

THE HAWAIIAN GIGGLES WAS JUST PLAIN SAMBO

W. H. Ellis Who Claimed To Be a Rich Islander Got Accommodations In Hotels Which Do Not Receive Negroes.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 2.—W. H. Ellis, "Duke of America" and "The Hawaiian Monte Christo," who claims Col. Sam Parker as his friend and adviser, mentioned in a letter to the Advertiser several weeks ago during one of his visits to Washington, is no other than the W. H. Ellis who is causing such a furor over in Europe as he speeds on his way to deliver a treaty to King Menelik of Ethiopia. At the Raleigh Hotel, where Ellis has stopped and lived like a Prince when in Washington, it is said that he claims the intimate acquaintance of Col. Parker. The authorities have been looking up Ellis's antecedents and claim that he has no Hawaiian lineage whatever but is a full blooded negro, born of negro parents in Texas. If that be true, the hotel keepers of Washington have been grandly fooled for they would not furnish entertainment to a negro, however glad they have been to get the coin of Ellis on the supposition that he is an Hawaiian. Whether Ellis ever visited Hawaii is not known here and all of the people familiar with Hawaiian matters are now absent from Washington.

IMMIGRANT STATION.

The plans which Architect Traphagen prepared for the Immigrant Station at Honolulu met with the full approval of the Treasury Officials, who say today that work can be expected to begin on the structure about the middle of September. The advertisements for bids are already running in newspapers of Honolulu and San Francisco, according to the understanding at the Treasury Department. These bids will be forwarded in due season to the Department and the awards made.

"The preparations are going along very satisfactorily," said Executive Officer Charles E. Kemper, of the Architect's office. "We shall follow the usual plans for awarding the contract and authorizing the construction of the station. Mr. Traphagen's drawings for the station were entirely satisfactory. They were approved as drawn and we are certain that the station at Honolulu will be a very creditable one."

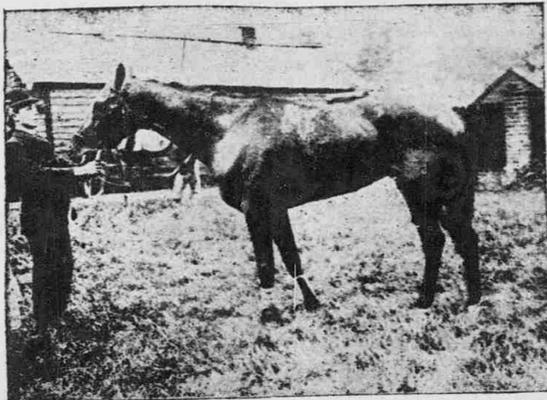

THE SUMMER EXODUS.

The hot summer season just now beginning has caused a large exodus from Washington and the annual dullness of July and August in the official world is at hand. President Roosevelt goes away tomorrow to Oyster Bay, for a little rest. It is given out that he intends to spend much of the heated term in Washington but that in part to direct the tide of politicians away from Oyster Bay and enable the President to make appointments to meet them in this city. It is difficult to journey to Oyster Bay because of the poor transportation facilities and the inadequate entertainment at hotels there. For that reason the President does not like to encourage people to visit Oyster Bay in any numbers and furthermore he feels entitled to some opportunity to rest.

The new cabinet members have settled down in their places and Former Secretary of the Department of Commerce Cortelyou, now Chairman of the National Committee, has gone away on a little vacation, prior to taking up the work of the National campaign. The change in Attorney General, a cabinet officer with which Hawaii has considerable to do, is regarded here as satisfactory to Hawaiian interests for Attorney General Moody, whose home is in Massachusetts, entertains a friendly attitude for the islands in the Pacific. Secretary of Commerce Metcalf, being a California man, naturally feels kindly towards the islands and can be trusted to look after the various Hawaiian matters coming before his bureau.

ROOSEVELT AHEAD.

It is not believed that the Democratic ticket can win. The support of Roosevelt is so strong among the masses that Democrats have little hope of winning any important states away from the Republicans with the possible exception of New York. The President and Chairman Cortelyou have been working strenuously to get all the Republican elements in that state lined up together this summer and they are succeeding well. The campaign in New York city is already well inaugurated, it being Gov. Odell's intention to begin fighting early and to fight right along through the hot summer. Political experts say that the chances of carrying New York are much better for the Republicans than is generally believed.

The attempts to make a personal campaign against Roosevelt, on the ground that he is an unsafe President, are not succeeding as well as the Democrats hoped. His wonderful luck defies all the tricks and schemes of the politicians.

The progress of the Democratic delegates from Hawaii across the continent to St. Louis has been widely heralded. Their instructions for Hearst will hardly help them to the confidence of the leading Democrats of the convention, whose favor in behalf of Hawaii might be desirable. They will hardly have the same opportunity to wield a good influence for the islands as did the Republican delegates at Chicago, who put in much of their spare time telling influential Republicans about the islands and what was needed there.

MATRIMONY FOR KNIGHT WHO PLAYED WITH ELKS

Local baseball men will recall R. B. Knight, the Stanford man who played last season with the Elks. Following is an account of his marriage from the San Diego Union:

Quite a little romance attended the wedding last Saturday at the Episcopal church at Hollywood, a suburb of Los Angeles. The parties were Miss Catharine Howard Vallentine of Coronado and Robert Bruce Knight of Henderson, Ky., where the old family plantation is one of the landmarks of the blue grass state. Miss Vallentine has been pursuing art studies at the College of Fine Arts at Garvanza, near Pasadena, while Mr. Knight was completing his law course at Stanford. The man and maid had been lovers long and friends were wondering when the day would be named. But love is ever impatient. Mr. Knight's mother at the old home, now that law studies were completed, claimed the son's return, and the result was the wedding at the pretty Hollywood church, whose rector was a life-long friend of the groom.

While not entirely unexpected the affair came as a surprise to their friends, who had planned cake and flowers for a later day. Mrs. Knight will spend a part of the summer at Coronado, as that was one of the conditions which her mother required when she gave her consent to the marriage.

Mr. Knight goes to Kentucky for a short time on business connected with his plantation.

Miss Vallentine, who is a beautiful and talented girl, has been a great favorite in social circles, although only a debutante and not yet graduated at the art school, where she has been one of the most gifted pupils, and her many friends will rejoice that she is to spend some time here ere she leaves for her Kentucky home. The groom, too, made many warm friends when here a couple of years ago, and is a splendid young fellow, a fine student and decidedly clever. The best wishes of hosts of friends are showered on the happy young people.

Dr. Evans, the American dentist, who achieved such success in Paris, once received, before he went abroad, a letter from a young Vermonter who wanted a set of false teeth made and sent to him. The letter concluded: "My mouth is three inches across, five-eighth inches threw the jaw. Some hummocky on the edge. Shaped like a hoss shew, toe forard. If you want me to be more particular I shall have to come thar."

THE "MEANEST MAN."

A low down trick was played by a riverfront man, with a small smattering of law, on his wife the other day, and it will probably be followed by others when the facts become known. This man's wife is a quiet little body, somewhat set in her ways. She does not believe in demonstrating her affection for her hubby, thinking that the knowledge that she loves him is sufficient for him.

He is affectionate, and loves her to the exclusion of any other woman. The little woman has a temper she is not at all averse to showing.

Last week there was a little spat, and she did not speak to him for several days. He was huffy, and did not try to make up, as he had always done, and determined to teach her a lesson.

One day this week he kissed the children goodby in a most demonstrative manner before leaving home after breakfast.

Going to his office, he drew up a bill of complaint for divorce, in which he said that he had lived with his wife a number of years, and that during all that time he had been a good, affectionate husband, and that, although he still loved his wife as the apple of his eye yet he did not believe she retained her affection for him.

As the vaudeville comedians say, he got "sloppy" in his bill, as he recited how much he loved his wife, and how the fact that occasionally when she became miffed at him for various little things she would not speak to him as a punishment. A messenger boy was hired to serve the bill of complaint.

When the wife got the declaration there was consternation. Never had Will missed his dinner before, and here was the reason.

There were tears aplenty, and soon a little woman was dressed for the street and a car was crawling too slowly downtown to Will's place of employment. He saw her and made for a secluded spot. She soon found him, and—well, there was a reconciliation with a demonstration of affection that satisfied him.

The mean fellow then told her that as she loved him so much he would withdraw the suit.—Washington Times.

The Official and Commercial Record fills a long felt want. Published Mondays and Thursdays.

FREE TO MEN, AND WOMEN, TOO!

Do you want to be a big, husky man, with vim and power in your every action, with courage, self-confidence and ambition to "do things"? Do you want to get rid of that feeling of gloom, that weakness in your back, that nervous, worn-out feeling which unfits you for business or pleasure?

Do you want to feel like a man all over, to hold up your head with the knowledge that you are the man that nature meant you to be?

I know that no man remains a weakling because he wants to. I am sure that you want to overcome every indication of early decay that has shown itself on you. I don't think the man lives who would not like to feel as big and strong as a Sandow, and I know that if you have a reasonable foundation to build upon I can make you a bigger man than you ever hoped to be. I want you to know that, you who can't believe it, and I want you to have my book in which I describe how I learned that strength was only electricity, and how I learned to restore it; also I want to tell you the names of some men who will tell you that when they came to me they were physical wrecks, and are now among the finest specimens of physical manhood.

I can do just as much for women as for men. I have thousands of letters from grateful women, who had spent years and money trying to get relief from drugs, and who came to me as a last resort and are cured now.

Why should you be suffering when you know that your friends and neighbors are being cured? Why, if money you spend for drugs in a few months, if invested in my treatment, will assure you health and happiness for life. Don't you believe it? Then send for this book with the proof that I can give you, and you will be convinced.

Don't wait a minute. Send for this book now. If you will inclose this ad. I will send it sealed, free, and will give you the names of your own neighbors who are cured. I will tell you whether I can cure you or not, if you will tell me your troubles.

Beer must be pure to be good; must be brewed only from the best materials; must be scientifically filtered, thoroughly aged, bottled at the brewery and sterilized after bottling. It must always be shipped in the bottle, for beer shipped in bulk and bottled at supply depots is sure to absorb impurities.

The Famous A.B.C. Beers

and free from all preservatives and chemicals used in other brands of bottled beers, which are injurious to the health. They are never sold in bulk—are the only beers bottled exclusively at the brewery. Made from the finest Bohemian hops, they are aged for months, then filtered and piped direct from the brewery vaults into bottles by means of hermetically closed filling machines. This prevents the beer from coming in contact with the outside air, and insures absolute freedom from bacteria. It also preserves its natural effervescence and zest.

Six Points of A.B.C. Excellence

- 1—Purity. We absolutely guarantee the purity of all our beers.
- 2—Flavor. This is the distinctive, individual characteristic of any beverage, peculiar to it alone, and is the quality that has made A. B. C. Bohemian Beer famous.
- 3—Brilliance, clearness and polish, proving perfect brewing and fermentation.
- 4—Clean Taste. No disagreeable foreign or aftertaste, proving scrupulous cleanliness during brewing process.
- 5—Keeping Quality. The most trying test for bottled beer. A. B. C. Bohemian will keep and retain all of its qualities under varying conditions.
- 6—Solid, Creamy Foam, denoting body age and excellence of brewing materials.
