BALDNESS

is the result of a diseased scalp.
Nine times out of ten it is dandruff. At first the hair falls very little, but gradually continues until one spot is bald, then follows baldness.

Pacheco's Dandruff Killer applied at the beginning would have saved the hair, by cleansing the scalp, removing the dandruff, keeping the scalp in a healthy state, and the hair firm at the roots. A few days use will prove its virtue.

GALLOWNS ON WHICH TANBARA WAS HANGED.

off, but the bands about his hands prevented this.

"AMEN" THE SIGNAL.

As Rev. Motokawa said "Amen," Warden Henry gave the signal to the three guards in waiting and almost upon the instant the trap was sprung.
Tanbara dropped a distance of four feet. There was no external sign of life from that moment, though the physicians did not pronounce life extinct until fourteen minutes later.
Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth, who timed the hanging, caught the minute the trap was sprung as 12:31:46. Immediately Dr. Moore, the prison physician, and Dr. Holt and Dr. Wilson, of the Marine Hospital Service, began the examination of the body for signs of life.
Dr. Burgess, Dr. Hoffman and Dr.
Hodgins also assisted, as did the Japanese doctors, Mori, Oyama, Haida and Mitamura. The pulsation rose in the body immediately after the drop and reached 190 a minute. Fourteen minutes later the physicians pronounced Tanbara dead, and Marshal Hendry entered the time in the official record at 12:45. It was five minutes later before the body was cut down and given over to the care of the undertaker.

THE FUNERAL.

The body was later given over to the possession of Rev. Mr. Motokawa and taken to the Japanese Christian church on Kukui street near St. Louis College. The burial service was read by Mr. Motokawa and was quite brief.
There were but few Japanese present and no display of any kind. The body was then taken to the Japanese plot in the Makiki cemetery and buried.

FERRIS WAS SCARED.

George Ferris, who occupied the cell next to that of Tanbara, did not relish the proceedings at all. He heard the reading of the death warrant by Marshal Hendry and did not seem to like it. He is under sentence of death but it is said that the Governor will commute this to life imprisonment.

The gallows was tried on another Japanese in the morning, but the farce was not carried through to completion. This was just to give the guards a chance to see how it worked.

THE CRIME.

The crime for which Tanbara suffered death was the murder of Captain Jorgen J. Jacobsen of the schooner Fred J. Wood. The captain had his wife and two children with him at the time. The deed was committed with a knife. Witnesses at the trial testified that the captain went below to awaken the cabin boy, and as he started to leave he was attacked by Tanbara with a large bread knife taken from the kitchen table. He was stabbed in the groin and died almost instantly. Later First Mate Meyer held a trial of the murderer and he was found guilty and the cook, Ohto, was adjudged an accomplice. The murder occurred early on the morning of July 31st and the Fred J. Wood put in Honolulu on the afternoon of August 5th. She was on her way from Portland to China.

Tanbara and Ohto had both been confined in the hold, and their clothes were still bloody. The trial and conviction followed in short order and Tanbara was sentenced to be hanged on December 26th. On Christmas Day

Governor Dole telegraphed a reprieve from Hawaii, in order to allow an appeal, but the Japanese took no further action. President Roosevelt later extended the reprieve to noon of August 14th and the execution took place as soon as possible after the reprieve expired.

CROWD SAW THE HANGING.

A large crowd witnessed the execution. Those who couldn't get tickets of admission watched from the outside. A line of carriages extended along the entire Waikiki end of the prison wall. There were several hundred people outside, and they could just see the top of Tanbara's head before the drop fell. There were a few ladies in that crowd outside. Inside were probably four score men, nearly all of them federal and police officials.
Many Territorial officials were also present. A line of guards was drawn up just in front of the scaffold and as Tanbara walked upon the platform, the guards who were armed with rifles, were called to "attention."

Delegate Kuhio, Representative Vida, Insurance Commissioner Holt, Assistant Postmaster Kenaka, L. H. Dee, Deputy Collector Couzens, Deputy United States Clerk Hatch, Sheriff Chillingworth, H. M. Dow, United States Attorney Breckons, H. A. Bigelow and many others were inside the prison yard. All were admitted on tickets, which were first examined by the jailer, and marshal. C. H. Brown was the only member of the jury which found Tanbara guilty who was present.

All the arrangements for the execution were perfect and every detail was carried through without a hitch.

AUTONOMY WOULD BE BAD FOR NATIVES

The native Hawaiians don't know a good thing when they have it. They are going to petition congress to restore the islands their former independence.

The funny thing about the decision is that the natives have more home rule now than they have had since the native dynasty was deposed by revolution. Under the independent government that existed between that time and annexation the native didn't count very much or very often in government affairs. The English-speaking people of the islands, English and American, ran things to suit themselves. Annexation, by enfranchising the natives, gave them more power as a body than they had under the Dole government and more power as individuals than they had under their queen. But a taste of popular government has made their heads swim.
They now foolishly ask for a severance of the relation that has given them such unwanted power in their own land. They do not seem to realize that if independence were restored to Hawaii tomorrow, the natives would be kicked out of power the day after by the people of the dominant race.

Independence is a good thing, but the United States is not in the business of creating independent states for the benefit of oligarchies in Hawaii or of dictators in the Philippines.
Hawaii is in no sense a nation. The kanakas are only a third of the population or less. The cannish Japanese and Chinese have no Hawaiian patriotism. The dominant people of the islands are warmly attached to the American connection. The native Hawaiians will save themselves a good deal of trouble during the remaining years of their decrease and degeneration if they will stop finding fault with the only form of government possible for them in which they will have anything to say.—Minneapolis Tribune.

YES OR NO?

Honolulu People Are Respectfully Asked to Answer These Questions.

Is there anything in the evidence of one's senses?

Is there anything in the testimony of one's friends?

Can reliance be placed upon statements from people we know?

Are the opinions of local citizens of any greater moment than those of strangers?

Would you sooner believe people living in some far-away place than residents of your own city?

We think not! For home proof can easily be investigated.

Mr. W. J. Maxwell of this town, Territorial officer, writes thus: "I suffered with a horrible pain in the small of my back (an almost invariable symptom of kidney trouble) for a number of years. I was advised to take some of Doan's Backache Kidney Pills, and following the suggestion, I went to the Hollister Drug Co.'s store, Fort street, and got some of these. Having taken them, they relieved me straight away, and are, I may say, the best and in fact the only cure for backache. I have mentioned the virtue of this wonderful remedy to several persons, among whom is my friend, Mr. Frank Metcalf, who found relief, and he is now a firm believer in Doan's Backache Kidney Pills."

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are sold by all chemists and storekeepers at 50 cents per box, six boxes $2.50, or will be mailed on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Honolulu, wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

A Conductor's Baton Lost.

In our advertisement columns appears a notice of a missing music conductor's baton belonging to Mr. Thomas Roin Walker, for many years a leader in musical circles here.

The baton is valued very highly by Mr. Walker, as it was presented to him by a local glee club, of which he was conductor. Mr. Walker thinks it possible that one of the many musicians to whom he from time to time lent it may have omitted to return it when the owner left the Islands to live in England. Messrs. Theo. H. Davies & Co., Ltd., will be glad for any information concerning the missing article.

"ME AND GLUE"

If there is anything in the world that is sticky, it is glue. Now, glue is made of a combination of "things" the principle ingredient being cow's hoofs. Everyone knows that all cows were calves once and of course behaved as a good little calf should behave.

Now men—s me men—have been what is called the "human calf" and also have behaved as a good little human calf should behave. Both calves kick. They kick because something lights on them when they least expect it and then they try to kick it into eternal quietude—and they land against nothing but the wide expanse of atmosphere.

Let the "human calves" kick up just because the Douglas Patent Closet sells for $25.50, is guaranteed, and is sold, not kept. The product of the calf's foot (the real calf's foot) is a sticker; so is the Douglas. Hence, "me and glue!"

Lumbago 30 Years

A Remarkable Cure Performed by Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt.

Dr. McLAUGHLIN—Dear Sir: I suffered from lumbago pains and sciatica for 30 years before using your Electrical Treatment, and in two months your wonderful Belt entirely cured me. Appreciating the excellence of your method, I am, yours truly, HUGH FRASER, 219 1/2 Elm avenue, San Francisco.

And some people are content with pasting porous plasters on their backs to get the little relief they give. Lumbago is a condition which can be cured by Electricity as I apply it. I can tell you of hundreds of other cures.

My Belt pours a gentle, glowing heat into the back and cures it to stay cured.

A man recently told me that he had lumbago for twenty years, and it had never laid him up yet, though he felt badly at the time. He was carried from his work in a hack two days after, and was in bed when he sent for my belt. It cured him. Get it before you are laid up.
It will cure you quickly, and your trouble will never come back. Call and see it; or send for book of proof. Send this ad.
