HOME RULER MUST PAY

Makainai Sued for Dressmaking Bill.

SUMNER CASE TO BE HEARD BY DE BOLT

Davis Makes Good His Threat and Attacks Judge Robinson.

Judgment was rendered by Judge Robinson yesterday in favor of L. J. Sun and against Jesse Makainai for the sum of $184.45, with interest, costs and attorney's fees. The Home Rule Senatorial candidate was sued for the amount above given for dressmaking goods sold to his wife by Sun. The plaintiff is a dressmaker and the purchases consisted of holokus, lace, linen and other dry goods, sold over a period of two years. No defense was made, the plaintiff simply proving his claim, which was admitted. In the district court Judge Dickey gave judgment for $90.94, there being a deduction of $95 made for rent due the Hawaii Land Co., of which Makainai was treasurer. This amount not having been paid by the defendant to the company, Judge Robinson gave judgment for the entire amount, $184.45, with costs.

DE BOLT WILL HEAR SUMNER CASE.

The Sumner trial came to an abrupt end before Judge Robinson yesterday and was assigned to Judge De Bolt, who will take up the hearing again this morning. Davis made good his threat of Monday and the first thing yesterday morning moved for a reassignment on the ground that Judge Robinson was disqualified by a former adjudication. J. A. Magoon presented the motion, arguing that the court became disqualified upon signing the decree declaring John K. Sumner to be sane. Davis argued on the same lines, but in less strenuous manner than usual. Henry Highton contested the motion, arguing that the mere fact that the first ruling could not be pleaded in bar was a showing sufficient to refute the motion. Judge Robinson disclaimed any bias or prejudice by reason of the former order saying that the decision had been for the purposes of the motion alone. In view of the question raised he declined to hear the case, and assigned the matter to Judge Robinson.

J. LOUIS HORNER APPOINTED.

Judge De Bolt yesterday appointed J. Louis Horner stenographer for the First Circuit Court to succeed Mrs. Clare Webster, resigned. Mr. Horner has been up to the present time engaged as stenographer for the firm of Kinney, Ballou & McClanahan. J. K. Hakuole was reappointed as Japanese interpreter.

COURT NOTES.

The case of Emmet May vs. L. K. Kentwell, also a Home Rule candidate, was continued indefinitely by Judge De Bolt, pending a settlement out of court. The suit is upon a promissory note for $35.70, given October 11, 1900.

A discontinuance has been filed in the case of Won Kee et al. vs. Wong Lung et al.

Motion to reopen the order of Judge Gear in the case of W. W. Dimond & Co. vs. The Orpheum Co. has been filed. Defendant alleges that the order was made while he was not in court.

Motion to advance the case of The Liverpool & London and Globe Insurance Co. vs. F. W. Macfarlane et al. Fire Commissioners, on the calendar, has been made in the Supreme Court by plaintiff. It is alleged that the public interest in the questions at issue requires an early hearing.

PLATFORM OF THE KUOKOA PARTY

The following planks will appear in the platform of the Kuokoa party, according to the Alakai, the leading paper of that party in yesterday's issue:

1. Against the importation of lepers from the mainland to the Territory of Hawaii.
2. Hawaiian boys to be educated as doctors in foreign lands.
3. County and municipal government.
4. Eight hours to constitute a day's labor.
5. Settlement of fire claims.
6. Limiting the power of the Board of Health.
7. Abolish the law regarding "suspect lepers."
8. Manual training school should be erected.
9. Continuation of the Queen's allowance.
10. Abolish vaccination of children.

YOU MUST REGISTER IF YOU EXPECT TO VOTE. A FORMER REGISTRY DOES NOT COUNT.

Like the sword of Damocles, glasses hang—always and ever—over the heads and minds of some people.

The Syracusan's dread of the sword suspended by but a single hair, was no greater than the dread with which some people approach the day when they must needs, in the economy of Nature, resort to eyeglasses or spectacles.

Why be so foolish? Do you not know you do great injury to your eyes, your nervous system, and consequently, your general health, by such procrastination?

At the first plea of your eyes for aid, come our way. We fit glasses to correct all eye defects and relieve strain.
