

BLACKBERRIES FOR TANTALUS RIDGE

Dr. C. B. Cooper will shortly experiment with blackberries on his Tantalus premises, using plants that were brought here from the East by Gerrit P. Wilder. It is his intention to plant the blackberries in a gulch just below the cottage.

A growth of wild blackberries over the mountains, to take the place of lantana, would be a godsend. The blackberry bushes thrive well in the islands, Lunalilo Home being one of the locations in Honolulu where they do well.

Death of Mrs. Hillebrand.

A venerable member of the American missionary community passes in the death of Mrs. J. E. Hillebrand, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. C. Alexander, College Hills, on Sunday. Mrs. Hillebrand was a daughter of the late Rev. Artemus Bishop, one of the first band of missionaries coming here from New England about 84 years ago, and a brother of the Rev. Sereno E. Bishop, L.L.D., of this city. She was born at Kailua, Hawaii, 79 years ago. After some years spent abroad, she returned about a year ago to her native isles. Besides her brother and her daughter already named, she leaves another daughter, Miss Helen L. Hillebrand. Funeral services at 3 o'clock yesterday were conducted by the Rev. O. H. Gulick.

How He Celebrated.

A marine by the name of G. W. Hunt was arrested late last night on the charge of assault and battery on a native by the name of Huen. It seems that there is a sort of wine club in the vicinity of Punchbowl. Hither it is alleged Hunt wended his way on pleasure bent. During the celebration he offered some indignity to Huen's daughter and upon the old man's interference proceeded to lick that gentleman. This is the story told at police headquarters last night. Hunt will have a chance to tell his side in the Police Court this morning.

Lee Wai was arrested on the charge of violating the regulations of the Board of Health. Stake, a Japanese, and Ahia Maikai were taken in custody for having che fa tickets in their possession.
