

Your Barber or Your Druggist?

If your hair is too long, go to your barber. He has the remedy—a pair of shears. If your hair is too short, go to your druggist. He has the remedy—a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor.

Ayer's Hair Vigor
Is a Hair Food.

It feeds the hair. The hair grows long and heavy because it gives to the hair just what it needs.

If your hair is turning gray, it shows there is lack of hair nourishment. Give your hair this hair-food and it will take on new life. Soon all the deep, rich color of youth will return to it.

We are sure you will be greatly pleased with Ayer's Hair Vigor as a hair-dressing. It makes the hair soft and smooth, and prevents splitting at the ends.

ONE COFFIN NOT ENOUGH

A Lunalilo Home Inmate's Will.

Various Cross Purposes Bunched in Parker Litigation.

Maile Gets Temporary Injunction Against Sale Under Execution For Taxes.

William O. Smith has petitioned for probate of the will of Hoopili Silva, in which he is named as executor. Petitioner does not know of any heirs at law or next of kin of decedent, her surviving. The estate is represented as of the value of about $4664, of which $2000 is in real estate.

Deceased was a resident at Lunalilo Home. Her will was made on May 31, 1899, and a codicil was appended to it on August 18, 1902. Then a codicil on a separate sheet of paper was executed on May 9, 1904. Mrs. Silva died on August 28, 1904. After the opening declaration identifying herself as "Hoopili Silva, now residing at Lunalilo Home, Honolulu, Oahu, and wife of Frank Silva, lately residing at Manoa, Oahu," and revoking all wills theretofore made by her, the testatrix gives the following funeral directions:

"I direct my executor to have two coffins provided for the burial of my body, an inner and outer coffin. And that carriages be provided for all of the inmates and persons residing at Lunalilo Home to ride in the procession following my remains to the place of burial."

She then devises and bequeaths as follows, after the payment of her debts and funeral expenses: To Manuel Rosa, $1000; to Kimeona Kepano, $500; to Waipa Kepano, $500; to Mrs. Maria J. Forbes and her son William J. Forbes all of the residue of her property, real or personal, in equal shares.

The first codicil revokes the legacy of $1000 to Manuel Rosa.

By the codicil of May 9, 1904, the former testaments are ratified in all respects save as they may be changed by the following directions:

She bequeaths to Willie Kepano her bed and mattresses, etc., also one rug, one clock and two lauhala mats.

She gives to Annie Kepano two trunks and the contents thereof.

In the event of any money or other property coming to her executor from the estate of her late husband, she gives be deceived. That there are cheats and frauds in plenty everybody knows; but it is seldom or never that any large business house is guilty of them, no matter what line of trade it follows. There can be no permanent success of any kind based on dishonesty or deception. There never was, and never will be. The men who try that are simply fools and soon come to grief, as they deserve. Now many persons are, nevertheless, afraid to buy certain advertised articles lest they be humbugged and deluded; especially are they slow to place confidence in published statements of the merits of medicines. The effective modern remedy known as WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION is as safe and genuine an article to purchase as flour, silk or cotton goods from the mills of manufacturers with a world-wide reputation. We could not afford to exaggerate its qualities or misrepresent it in the least; and it is not necessary. It is palatable as honey and contains the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry; and how valuable such a blending of these important medicinal agents must be is plain to everybody. It is beyond price in Insomnia, Anemia, Weakness, and lack of Nervous Tone, Poor Digestion, Lung Troubles and Blood Impurities. Science can furnish nothing better—perhaps nothing so good. Dr. W. H. Dalfe, of Canada, says: "I have used it in my practice and take pleasure in recommending it as a valuable tonic and reconstructive." It is a remedy that can afford to appeal to its record and represents the science and knowledge of bright and aggressive medical investigation. "One bottle convinces." At chemists.

Many women are denied the happiness of children through derangement of the generative organs. Mrs. Beyer advises women to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I suffered with stomach complaint for years. I got so bad that I could not carry my children but five months, then would have a miscarriage. The last time I became pregnant, my husband got me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After taking the first bottle I was relieved of the sickness of stomach, and began to feel better in every way. I continued its use and was enabled to carry my baby to maturity. I now have a nice baby girl, and can work better than I ever could before. I am like a new woman." —Mrs. FRANK BEYER, 22 S. Second St., Meriden, Conn. —$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

FREE MEDICAL ADVICE TO WOMAN.

Don't hesitate to write to Mrs. Pinkham. She will understand your case perfectly, and will treat you with kindness. Her advice is free, and the address is Lynn, Mass. No woman ever regretted having written her, and she has helped thousands.

and devises it to her executor, William O. Smith, in trust for the purpose, if it be sufficient, of buying a lot of land and erecting a house thereon for the use of Willie Kepano at such place in Honolulu as the trustee may in his discretion see fit, to hold such acquired property in trust for Willie Kepano during his minority and, upon his arriving at majority, to transfer and deliver the property to him or his heirs. Should the amount from the estate of Frank Silva be insufficient for the purpose stated, the trustee is to hold and invest it for the support and education of Willie Kepano until he comes of age and then pay it over to him or his heirs.

THE PARKER CASE.

In the matter of the guardianship of Annie T. K. Parker, a minor, several proceedings came up in a bunch in Judge Gear's court yesterday morning. After a great deal of argument all matters presented were continued until 10 o'clock this morning.

J. A. Magoon and J. Lightfoot appeared for J. S. Low, as next friend of the minor; W. A. Kinney, S. M. Ballou and S. H. Derby for the guardian; J. J. Dunne for Mrs. Elizabeth J. Knight, mother of the minor.

Lightfoot presented the motion to set for hearing Low's petition for removal of the guardian. Dunne objected to setting the cause for trial on the merits until after the determination of the court's jurisdiction and of Low's status as next friend. Kinney, on behalf of A. W. Carter, guardian, objected to the hearing on the motion upon the ground of precedence of other matters before the court, also because no replication to respondent's answer had been filed. Dunne reinforced Kinney's position.

Lightfoot and Magoon argued in turn against the objections. Kinney referred to the difference in the status of the case prior to filing the answer and now. After Magoon had again replied, Kinney called attention to the separate and distinct phases of evidence required with regard to the motion to remove Carter and the motion attacking the status of the next friend. Dunne returned with his objection to proceeding further until the court's jurisdiction was settled. Magoon argued some more and then the court put the whole business over for the day.

MAILE WINS POINTS.

C. B. Maile's injunction suit against J. W. Pratt, as tax assessor when the cause of action arose, and H. van Gieson, purchaser of plaintiff's property at execution sale for taxes, came before Judge Robinson yesterday. C. W. Ashford appeared for plaintiff; F. Andrade for Pratt, and Robertson & Wilder for van Gieson.

The demurrer was overruled, with leave to answer in ten days. It was further ordered that a temporary injunction issue in accordance with the prayer of the complaint, upon plaintiff giving bond in the sum of $500.

DENIAL OF EVERYTHING.

In the ejectment suit of the First National Bank of Hawaii at Honolulu against J. W. Gaines, J. M. McChesney and Alice McChesney, the two last-named defendants by their attorneys, Cathcart & Milverton, have filed an answer. Not having sufficient information to form a belief, they deny that the plaintiff "is and was during all the times in said complaint mentioned a corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the United States of America and legally doing business in the Territory of Hawaii." They deny that the plaintiff is the lessee of, and entitled to the immediate possession of the land at Wai-kiki-kai described in the complaint. These defendants deny having taken possession of the premises unjustly and contrary to law, also deny that plaintiff has been damaged by their actions in the sum of $1000 or in any other sum.

COURT NOTES.

Gilson D. Bell was yesterday appointed by Judge Gear as his stenographer in place of P. Maurice McMahon, resigned. Mr. Bell was formerly stenographer to the Supreme Court.

Frank Pahia, deputy sheriff of Koolau-poko, has had his license to practice law in the lower courts renewed.

PARK FUNDS ARE SHORT

Commissions Yet Find Kapiolani Park Improved.

A meeting of the Board of Park Commissioners was held at the usual place—under the banyan tree in front of the superintendent's cottage—yesterday afternoon. Those present were Arch. S. Cleghorn, Justice F. M. Hatch, Superintendent of Public Works C. S. Holloway, H. E. Cooper and Park Superintendent Young.

The first business was a request from the superintendent for a hundred loads of soil suitable for plants. He was directed to procure estimates for the purchase of the soil and its transportation to the park. A portion of it will be used in setting out plants in the park. It is necessary, in almost all instances, to make a considerable pit and fill it with good soil, the park ground being all sand.

Mr. Young reported that the mules drawing the bus conveying prisoners to the park were compelled, owing to scarcity of animals, to be used in hauling the water wagon during the day and then to haul the prisoners back at evening to the prison, where the mules were stabled. He was authorized to purchase another span of mules if there were funds available. Mr. Holloway being appointed a committee of one to see his colleague, Treasurer Campbell, on the subject.

The Commissioners took a walk through divisions 1, 2 and 3, where they noted a very considerable improvement. The new strains of zenias and balsams were very much admired, showing as they did great advancement in cultures.

They next paid a visit to the nursery, where a great number of valuable trees, plants and flowering shrubs were found well advanced and ready for planting out in the park.

"The Commissioners are handicapped by the lack of funds," Mr. Cooper said last night, "as now is the proper time to prepare for grass planting in the second section so as to get the advantage of the winter rains. But little can be accomplished during the fall on account of the reduction of the appropriations."

"There are so many ways for the money to go. Repairing of the park wagons seems necessary, and several stagnant pools should be dredged. These items will, however, have to await their turn and receive attention as soon as funds are available."

AN IMPASSE OVER ANIMAL INSPECTION

Attorney General Lorrin Andrews stated yesterday afternoon that he intended forthwith to take proceedings against the "violators of the law" relating to the inspection of animals imported into the Territory. The alleged offenders he named as the Metropolitan Meat Company, Gus Schuman, Wm. Norton and Chas. H. Bellina.

The board of inspectors of live stock consists of veterinarians J. R. Shaw and W. T. Monsarrat with Aiblon F. Clark. At present Dr. Shaw is absent from the Territory. The complaint against the parties named is that they have refused to pay the fees allowed the inspectors as compensation by law. Suits will be brought against them to recover the fees already due.

Instructions will be given, at the same time, to the inspectors to refuse the landing of any live stock without inspection and the payment of fees therefor.

It appears that some lawyer or lawyers had advised importers of animals that the Territorial inspection law was unconstitutional. The Attorney General is positive that the law is perfectly valid and enforceable.

Police Court News.

In the police court yesterday Aug. Guerreira was fined $10 and costs for assault and battery. Ramona Lopez, a woman charged with larceny in the second degree, had her case nolle prossed. J. Yamasaki, charged with profanity, got off with a reprimand. J. Hanlon and John Kapahu were fined $3 and costs each for drunkenness. F. Remillard forfeited $5 bail for the same offense.

Judge De Bolt granted a divorce to Becky Sing against Ah Sing on the ground of non-support. The libellant was informed she might resume her maiden name, Harbottle, if she chose to do so, but the court was unable to make an order in that regard, there being no Hawaiian statute on the subject.
