The test case brought into the Federal Court under the title of W. F. MacLellan, United States Treasury Agent, vs. Yee Wo Chan, to decide the ownership of fire claims money in the former's hands, was decided yesterday by Judge Dole in favor of the defendant, the opinion being rendered orally in favor of the defendant.

The decision was to the effect that the insurance companies which had interceded claims for a portion of the amount due Yee Wo Chan, had no right to enter claims, and the total amount, $15,000 was awarded to the defendant.

Notice of appeal was made by Attorney A. A. Wilder for the insurance company. It is probable that all other cases of the same nature numbering thirty-one all told, and involving some $50,000, will not be pressed until the appealed case is decided in the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals.

The money came from the fund of $1,000,000 appropriated by Congress for the relief of claimants against the Territorial government for property destroyed during the plague epidemic of 1899-1900. Treasury Agent MacLellan was sent from Washington to disburse the million dollars. He was stopped in this act by insurance companies who claimed their right to certain sums on the ground that they had been compelled to pay policies under circumstances which they believed to be illegal.

Judge Dole will file a written opinion later.

CASH PAYMENT WAS ONLY A DREAM

The case of H. E. Cooper vs. The Island Realty Company and Jos. A. Gilman dragged on in Judge Gear's court yesterday afternoon, Mr. Cooper being on the stand most of the time. Mr. Cooper outlined the transaction by which he turned over his Manoa Valley property to the Island Realty Company, in the initial stages of which he expected to receive $60,000 cash as part payment, but found it only a dream.

Mr. Cooper stated that he had given an option on the property to J. F. Morgan, the auctioneer. One day Mr. Morgan came to him with a check for $25,000. Mr. Chase, who organized the Island Realty Company and was its manager, came in at that time and said he was anxious to take over the prop-

DONE BY TRYING.

Nobody can tell what he can do till he tries. When a thing ought to be done the modern spirit moves us to keep working away at it until it is done. In the face of this idea the "impossible" vanishes. Where there's a will, there's a way. "If we could but rob cod liver oil of its sickening taste and smell and then combine it with two or three other ingredients we should possess the best remedy in the world for certain diseases that are now practically incurable." So said a famous English physician twenty-five years ago. "But it will never be done," he added. "You can no more turn cod liver oil into a palatable medicine, than you can turn the Codfish itself into a Bird of Paradise." Yet he lived to admit that in erty, and would pay cash. The proposition looked good to Mr. Cooper, the result being that Morgan and his $25,000 check were withdrawn and Chase substituted. The papers were drawn up. Chase said he had organized the company. Then the day that Chase was to hand over $50,000 as the agreed price for the land in cash, the remainder to be secured by mortgage, Chase came to Mr. Cooper and said he was sorry but he couldn't pay cash. The matter was finally wound up by the proffer and acceptance of notes, interest to be paid on May 11 and November 11 of each year. This was paid up by Mr. Gilman until last May when only a part was paid. Mr. Gilman had claimed that the taxes should be paid by Mr. Cooper. This controversial point precipitated the civil suit now in progress.

WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION the "impossible" had been accomplished. It is palatable as honey and contains all the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. This remedy is freed from the bad peculiarities Dr. Frothingham so detested, and it is precisely the splendid medicine he wished for. Use it freely and confidently for Hysteria, Wasting Complaints, Anemia, Blood Impurities, Asthma, and Throat and Lung Troubles. Dr. W. H. B. Aikins, Physician to Toronto General Hospital, says: "I am much pleased to state that the results from using Wampole's Preparation of Cod Liver Oil have been uniformly satisfactory; it appealed to me as being prepared according to correct scientific principles." It increases the appetite and influences the digestion of food; it is delicious to take, will not disappoint you, and is effective from the first dose. One bottle convinces. At all chemists.

PARKER SUES THE METROPOLITAN CO.

An assumpsit suit was filed yesterday by Col. Samuel Parker against the Metropolitan Meat Company to recover the sum of $26,252.39, which the plaintiff claims is due him as the residue funds of the partnership existing between himself and the late John P. Parker. The amount is alleged to be due for cattle and sheep delivered to the Metropolitan company between May 9 and June 18 of this year.

The Metropolitan Company, however, is not concerned in the matter except to the extent of who shall receive the money claimed. The company does not deny the existence of the claim. The suit is an outgrowth of the present Parker Ranch litigation in the Circuit Court.

COURT NOTE.

In the case of the Territory vs. Jack Morgan, seduction, the defendant is given twenty days from July 11 in which to file his bill of exceptions on appeal to the Supreme Court.

DISGUISED APANA CAUGHT GAMBLERS

Apana, the Chinese policeman, made a record for himself last night. He caught forty Chinese gambling in an upstairs room on Smith street. Although four doors and four watchmen barred his way a clever disguise gained him admittance and the jig was up. Apana, like other members of the raiding force at the police station, is now so well known that it is impossible for him to go anywhere, at night, in Chinatown undisguised without Chinese raising the cry of "cop." The Chinese have posted various men, whose business is to know by sight every known police officer and informer, to watch the entrance to gambling resorts and on the approach of the police raise the alarm in time.

Apana wore a native hat, a pair of black glasses, and a Chinese coat. Then he blacked his upper lip sufficiently to give the impression that he needed a shave badly, and started raiding. He passed four doors of the entrance to the Smith street resort and when in the gaming room watched the progress of the game for a moment or two before being recognized. Forty men were arrested and will be dealt with today by Judge Lindsay.

While station clerk McKinnon was making out bail receipts for the crowd, attorney C. C. Biting entered the crowd and announced that as the whole crowd were his clients he demanded that the police do not ill-treat them. Then he went outside again and made off on his horse.

PLANS READY FOR HILO'S SEWER SYSTEM

Plans for Hilo's sewer system are completed and work will shortly begin to lay the mains. The system will be laid upon Front, Waianuenu, Bridge, Shipman, Richardson and other streets in the lower portion of the town. The sum of $10,000 is available for the work.

WOULD HELP WOODS ESCAPE

W. J. Glenn, formerly a sailor on the training ship Adams, was tried and convicted in the police court yesterday morning on a charge of attempting to assist Fred Woods, the notorious negro convict of Oahu prison to escape from that institution. Glenn was serving a sentence there and it was proven he had written a letter which Woods was to use in securing assistance from someone on a transport in order to leave the country after making a dash from the Makiki quarries. Glenn had six months tacked on to his present sentence for the latest escapade and Woods will be carefully looked after by the zealous guards of the prison.

MISS KELLEY PASSES OUT*Efficient Clerk in the Secretary's Office Leaves.

Miss Kate Kelley, chief clerk in the office of the Secretary of the Territory, laid down her pen yesterday afternoon at the close of the day's business, and thereupon ended her long official career with the local government.

Acting Governor Atkinson addressed a letter to Miss Kelley in which he warmly thanked her for her past efforts, paying a high tribute to her clerical capacity and wished her success in whatever venture she undertook in the future.

Miss Kelley has been clerk in the same office for the past ten years, passing through the successive changes of government from the Provisional Government, Republic and lastly under the present form of Territorial government. She leaves for the Coast on the steamship China.

JOHN L. IN TAHITI.

Sullivan in Process of Deification Among South Sea Islanders.

"When I first went to Tahiti," said a traveller from the South Seas, "I landed on one of the remote islands. The first night I went in state to visit the chief.

"He was a fine old fellow, fully 6 feet 2 in. in height, and a man every inch of him. I happened to know people who had lived on his island for a time. Through an interpreter he asked me all kinds of questions about them—if they were well, if their hair was getting gray, how much money they had, etc. Then conversation languished.

"At length I heard him repeating to the interpreter a word that sounded like 'Yonelsulwan.' The interpreter seemed to catch it finally. He said: 'He wants to know how is John L. Sullivan? Is he fighting as hard as ever?'"

"Oh, no," I said truthfully. 'John L. Sullivan isn't champion any more. He was beaten by a big man from the West, and a man from the Big Islands beat that man, and another big man from the West beat him.'

"When this was told to the chief, he looked me all over and said something in a very positive tone.

"He tells me," said the interpreter, "that he doesn't believe you. He thinks you don't like John L. Sullivan." "Everywhere I went on the islands it was the same story. When they found that I was an American they all asked for John L.

"Some of them knew who was President of the United States, though most of them who had any ideas on the subject thought it was Cleveland. But every one thought he knew who was champion of the world. In several native huts I found little old-fashioned prints of the Boston boy.

"It appears that the Americans first began to come in numbers to the islands about the time when John L. was supposed to be unbeatable. These Americans introduced the boxing game. "It was a great hit. Every native wanted to learn. And when the Americans told of their great champion the natives took it all in and made him a tribal tradition.

"It's a study in the growth of legend, if they aren't killed off by clothes and consumption. I suppose they'll have him a kind of an Odin some day.

"Whenever an American beachcomber strikes those shores, he has to put on the gloves with the natives. If he can't beat them, they've no use for him.

"Luckily, the natives are about as poor with the gloves as they make'em. It doesn't take much of a beachcomber to whip the champion of Tahiti. That fact saves the faces of our countrymen."
