KEKIPI'S PILIKIA

A Transaction in Deeds on Maui.

A CLIMB UP HALEAKALA

A Government Bridge—Booms in Property—Match Game of Polo.

MAUI, May 3.—During Wednesday, April 30th and Thursday, May 1st, an interesting case was partially tried before Judge J. W. Kalua of Wailuku. It was a civil action brought by the heirs of the late R. Mia of Pauwela to cancel a deed alleged to have been fraudulently obtained by Rev. S. Kekipi from the said R. Mia before his demise. Kekipi had a large following at Pauwela as an exponent of Christian Science and by his efforts and by means of money obtained by mortgaging the home of R. Mia, a prominent citizen of Pauwela, a church was constructed there. The money raised by the mortgage was afterward repaid. The story as shown by the witnesses of the prosecution is that Mia, when he signed the deed, was under the impression that it was a mortgage similar to the former instrument and that Kekipi on behalf of the Christian Scientists, was to use the money obtained by the mortgage to build a hospital at Pauwela and a church at Hana.

After the death of Mia and during the temporary absence of Mrs. Mia from home, Kekipi took possession of the property and still holds possession, though the furniture of the Mia family still remains on the premises. The value of the property was estimated to be $1200 by several witnesses before the court. Geo. Hons is the attorney for the prosecution and Noah Aluil for the defense. The matter was postponed till the 22nd to obtain a desirable witness.

POLICE COURT CASE. Monday, the 28th of April, Cyrus Green was fined $10 by the Wailuku police court for committing a nuisance, or rather for being a "common nuisance" in constructing a building three or four feet over the sidewalk line of Market street, Wailuku. The house in question adjoins the dental office of Dr. Boote. The case was appealed.

NEW GOVERNMENT BRIDGE. The Wailuku road board have, during the week, completed a bridge over the government road of Spreckelsville, makai of the trestle work railroad bridge. This place, situated as it is in a little gully, has been the scene of frequent washouts. The present bridge is about twenty feet wide and thirty feet long, and is set firmly in rock and cement.

CLIMBED TO THE CRATER. During the 27th and 28th of April a party of ten Maui residents visited the crater of Haleakala. They ascended the mountain from Olinda on the 27th, spent the night in the small cave near the top (some times called or mis-called "Flea Cave") and returned to Olinda on the 28th. They had a fine view of the palace of the sun and much enjoyed the outing despite the sultry showers of rain.

In the party were Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Lufkin, Mrs. Lufkin, Miss Lufkin, Master Lufkin, Miss Smith, Mrs. Huntington and Miss Huntington, all of Wailuku, and Dr. G. S. Alken and W. O. Alken of Makawao, the latter acting as kamaaina and guide. Mrs. Lufkin, the mother of C. D. Lufkin, cashier of the Wailuku bank, is 77 years of age and bore the hardships of the journey most bravely and well. She is said to be the oldest lady that ever made the crater trip.

BOOMS ON MAUI. Paia is booming as well as Wailuku and Hana. E. H. Pieper is soon to erect a large two-story hotel near the site of his present store. Fred Ganzel, the Honolulu contractor, has just finished the plans. This will make the second hotel for Paia, which, in addition to its two livery stables and two public hack lines, gives or will give the village quite a town-like aspect, causing it to take rank with Wailuku and Hana.

A DIVISION OF PROPERTY. Messrs. Enos and Ferreira of Wailuku have during the last week or two been dividing the cattle which they previously owned in common on their Makawao pasture lands which have also been separated into two distinct ranches. Joe Maciel will manage the Enos ranch, and Charles Brown the Ferreira ranch. Messrs. Enos and Ferreira have been associated for years together as partners in the cattle business and have together amassed comfortable fortunes, but feeling old age creeping on, they thought best for the sake of their heirs, to divide their real estate and cattle, which formerly were property in common.

MATCH GAME OF POLO. This afternoon, weather permitting, the best match game between the Wailuku and Makawao polo clubs will take place at Paia. Messrs. F. F. Baldwin, W. H. Cornwell, Jr., L. R. Crook, and Thompson will represent Wailuku.

MISCELLANEOUS. During Friday afternoon, the 2nd, the Ladies' Reading Club met at Mrs. D. C. Lindsay's, Paia. May Day on East Maui was a rainy day. In fact, there has been rain every day for the past week. Today it is raining quite hard in Wailuku and Makawao.

Diamonds As an Investment Are not usually the most profitable things to buy; but when they are constantly increasing in price, as they have been for the past three years, and give every promise of continuing, they might well be considered by you as a SAFE NEST EGG. BUT FEW PERFECT DIAMONDS are being found today, nearly all the rough found is very imperfect, which is the real cause of the tremendous and steady advance in price. A PERFECT DIAMOND will therefore be of very great value in a few years, and those inclined to dispose of their perfect stones later on, will realize a handsome profit on their investment. The most perfect diamonds have always gone to America, but the time is coming when Americans will have to be content with imperfect stones, or pay fabulous prices for the perfect. The duties on cut diamonds into America are now only ten per cent, while the rough is free; thus bringing the price of diamonds about uniform the world over. We have many fine pieces bought before the last few rises, on which we have not advanced the prices; they are well worth your consideration. We Invite Comparisons Most of our diamonds are sold to transients, people from the East, who know what values are. If argument were necessary, this should be the most convincing that our prices are right. H. F. WISHMAN, FORT STREET.
