DOG CHEWED UP TWO DOZEN BIBLES.

A dog with an appetite for sacred things chewed up twenty-four Bibles in Morton Chapel Methodist Episcopal Church in Jeffersonville, and George Yester was forced lately to purchase a new outfit for his Bible class.

Children's day was observed at the chapel, and during the exercises a dog followed one of the children into the place of worship. When the meeting closed the canine was asleep and the sexton locked the doors, not knowing of its existence. The building remained closed until the next day, and when the sexton opened the door the dog was occupying the pulpit, sound asleep.

Pieces of paper were scattered all over the auditorium and an investigation showed that twenty-four Bibles belonging to George Yester's class had been torn into fragments. The janitor is of a religious turn of mind, but he came near forgetting that fact and was on the point of saying things when he remembered where he was.—Louisville Herald.

Mrs. Henpeck—"This paper says that married women live longer than single ones." Mr. Henpeck—"Heavens, woman! Can't you think of something pleasant to talk about?"—Harper's Bazar.

WATERFRONT NEWS

CAPTAIN CAREY: RETIREMENT FROM ACTIVE SERVICE.

Captain Carey (of the Moana), Commodore of the Union Steamship Company's fleet, whose retirement was recently announced, after 28 years' service, was met by the directors on Tuesday, 21st of June, and presented with a handsome timepiece as a memento of his long connection with the company. The Hon. George M'Lean, chairman of directors, in making the presentation, referred to Capt. Carey's high qualities of courage and resource, while at the same time his unflinching courtesy and geniality of manner had made him deservedly popular with passengers.—Australian Exchange.

TWO VESSELS IN FROM COAST

About the only topic of conversation on the waterfront yesterday was the reported capture of the Korea. Knots of men gathered each man with a newspaper and discussed the news, speculating upon the results of Russia's action. This was the only thing that ruffled the calm of the front except the arrival of the barkentine W. H. Dimond and the ship Marion Chilcott. The former got in from San Francisco early in the day with a cargo of general merchandise. The latter vessel came in late in the afternoon with a big cargo of oil. Both vessels report good weather and uneventful voyages. After the arrival of these vessels there will probably be a long interval before any more deep sea ships arrive at this port. The Fort George, forty-two days out from Newcastle, may show up soon as she is a fast boat, although other ships have been taking a much longer time on this run. If the mail steamers are discontinued for a time the port will be very quiet for the next month.

Mail Boats Delayed.

Dispatches received in this city yesterday forecast a serious disturbance in the schedules of the Pacific Mail and Occidental and Oriental Steamship companies. The presence of the Vladivostok squadron off Yokohama has played havoc with the trans-Pacific service. The Siberia has been ordered held at Kobe for orders, the Gaelic is lying at Midway awaiting developments and the sailing of the Mongolia from San Francisco is reported to be delayed. The local agents of the companies report no advices further than those published but developments are awaited with interest.

Noeau Reported Ashore.

There was a rumor current last night to the effect that the Inter-Island boat Noeau had gone ashore at Anahola. The company's agents at this port denied all knowledge of the affair saying that they would have been notified by wireless if the accident had occurred.

THESE MEN HAVE FAITH

Honolulu's Future
Not Doubtful
To Them.

Organization of a New Building and Loan Association.

Starts With Five Hundred Shares
Subscribed For—The Personnel.

That there is a respectable sized remnant of citizens who still have faith in Honolulu's future has proof in the organization of a new building and loan institution, with a long-established local and a powerful San Francisco association of the same kind in the field. An application for a charter is about to be filed in the office of the Treasurer of the Territory by the Mutual Building and Loan Society, Limited, of Hawaii. Herewith are presented the list of charter officers and a digest of the leading features of the association:

James L. McLean, president.
J. A. Lyle, vice-president.
Richard H. Trent, secretary.
C. H. Cooke, treasurer.
Capital stock, $5,000, with privilege of increasing from time to time to $1,000,000.

Object—To aid its members in conserving and preserving their savings and increasing the same, and to assist them in acquiring and improving real estate and in other laudable enterprises, upon principles of strict mutual aid and equality of benefits and obligations. To loan money to its members upon such terms and conditions and on such security as may be provided by the by-laws of the Society and by its board of directors.

The Society has the right to cause its capital stock to be paid in on the basis of monthly installments or otherwise, and the management is to be vested in a board of not less than five nor more than fifteen directors, who shall be elected annually by the stockholders.

The Mutual Building and Loan Society starts in life with 500 shares of the par value of $100 per share subscribed for, on which monthly installments of one dollar per share are to be paid. Among the subscribers other than the officers above named are quite a number of leading business, professional and working men, some of the names being as follows: O. L. Sorenson, G. J. Waller, W. H. McInerney, C. T. Littlejohn, S. B. Rose, S. M. Kerns, J. Venhuizen, E. C. Peters, A. A. Wilder, D. T. Wayson, H. G. Young, K. R. G. Wallace, Chas. R. Roe, F. B. Angus, Geo. Angus, John A. Hughes, N. E. Gedge, James Gregory, J. F. Haglund, Chas. S. Crane, C. Crozier, C. W. Crandell, C. J. Day, M. G. Johnston, Julius Asch, J. B. Searle, M. P. Van Valkenberg, W. J. White.

SUMMER COMPLAINT is the children's most dangerous enemy and the mother's most dreaded foe. Immediate and proper treatment is always necessary. HAD HIM OFF ON TIME.

An aged Billville citizen engaged the town poet to write an obituary on a late friend of his, and the following was submitted:

"He left this world of sorrow
In another world to shine,
And reached the heavenly portals
Just as the clock struck 9."
"The only trouble about that," said the old man, "is that he didn't leave here till 12."—Atlanta Constitution.
