Notable Consular Reception.

Hon. W. R. Hoare, retiring British Consul, introduced his successor, Hon. R. de B. Layard, to Acting Governor Atkinson in the executive chamber of the Capitol yesterday morning. Considerable ceremony was observed, the representatives of King Edward VII. appearing in full consular uniform. The Territorial band saluted the callers on entering the grounds with the tune of "God Save the King," and they were ushered upstairs from the front steps by Capt. Rose, N. G. H. Col. J. H. Fisher aided the Acting Governor in receiving Messrs. Hoare and Layard. Mr. Hoare evinced emotion on taking leave of the Acting Governor, the occasion signaling his retirement from the British consular service on a pension.

Camp McKinley Dance.

The Camp McKinley Social Club have completed arrangements for the second dance of the summer series to be given Wednesday evening July 27 at Camp McKinley, invitations having been issued by the club some days ago. Music will be furnished by a quartet of the Kawaihau Glee Club, Hawaii's leading singing orchestra. The manager of the H. R. T. & L. Co. has agreed to run the last two cars to make connections to all parts of the city. Conveyances will meet the cars at Kapiolani Park. The men from the Presidio Social Club are strangers as yet in Honolulu, but they are exerting every effort to make these social functions a success.

"To-morrow," said Scheherazade "we shall journey in mind across many seas to the beautiful city of St. Louis. The title of our story shall be, 'All Baba and the Forty Hotel-Keepers.'"—Life.
