of especial interest to her friends. Miss King is an Eastern girl and charmingly bred. She was formerly engaged to Captain Hirsch, U. S. A., who is stationed in Honolulu, but the new love seems stronger than the old, and Mr. Kimball has won the promise of the fair Juliette. Burt M. Thomas, Special Internal Revenue Agent, and his wife, returned from Honolulu on the Alameda. Mr. Thomas went on official business, his duty being to "check up" the accounts in the revenue office in Honolulu. Both coming and going he and his wife suffered very much from seasickness.

A NERVOUS WRECK

A Wisconsin Young Man Cured of St. Vitus' Dance and Partial Paralysis.

William J. Williams, of No. 550 Mill-ford Road, Watertown, Wis., was cured of St. Vitus' dance and partial paralysis by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People after eight different doctors and specialists had given him up as incurable. He said to a reporter:

"I suffered about eight years with St. Vitus' dance and partial paralysis. My right side was entirely paralyzed. I could not walk without dragging that foot and after going a short distance I was all tired out. After a while I lost the entire use of my right arm. I had no appetite, could not sleep well and was not much good to myself or anybody else. I believe my condition was caused by overstudy, and worry over a severe illness of my mother. For nearly four years I was under treatment by physicians and specialists, eight in all, but they did not help me and finally I was given up as incurable. "Thinking the healthy air of the country in which I was born, Wales, would be of benefit to me, my mother took me there but I did not seem to improve. Finally however, before we returned to this country, a friend recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. My disease was stubborn but after I had taken this wonderful remedy for six weeks I found I was getting better. I continued the use of the pills and now am entirely well. I have recommended them to many people and cannot praise them too highly."

If Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People can effect a cure in so severe a case as that above it is reasonably certain that they will do as much for lesser nervous troubles. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after-effects of the grip, papitosis of the heart, pale and sallow complexion and all forms of weakness, either in male or female. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are sold by all druggists, or direct from Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., fifty cents a box; six boxes for two dollars and a half. Be sure and get the genuine; substitutes never cured anybody.

guardian of the Holt minors, upon giving a bond of $1200.

A general denial has been filed in the case of Kaploani Estate vs. Territory of Hawaii—Action to establish fishing rights.

J. Lightfoot was admitted to practice by the Supreme Court yesterday.

The report of the master in the James R. Holt estate was approved yesterday.

The contest over the probate of the will of David Kahanu, deceased, was finally submitted to Judge Gear yesterday. Both the widow and son of the deceased object to the will, alleging undue influence on the part of Kaallak. Evidence has been taken the greater part of the week and arguments are to be submitted on briefs.

IT IS DIFFERENT NOW.

Once upon a time students of medicine held the notion that there were as many different diseases as the body has organs and parts; every one of these ailments requiring a different treatment. So stupid a mistake could lead only to miserable failures. For the fact is, the body is a single machine; and what concerns one part of it concerns, more or less closely, all the rest. Thus we see how it happens that one remedy, or mode of treatment, may relieve and cure a variety of complaints,—or what may appear like a variety, but are really various forms or outcroppings of the same cause. Take, for example, Anemia, Scrofula, Poverty of Blood, General Debility, Influenza, Throat and Lung Diseases, etc.—a formidable array indeed they look to be; yet WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION quickly abates the worst of such cases, and absolutely cures many which have been abandoned as hopeless. The reasons are: its power over the digestive and assimilating process, its action in expelling impurities from the blood, and its consequent ability to vitalize and rebuild the whole structure. It is palatable as honey and contains the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. It was not dreamed of, or discovered by accident; it was studied out, on the solid principles of applied medical science. It is precisely what it is said to be, and has won the confidence of the public on that basis. Dr. Thos. Hunt Stucky says: "The continued use of it in my practice, convinces me that it is the most palatable, least nauseating, and best preparation now on the market." Every dose effective. "You cannot be disappointed in it." Sold by all chemists the world over.
