JURISDICTION IS DECLINED

The Election Case Is Thrown Out of Court.

The Jones Murder Trial Develops Another Legal Point.

Various Judgments in Civil Suits. Appeals to Supreme Court. Jury for January.

The Supreme Court unanimously declines to take jurisdiction of the County Election contest. Its opinion, written by Chief Justice Frear, shows that the Organic Act repeals the provision of the old Hawaiian laws which referred contested elections to the Supreme Court. This is in accordance with a statement made by the Advertiser when this contest was threatened, which some men of legal wisdom were good enough to characterize as nonsense.

THE LAW DEFINED.
Following is the syllabus of decision: "In view of Secs. 454-455 of Act 31, Laws of 1903 (the County Act), which provide for contests of county elections in general by candidates and in Circuit Courts, such contests cannot be instituted by electors or in the Supreme Court."

"In Secs. 465-466 of said Act, which make 'all of the provisions of law' applicable to the first county election, those words refer to provisions of law other than those contained in that Act itself, and not to Secs. 454-455 of that Act, which provide for contests of county elections in general by candidates and in the Circuit Courts."

"Section 139 of the rules and regulations for holding elections was repealed by the Organic Act in so far as it made the decisions of Inspectors of Elections as to the validity of ballots subject to revision by the Supreme Court."

"Section 8 and following sections of Act 8 of the Laws of 1894-5 (C. L. Sec. 1902 et seq.) relating to contests of elections in the Supreme Court, related to legislative elections alone and were repealed by the Organic Act. 'The provisions of law which formerly gave to the Supreme Court jurisdiction in election cases, having been repealed, were not made applicable to the first county election by the provision of the County Act that 'all of the provisions of law' should be so applicable.

"In construing a doubtful statute, the court may take into consideration the title of the statute, the context, other statutes in pari materia and the circumstances under which the statute was enacted."

LESSEES PAY TAXES.
A unanimous opinion of the Supreme Court was rendered yesterday on a submission of facts in which Oahu Railway & Land Company was plaintiff, and Ewa Plantation Co. and Kahuku Plantation Co. were defendants. The question was whether the plantation companies as sub-lessees of the Campbell estate lands worked by them should pay the taxes on the lands. It is answered in the affirmative. With regard to the claim of defendants that if they were liable for the taxes their interests in the lands should be assessed separately, the court says the assessor is under no obligation to consider their agreements with the lessee but is responsible to the Territory for the assessment of the lands each as a whole. Justices Galbraith and Perry, with Circuit Judge De Bolt as substitute for Chief Justice Frear, disqualified, heard the case, Justice Perry being author of the decision.

JUDGMENTS BY ROBINSON.
Judge Robinson sustained the plea to jurisdiction and dismissed without prejudice the case of Cecil Brown vs. J. W. A. Redhouse. Plaintiff in person; C. W. Ashford for defendant.

In the case of J. H. Schnack vs. Dick Heleluhi et al., with O. R. & L. Co., garnishee, Judge Robinson gave judgment for plaintiff for $22, and in favor of defendants Willie and Daniel Heleluhi for their costs, the garnishee being discharged. J. A. Matthewman for plaintiff; C. F. Peterson for defendants and garnishee.

JURY FOR JANUARY.
Judge De Bolt has issued a venire to the High Sheriff for twenty-six jurors, returnable before him on January 18. The first two weeks of the January term he will hear jury-waived cases. The present jury in Judge De Bolt's court is excused until Monday next.

GRAND JURY.
The Territorial grand jury was in session yesterday. It was investigating criminal cases from the police department. Dr. Hubert Wood of Wai-alea was a witness in a Japanese homicide case. The House vouchers matter has not yet been taken up.

JONES MURDER TRIAL.
Witnesses called for the defense of Edward M. Jones yesterday included a number of his schoolmates, who testified to a morbid and sullen character displayed by him in boyhood. In the afternoon there was a legal contest over the admissibility of certain evidence, and witnesses were called upon the point in the absence of the jury.

APPEALS TAKEN.
The Bank of Hawaii, Ltd., by writ of error, appeals to the Supreme Court from Judge De Bolt's decision making the plaintiff liable as garnishee for the amount of judgment in Parke vs. Cathcart.

The defendant has appealed from the jury's verdict for the plaintiff in the suit of Henry Smith vs. Hamakua Mill Co., tried before Judge De Bolt.

DISCONTINUANCES.
The action to enforce materialman's lien of the A. Harrison Mill Co., Ltd., vs. F. M. Swamy and F. H. Redward has been discontinued.

Lewers & Cooke, Ltd., vs. J. W. Redhouse, a suit for $367.63, is discontinued.

Minnie Locke Jeffs has discontinued her divorce suit against Harold Jeffs.

PROBATE CASES.
Judge Robinson approved the master's report by M. T. Simonton on the second account of F. W. Macfarlane, trustee under the will of Adella Cornwell. The report found the account correct and recommended that it be allowed. Receipts were $9751.66 and payments $9782.95, leaving a balance of $31.29 due the trustee.

Frank C. Atherton, executor under the will of Dr. Alexander M. Atherton, has filed an inventory showing the value of the estate to be $23,848.04.

COURT NOTES.
Defendant in the suit of Wilmerding-Loewe Co. vs. Lawrence H. Dee has made an answer of general denial to the amended declaration of plaintiff. A suit to foreclose mortgage has been entered by the trustees of the estate of S. C. Allen against Jose G. Henriques. The woman importation case, the first jury trial before Judge Dole, is still on in the Federal court.

A CLEANLY AGE.

Twentieth Century Ideas Incline Toward Sanitation and Preventatives. Nowadays scientists believe that in cleanliness lies the secret of prevention of diseases.

To prevent a disease, remove the cause. Just as unclean habits breed many diseases, so careless habits will breed dandruff. Improper use of another's brushes, combs, etc., will surely cause dandruff, and, in time, will just as surely cause baldness.

It's microbial infection, nothing more nor less. Newbro's Herpicide kills the dandruff germ, and causes hair to grow luxuriantly. Herpicide is absolutely free from grease or other injurious substances.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.
