CARTER'S OFFICE LOSES NEW MAN FOR IMMIGRATION

Secretary Target for the Mild Attack of the Resolution Makers.

Time Official Patronage Is Placed Elsewhere—Many Salaries Are Raised and Expenses Approved.

For a moment or two yesterday there was a considerable portion of the membership of the lower House of the Legislature which did not understand the strategy of the majority, which voted down, on second reading, the Six Months' Salary bill. But they were not in the dark. The attack was on Secretary George Carter, whose office had been given an official to look after immigration and licensing. This was undone and the same officer was placed under the treasurer's department. The work of putting through the Salary bill had been arduous and took little time for the measure to be completed, once that had been landed home. There were a number of charges, the majority of many officers being raised. To finish up its work the House then took up the Eighteen Months' Expense bill, gave it its changes and then sent it to a stage where it may be passed at a reading tomorrow, as the recapitulation could not be completed for second passage last evening. The Senate did little, and there will now be attention given to the measures right away, so as to finish up the labors of the session, which only nine days remain.

IN THE HOUSE:

House began business with the Honorable Superintendent Cooper acting as the resolution passed with reference to his continuance in office and the notification from the Senate of the adoption of the same. Mr. Harris in his letter: Honolulu, T. H., June 30, 1903. I ask you to convey to the Honorable W. Beckley, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Honolulu, T. H., my sincere appreciation of his passing House Resolution No. 10, and I assure you that I will carry out to the best of my ability the provisions of the appropriation bills which the Legislature passed for the benefit of the Territory.

Respectfully yours,
HENRY E. COOPER,
Superintendent of Public Works.

SALARIES ADVANCED.
The House moved to amend the salary of the Superintendent of the Waialua District to $600 instead of $450 to which the House agreed. Aylett had the tappers changed so as to a tapper at $540 an assistant and two helpers at $480. It was moved that the salary of the Survey Department be $1,200, Fernandez objected but Kanoho moved to give the first assistant $1,000, the second $800, and that the third be $600. After a debate of the House first and it reconsidered the vote on the Kaula sheriff and the salary of Coney was put at $1050.

BOARD OF HEALTH CLERK.
Kumalae moved to insert the item, Clerk to the Board of Health, stricken out on second reading, and fix the salary at $600. The House agreed to the amendment.

Harris had inserted in the item of Bailiff for Circuit Court, the words "to be appointed by the judge of the court in which they are employed."

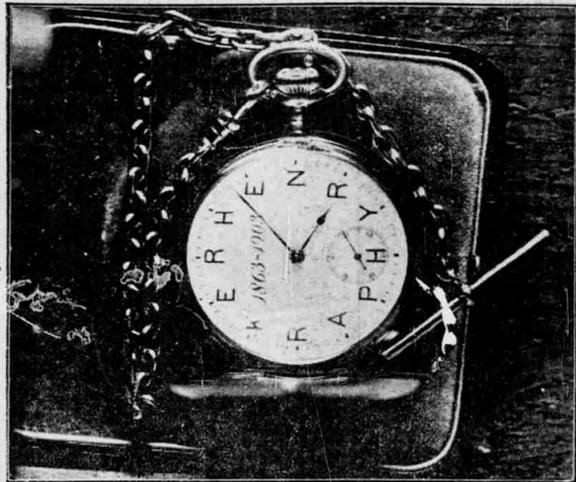

Kupieha presented an amendment to make the pay of the Deputy Sheriff of Ewa $900, saying that the Waialua district had been wiped out and the man had two districts to look after. Harris called attention to the fact that this was more than any other deputy sheriff was getting, and asked who was the deputy.

FERNANDEZ AND PREJUDICE

Fernandez made the point that men were getting $150 a month in Honolulu as captains of police and he demanded fair play, saying there should not be discrimination against a Kanaka.

FORTY YEARS PASTOR OF KAWAIAHAO CHURCH

FACE OF PARKER PRESENTATION WATCH.

The Rev. H. H. Parker Receives an Ovation and Gifts on His Remarkable Anniversary in the "Old Stone Church."

Kawaiaha'o church was well filled yesterday evening for the celebration of the fortieth anniversary of the pastorate of the Rev. Henry H. Parker over the flock worshipping in that historic edifice—"The Old Stone Church." A majority of the assembly consisted of native Hawaiians, well known people of the English-speaking churches in the Evangelical Union being scattered among them.

The decorations were beautifully tasteful. Over the front of the great organ was the legend in golden letters, "Forty years Kahu Aloha," upon pendant American and Hawaiian flags drawn aside clear of the keyboard. Hawaiian flags were draped over the ornamental partitions flanking the organ. Large stands of ferns and flowers were placed upon either end of the organ loft railing, that itself being draped from end to end with festoons of flags and wreaths. The platform was a flower garden, its occupants being almost hidden behind immense clusters of flowers and potted plants.

Representative Jonah Kumalae presided and with him on the platform were the active participants in the order of exercises, including of course the veteran pastor of two score years' incumbency. The chairman introduced each item on the program with appropriate remarks. It need not be said, for any who are acquainted at all with Kawaiaha'o church, that the singing throughout was nothing short of magnificent. The heartiness with which the congregation joined voices to those of the choir was inspiring.

Rev. S. W. Kekuwa, after the singing of a hymn, offered the opening prayer.

Frank K. Archer delivered an address on the pastor's life in Hawaiian, which evoked subdued echoes of approbation together with gentle ripples of laughter.

E. K. Liliikalani read a number of letters of congratulation to Mr. Parker from town and country, and, interspersed with hymns, there were addresses by the Rev. W. N. Lono and the Rev. E. S. Timoteo in Hawaiian, and the Rev. O. P. Emerson and W. R. Castle in English.

The Rev. O. P. Emerson spoke as substitute for P. C. Jones, who was unavoidably detained from the meeting. He began with a reference to the proverb that a prophet is not without honor save in his own country and among his own kindred, which did not have application to Mr. Parker's position as the pastor of that congregation for forty years—though the speaker thought Mr. Parker was not born in Hawaii but in the Marquesas. A tender allusion was made to the venerable

CLASS DINNER OF PUNAHOU

The Senior Class of Punahou closed its commencement week exercises last evening by a dinner for the class at the Moana Hotel and later in the evening a dance in the main dining room. The dinner began at 6:30 and beside the Senior Class, President and Mrs. Griffiths were seated at the table. At 9:30 the class repaired to the main dining room where the guests invited to the ball were already assembled. A grand march took place before the opening dance, after which the young folks enjoyed themselves until the early hours of morning. The dance was more for the younger element, but in spite of this there were many grown folks on the floor, and friends and relatives of the students were there as spectators.

Word was received here yesterday that the Alameda reached San Francisco yesterday at noon. She made the trip in six days.

The Solace is expected to get away for Guam and Manila this morning at five o'clock. A sailor who was seasick all the way down from San Francisco was left behind. He will probably be returned to the Coast.
