WRIGHT IS IN MEXICO

He Was Seen There Within a Month.

Said to Be Living on Money Borrowed Here.

Extradition Papers in San Francisco But no Effort Made to Capture Absconder.

William H. Wright, former Territorial Treasurer who left Honolulu last September quite suddenly and leaving a shortage of about $18,000, has been located. He is reported to have been seen in a small town in Southern Mexico less than a month ago, by a former resident of the city. He is not employed at present, according to the information received in this city, but is living as best he can off the money he was able to obtain just prior to his hurried departure on the Alameda.

Though Treasurer Wright is alleged to have embezzled about $18,000 of the money belonging to the Territory of Hawaii, or rather from the Chinese fund, yet it does not appear that he carried away with him any of his ill-gotten gains. The I. O. U. left by the defaulting treasurer was placed in his private safe about a month prior to his flight, and if it had been his intention to take more, there was in the neighborhood of $50,000 still remaining in the safe, which he might have carried away just as easily as not.

It is said though that Wright did obtain some money, several thousand dollars, just before his leaving, as a loan upon the real estate he owned in the city.

The search made for him was not very thorough. Officer McDuffie went to San Francisco on the steamer following the Alameda, but Wright had nearly a week's start, and though he was detained in Quarantine for several days, McDuffie did not locate him. At that time he was supposed to have taken a train for the South, and it was currently reported that he could be found in Mexico though no search in that direction was made. The information lately received here is that he is in a small town in Southern Mexico and evidently making but little efforts to conceal his identity. It is supposed that some of his friends and all of his relatives know just exactly where he is, though there has been no attempt to trace him through his family. Mrs. Wright and her children are still in the city and living at their Emma street home.

Attorney General Dole stated yesterday that he had received no information as to the whereabouts of the missing treasurer and that nothing was being done towards finding him. The extradition papers which were secured within a short time after his escape, were said by Mr. Dole to be still in the hands of the San Francisco police, though copies of the papers were brought back by Officer McDuffie. The lack of interest being taken by the San Francisco police in Wright's whereabouts is easily accounted for. No reward was offered for his capture and there has been no offer of expenses, so that it is not probable that the San Francisco police would exert themselves much, even though the treasurer was in that city.

The failure to offer a reward is accounted for by the Attorney General by the lack of an appropriation for that purpose. Though the money could be taken out of the general expense fund, it would leave that appropriation insufficient to cover the remainder of the biennial period. If Wright is really wanted by the authorities the legislature will probably be asked to make an appropriation for the offering of a reward and the expenses of his recapture.

EDINGS FILES A DEMURRER

A demurrer was filed yesterday on behalf of Judge Edings in the matter of the writ of certiorari in the Kona Sugar Co. case.

The demurrer sets out that there has been a misjoinder of parties and that other defendants should have been named in the application of Jacob Cooper. Further points of demurrer set out are:

"It is impossible to tell from the said petition whether the said writ of certiorari of the Third Judicial Circuit of the Territory of Hawaii, or against the Judge of said court.

"It appears upon the face of the said petition that petitioner was not and is not a party to the proceedings which he seeks to have reviewed by the writ of certiorari.

"It does not appear from the petition herein that the petitioner has applied to the Kona Sugar Company, Limited, or the stockholders thereof or to the Board of Directors thereof, to invoke any proceedings against the grievances complained of.

"It does not appear from the said petition that any application has been made to the Honorable Judge of the Circuit Court of the Third Judicial Circuit of the Territory of Hawaii, or the Chambers, for relief against, or the redress of the grievances complained of in the petition herein.

"It appears on the face of the petition herein that the petitioner has been guilty of inexcusable laches.

"It is impossible to tell from the said petition whether the same is a petition for a writ of certiorari or a petition for a writ of prohibition."
