SENATORS AT WORK

Active work in the investigation of the executive departments of the government was begun Saturday by several of the committees which have such matters in charge for the Senate, and will be continued with as great speed as is consistent with care. Not a department of the government will escape the searching eye of the legislators and their experts.

When the Senate meets at 10 o'clock this morning there will be before it two important matters. The committee which was named to wait upon the Governor, was sent to him again to see if there were further messages, and it is understood that it will report that there will be communications, bearing upon other matters, at once. It is also understood that the President of the Senate will change the committee on Attorney General's department, by naming some Senator now in the city to act as chairman, instead of Senator Brown, who did not return in the Zealandia, but instead sent word that he would be back in the Ventura, which is due Wednesday of next week.

During the session of Saturday after the resignation of Senator Woods from the Committee on Public Instruction, Senator Nakapahu was appointed to fill the vacancy. A communication from H. C. Austin was read, in which he declared that he had not had a trial on the charges against him, that he believed there should be no action until he had been confronted with the charges and witnesses, with the privilege of cross examination, and the making of a defense. He said that he was advised that in no other way could he be legally removed from office.

There was some debate, some Senators holding that the communication if received, would be a recognition of Austin as Auditor, but it was finally referred to the committee on the Auditor's office. The sending of the committee, consisting of Senators Baldwin, Achi and Kalauokalani, to see the governor, completed the day's business.

CHURCH GOING IN THE PAST

Rev. George Pearson of the Methodist church spoke last evening on the question, "Is the Church Losing the Interest and Support of the People?" He said that all who may attempt to answer this question are in danger of basing their reasoning on too limited observation. Careful observation over a long period of time discloses that the Church begins the new century with a larger relative hold upon the affection and interest of the people than at the beginning of the last. Some one has said that it is a Yankee trait to sigh for the "good old days," to think that all was peace, that men were like brothers, that politics were pure, governments righteous and the churches enjoyed the confidence and support of all, but history shows an altogether different state of affairs. The last century has been the best for the church. There have been mighty strides in the arts and industries, in mechanics and sciences but the progress of the church has been second to none.

Wedding Luau at Lahaina.

LAHAINA, Nov. 20.—The daintiest luau and most successful dance ever held in Lahaina was given by Mr. Arthur Waal at the Pioneer Hotel in celebration of his wedding to Miss Frieda Bortfeld.

No better proof could be had of the high esteem in which the genial postmaster is held by the residents of Lahaina. Everybody who could turned out, and over seventy persons sat down to a most sumptuous repast arranged and provided by Mine Host Freedland.

Mr. Velesen had charge of the dancing and great credit is due to him for the splendid manner in which he discharged his duty.

Mr. Geo. Freedland, manager of the Pioneer Hotel, has proven without a doubt there is not his equal in Lahaina for arranging and running any kind of a function, and all Mr. Waal's friends left at an early hour in the morning, wishing him and his young bride all possible happiness.

A SUBSCRIBER.

An Important Alliance.
LONDON, November 15.—The Evening News announces that the Crown Prince of Siam, Chowa Maha Vajiravudh, is engaged to marry the eldest daughter of the Emperor of Japan. The Princess is 14 years of age.

The officials of the Siamese legation here informed a representative of the Associated Press that the report of the Crown Prince's engagement is unfounded. As, however, considerable political importance would attach to such a marriage, a diplomatic denial would naturally be forthcoming, were the announcement made before all the details were fully arranged.

Maul Notes.

A train has been hauled from Kahului to Wailuku by the use of fuel oil. There is a saving of 25 per cent in fuel.

The storm did considerable damage on the Lanai side of Maui. The heaviest blow was between Olowalu and the pali.

Edgar Morton has been made deputy sheriff at Makawao.

Eggs are remarkably scarce on Maui. Home Rulers and Democrats are agitating fusion.

The Loot of Estates.

The report that Lawyer Fitch was allowed $1,250 out of Becky Panee's estate for attempting to oust Guardian Magoon, and that Lawyer Magoon was allowed $1,250 out of Becky Panee's estate for successfully resisting Lawyer Fitch's attempt to oust Guardian Magoon is pitiful, if true. If such things be the legislature should throw such safeguards around the estates of incompetents as will, in future, prevent their being looted by legal boxers and foreign allies.—Maul News.
