

EVERYTHING THERE BUT THE VOUCHERS

Solomon Meheula, clerk of the House of Representatives, yesterday sent what purported to be the seasonal records of that body to George R. Carter, Secretary of the Territory. The only thing Secretary Carter sees of the matter, however, is a polished wooden chest with brass mountings resting upon the floor opposite his desk. This receptacle of something as yet unknown to the Secretary is locked and Clerk Meheula forgot to send or bring the key.

It can be said on good authority that if the records are in the chest they are lacking of the vouchers of House expenses whose fate has been much discussed. What the Secretary of the Territory may do about this absence of the vouchers remains to be seen. There is a Federal law making it a serious offense to destroy any public document and there is good reason to believe that if the House vouchers are not produced before Judge Estee comes to charge the grand jury of the United States District Court some weighty instructions to that body in the matter will be delivered.

VIDA'S SALOON CLOSED BY SHERIFF

The California Saloon, of which Representative Henry C. Vida is the proprietor, was taken possession of by High Sheriff Brown yesterday on foreclosure of mortgage held by W. C. Peacock & Co.

Suit for foreclosure was begun by Peacock & Co. against H. C. Vida and Emma W. Vida. The amount claimed by the plaintiff is $4,909.29 with interest. The court is asked to appoint a receiver to take possession of the property and to order it sold. It is further alleged that the property in the saloon is inadequate to cover the amount of the indebtedness.

An affidavit made by J. G. Rothwell, treasurer of the plaintiff company, says that: "The said mortgaged property is not worth more than $2500, that the said Henry C. Vida has failed to pay the license fee required by the treasurer of the Territory of Hawaii to conduct the business on the said mortgaged premises; that the said H. C. Vida has failed to pay said license fee or make any provision for the payment of the same; that the said treasurer has threatened to close said business conducted upon said premises unless said license fee is immediately paid; that the said H. C. Vida, the defendant named in said petition has declined to pay aforesaid indebtedness and seems financially able to do so; that great waste and injury threatens the security of the petitioner named in said mortgage."
