DWARFS IN HER CARGO

America Maru Carries a Hindoo Circus Aggregation.

Dwarfs, Hindoos, elephants, lions, tigers, horses, parrots and parquets formed an interesting part of the cargo of the steamship America Maru which arrived in port last evening at 7:10 o'clock from San Francisco en route to the Orient.

Among the passengers aboard are: Adolph and H. C. Cheek, well known in Honolulu, who go to Siam to look up the estate of their father and to engage in business in the land of the sacred white elephant.

The Sailors' Home will round fifty years of existence next year, the trustees of the institution voting at the adjourned annual meeting held yesterday morning to make the effort to keep the Home going for at least another twelve months.

The trustees discussed the matter at some length but all agreed that the Home was a necessary feature of the port and it was voted unanimously that the Home be continued for at least another year.

utive committee, W. W. Hall, chairman; C. L. Wight and Henry Waterhouse.

In the year 1854 the Sailors' Home was established and has in past years met a necessary want in the community owing to the large number of sailing vessels visiting here.

Remarking Buoys.

The buoys and piles marking the harbor entrance are being changed to conform to the United States standard for markings. The mid-channel buoy will be painted black and red in vertical stripes.

A SMALL POX CASE ON SATURDAY

The yellow flag flew at the foremast-head of the United States Naval Collier Saturn yesterday morning when that vessel entered the harbor and anchored in Naval Row.

The man, who is a sailor, boarded the vessel at Hongkong just prior to her departure for San Francisco on March 5. Two days later his malady broke out and he has been sick ever since.

The remainder of the ship's complement of officers and crew has been free from ailment. The vessel arrived here with only 150 tons of coal.

MRS. KENNEDY WAS DEMENTED

SAN FRANCISCO, March 25.—A young woman giving her name as Sarah McKenlerly was taken to the Receiving Hospital for the Insane from the steamship Ventura yesterday afternoon.

She was a second-cabin passenger from Honolulu, and her name appears on the list as Mrs. M. J. Kennedy and child. She is between 25 and 30 years of age.

Shipping Notes.
