Maui Home Rulers In a Peck of Trouble.

Citizens Meet to Talk Improvements With Cooper.

Republicans Elect Delegates to County Convention—Maui Has Lots of Sport.

MAUI, Sept. 5—The Home Rulers of Maui are in a quandary. They cannot find candidates possessing the requisite qualifications for their county ticket. It is simply a question of bonds. There are men enough and to spare who are most willing to serve their county but they cannot find responsible bondsmen. Hon. F. W. Beckley, who came to assist the Maulites, has left the island, so it is reported, in disgust. Senator D. Kalaoukalani still remains, strenuously attempting to straighten the tangled political threads.

The Home Rule convention opened on the third at the Wailuku skating rink and has had continuous session, day and evening, since then, most of the time behind closed doors. Their proposed slate up to date reads: "Only" Wm. White for sheriff, John Richardson for county attorney and Messrs. S. E. Kaiue, T. B. Lyons, Louis Kookoo and W. H. Cornwell, Jr., for supervisors. On dit—that Billy White, who is a schemer, suggests that the Home Rulers keep their nominations open until after the Republican convention, on the 14th.

It is rumored that several prominent Republicans have been already asked to run on the ticket: J. N. K. Keola for clerk, W. T. Robinson for assessor, J. K. Kahookole for surveyor and David Morton for auditor, but they have all refused to take the oath to the Home Rule party. It is stated that John Richardson and Thomas Clark, two well known Democrats, have joined the Home Rulers.

REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE.

Saturday afternoon and evening, AUG. 29th, Maui Republicans elected their first county delegates, who are to meet in convention at Wailuku on the 14th. Its membership is as follows: Precinct 2, Pukoo, Molokai, D. H. Kahaulaio, Judge Mahoe and Rev. Mr. Kaal; Precinct 3, Lahaina, Geo. Dunn, Alfred Hayselden and C. R. Lindsay; Precinct 4, Honokahau, R. C. Searle; Precinct 5, Lanai, Sol. Kahoolalahala; Precinct 6, Wailuku, J. W. Kalua, S. E. Keliinoi, D. Crowell, W. E. Saffrey, W. A. Bal, Geo. Cummings and John Kini; Precinct 7, Puunene, H. P. Baldwin, J. J. Walsh and W. B. Hardey; Precinct 8, Kihel, James Scott; Precinct 9, Makawao, David Morton and Geo. Copp; Precinct 10, Hamakua, H. A. Baldwin, D. C. Lindsay, S. E. Kalama, W. O. Aiken, Henry Robinson and J. H. Nui; Precinct 11, Huelo, W. E. K. Malikai; Precinct 12, Keanae, W. F. Pogue; Precinct 13, Hana, J. K. Iosepa, W. P. Hala, J. H. S. Kaleo, Geo. Cooper, E. M. Hanuna and M. Reuter; Precinct 14, Kipahulu, Messrs. Kanamu and Lui, and Precinct 15, Dr. J. H. Raymond.

COOPER ON MAUI.

Hon. H. E. Cooper, Superintendent of Public Works, arrived on Maui from Honolulu on the evening of the 1st. He stopped off at Lahaina and drove to Wailuku. At noon of the 2nd, a largely attended mass meeting of citizens irrespective of party was held in the Wailuku court house, to inform Mr. Cooper as to the needs of the district.

Speeches were made by Circuit Judge J. W. Kalua, Senator D. Kalaoukalani, Editor G. B. Robertson and others.

Mention was made of the grade of the Iao Valley road, McGregor's landing, the new county building, school house, the Maalaea-Lahaina road, of a chemical engine, etc. The gathering was presided over by Judge W. A. McKay.

The Superintendent of Public Works accompanied by his assistant, Mr. Silliman, spent Wednesday night in Makawao, and on Thursday drove through the Kula region to Kihel. Friday morning, the steamer Lehua picked him up at Kihel and conveyed him to Keawakapu, not far from Makena, where the new landing is to be constructed. Friday night, Mr. Cooper returned to Honolulu per steamer Kinau.

BASEBALL FEVER.

The American fever of baseball has struck Maui with great force. There are now clubs in Lahaina, Waikau, two in Wailuku, in Kihel, Kamaole (Kula), Makawao, Kahului, Paia, Hamakua, Pauwela, Keanae, Hana, and there may be others.

On Aug. 30th at Wells Park, Wailuku, Kahului was beaten by a picked team, 10 to 3. The regular game as scheduled was forfeited to Kahului by the Lahainas. At Makawao, the same day, Makawao vanquished Hamakua-poko, 28 to 25. At Kuau, the score stood: Paia 24, Violets of Pauwela 16. The record of the game at Keanae has not been learned.

POLO.

Saturday afternoon, August 29th, a fast polo game was played at Paia, the "Yellows" beating the "Reds" by the small score of 2 1/2 to 2 1/2. The Baldwin boys used for the first time "General Bumps," a roan gelding; "Cupitina," a bay mare, and "Perhaps," an iron gray gelding. Though these new ponies are speedy and played well, "Foxy Grandpa," the property of F. F. Baldwin, is still the best polo animal on Maui, if not in the Territory. Messrs. F. F. Baldwin, H. A. Baldwin, Geo. Wilbur, Fred Baldwin and C. C. Krumbhaar represented the "Yellows," and Messrs. L. von Tempsky, W. O. Aiken, D. T. Fleming, G. S. Aiken, Joe Taylor and Harold Castle, the "Reds."

PORTO RICAN RAID.

Last night, the 4th, Deputy Sheriff Edgar Morton with seven policemen scooped in twenty-one Porto Rican gamblers in the Hamakua-poko plantation camp. They were playing "three-card-monte," if you please, and were caught with money and knives on the table. Their principal weapon was a cane knife with an extremely sharp blade. There was no blood shed however, four were released on $10 bail.

STRAY NOTES.

Sheriff L. M. Baldwin of Wailuku, who has been very sick with bronchial pneumonia, is reported as much better, to the satisfaction of his many friends.

Wednesday evening, the 2nd, a most pleasurable dancing party was given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Aiken of Puuomalei, Makawao. The lanai within which the dancing took place was prettily decorated with bamboo foliage and brilliantly lighted with gasoline lamps. Rain prevented a large attendance but did not dampen the spirits of those present.

The September meeting of the Makawao Literary Society was held in Maunaloa Seminary, Paia, on the 4th. The program consisted of a most excellent exhibition of stereopticon pictures by Rev. Mr. Rice.

L. A. Thurston of Honolulu made a flying trip to Kihel and Haleakala Ranch this week.

Miss Allen is the new assistant teacher at the Kealahou (Kula) school.

Miss Hart of the Punahou Preparatory department is visiting in Makawao.

Miss Fisher of Ewa, who has been the guest of Mrs. D. B. Murdock of Paia for several weeks, returns home by today's steamer.

Friday morning a party of campers departed for Kailua, in vicinity of the large ditch. The party consisted of Mrs. Grace Waterhouse, Misses Edith and Sadie Alexander, Robertson, Eva Smith and Irene Aiken, Messrs. C. H. Dickey, G. S. Aiken and others. They will visit the camp of Surveyor Geo. Baldwin.

Surveyor Silliman of Honolulu who has been laying out the road up Iao Valley will remain on Maui for quite a time longer doing surveying for the Public Works Department.

Miss E. A. Babb, who is to reside at "Alexander House" and have charge of the Settlement work in Wailuku, arrived by Wednesday's steamer, as did also Mrs. C. C. Gossin, the new teacher at Maunaloa Seminary, Paia.

Miss Agnes Alexander of Honolulu is the guest of Mrs. D. B. Murdock of Paia.

Normal Instructor C. W. Baldwin is at his home in Haiku for a short time.

George Canavaro of Honolulu is visiting Harold Castle on Haleakala's slope.

W. H. Cornwell, Jr., of Wailuku, goes to Honolulu today summoned on account of the severe illness of his sister, Mrs. Braymer.

Weather: Rainy Wednesday, but dry the rest of the week.

NATIVES DREW THE COLOR LINE

The Republican Hawaiians of Wailuku who turned down the haoles and elected a straight Hawaiian ticket are not to be particularly censured for doing so, especially by the haoles themselves, because, after all, blood is thicker than water, and it was not a dislike for the haoles, but rather an aloha for their own race and kindred which prompted their actions. The main question for the haoles to consider is the personnel of the delegates and the class of men whom they favor for the county offices. If they are honestly seeking to select the right men for county offices, the haoles should encourage them by kindly counsel, and help them to understand that it is not the color of a man's skin but rather his qualities of mind and heart which should solely influence them in their choice of men to hold our county offices.—Maui News.

LANDO AT ANNAPOLIS

Hawaiian Naval Cadet Receives Cordial Reception.

Ellis Lando, Hawaii's representative in the United States Naval Academy, arrived at Annapolis over two weeks ago. A letter was received from the young cadet by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Lando, in the last mail from the coast.

Young Lando writes that he was given a cordial reception by the cadets already there. He was immediately put in the awkward squad, as is done with all new cadets, and at the time the letter was written had already begun receiving instructions in the various branches of study required of a naval officer.

In his letter Lando states that he is two months and more behind his classes, as he should have entered in June instead of in August. He would have been at Annapolis earlier but for a delay in receiving notification of his appointment. Excepting in the languages, Lando writes that he is getting along very well, the course at the High school not having taken in all the branches of study given him in the academy. As soon as he catches up with the class in which he should have started two months ago, Lando will have no trouble in the work at the Naval Academy.

Ellis Lando had only arrived at Annapolis, the day he wrote the letter received in the city by the Sierra, and will send a more complete account of life in the training school, after he has had time to become better acquainted with the regular routine of the academy.

LAHAINA NEWS IN MAUI PAPER

On Friday evening, August 28, the young men who took part in the recent entertainment at the Sacred Heart school were invited to Father Ulencsas's residence. Songs were sung, and Karl Roendahl contributed a piano solo. Refreshments were served, after appropriate remarks by the Rev. Father. Large medals were then given to Karl Roendahl, E. Dunn, B. Ricard, D. Espinda and A. Freitas. Smaller medals were awarded to Frank Nunes, Robert and Moses Tili. On the following evening medals were given to Count von Zedwitz and Mrs. Aalberg. The medals bore the following inscription: "For artistic services, 1903," and "Father Ulencsas's Catholic Mission, Lahaina."

There was a large attendance of friends at the funeral of Mrs. Opupele on Sunday afternoon. Several prominent members of the native lodge, Knights of Pythias, were present. The burial was at the Roman Catholic Cemetery.

Mrs. Wilkins is recovering from a painful disorder, affecting the right arm. A deep incision was necessary.

Edward Dunn has returned to his studies at St. Louis College, Honolulu.

Captain Lewis of the Salvation Army held his farewell service in Lahaina last week. He will take charge of a new district on the Island of Hawaii.

Sessions of the Sacred Heart school were resumed on August 17.

Maui News Notes.

The sentiment of the people of Wailuku is almost unanimous in favor of McGregor, instead of Maalaea Bay as a landing place for passengers.

The sentiment is beginning to crystallize on Maui that the honesty and ability of our proposed county officers is of more importance than their political affiliations.

With a driveway to the third crossing of Iao Valley and a good horse trail to the table lands, there would not be a more pleasant excursion trip on the Islands.

The two public roads leading from the Maalaea Bay road to the Waikapu church are in a deplorably bad condition, and need the immediate attention of the road board.

A cave-house at the summit of Haleakala would be just the thing—feasible.

Plover have begun to reappear on Maui, and will soon be abundant, fat and toothsome.

An eight-roomed brick or stone school house is promised for Wailuku in the near future.

Kahului reminds one these days of a summer resort after the boarders have all gone home.

The weather in Wailuku has been quite warm this week, with considerable rain up country.

The dengue has about disappeared from Wailuku, only one or two chronic cases being reported.

It would be a good thing if the macadamizing of the beach road were continued all the way to Kahului.—Maui News.
