

Where is the Economy?

Of buying cheap paints. Ever have a cheap job of painting done on your house and find the paint rubbing off as soon as dry and looking worse after six months than if it hadn't been put on? Whoever did the job used cheap paints. Here are five good paints that you can specify for the particular purpose required. They are all perfectly reliable and first-class, yet the prices are very low.

INSURANCE CASES DROP

One Discontinued and Nonsuit in Another.

Judge De Bolt Gives the Lawyers Plenty of Time.

Expensive Wife Pursuit—Ancient Will Contest—Achi's Tax Case.

One Chinatown fire insurance case was discontinued before Judge De Bolt yesterday morning, and another one ended in a nonsuit after occupying the whole day before Judge Robinson. It was when the discontinuance was announced in court, and no other jury case ready for trial, that Judge De Bolt let his jurors go until the first week in October as stated below.

THE CASE THAT FAILED.

Kwong Lee Yuen & Co.'s suit against Manchester Fire Assurance Company came on for trial before Judge Robinson. S. M. Ballou and Mr. Anderson appeared for plaintiff, and A. G. M. Robertson for defendant. The following jury was empaneled: Sam. M. Kamakau, Norman Watkins, H. C. Carter, Louis C. King, J. J. Sullivan, Percy Lishman, H. P. Benson, Arthur L. Soule, Arthur Johnstone, Wm. F. Erving, Patrick Ryan, Hiram Kaaha. The suit was on an insurance policy for $750, on two Chinese dwellings on the northerly side of Maunakea street, between Hotel and King streets, which were burned in the Chinatown fire of January 29, 1900.

Mr. Robertson, in cross-examining a member of the plaintiff firm, asked him if he had put in a claim for the property before the Fire Claims Commission and received an award from that tribunal. Mr. Ballou objected that such claim was immaterial, citing Judge Dole's decision in the Yee Wo Chan case where it held that an award of the Fire Claims Commission was not competent but a gratuity from the Territory and the United States Congress.

It was argued in reply by Mr. Robertson that the two cases "did not trot in the same class," as in the Yee Wo Chan case the insurance was collected before the claim was entered with the Commission, whereas in the present case the plaintiffs received an award for their loss and were trying to get the insurance besides. It would be a fraud on the insurance company, counsel argued, if it was made to pay a loss that had already been made good from another source.

Judge Robinson had the Federal court decision produced and finally ruled out the defendant's question. Mr. Ballou having rested the plain-be deceived. That there are cheats and frauds in plenty everybody knows; but it is seldom or never that any large business house is guilty of them, no matter what line of trade it follows. There can be no permanent success of any kind based on dishonesty or deception. There never was, and never will be. The men who try that are simply fools and soon come to grief, as they deserve. Now many persons are, nevertheless, afraid to buy certain advertised articles lest they be humbugged and deluded; especially are they slow to place confidence in published statements of the merits of medicines. The effective modern remedy known as is as safe and genuine an article to purchase as flour, silk or cotton goods from the mills of manufacturers with a world-wide reputation. We could not afford to exaggerate its qualities or misrepresent it in the least; and it is not necessary. It is palatable as honey and contains the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry; and how valuable such a blending of these important medicinal agents must be is plain to everybody. It is beyond price in Insomnia, Anemia, Weakness and lack of Nervous Tone, Poor Digestion, Lung Troubles and Blood Impurities. Science can furnish nothing better—perhaps nothing so good. Dr. W. H. Dafe, of Canada, says: "I have used it in my practice and take pleasure in recommending it as a valuable tonic and reconstructive." It is a remedy that can afford to appeal to its record and represents the science and knowledge of bright and aggressive medical investigation. "One bottle convinces." At chemists.

YOU WILL NOT

tiff's case, Mr. Robertson moved for a nonsuit on the ground that there was no evidence of the value of the buildings at the time they were destroyed. At this Mr. Ballou moved for leave to reopen the case this morning on the ground of "surprise," as he did not anticipate a ruling that his evidence was insufficient.

Judge Robinson stated that he had ruled uniformly on that point while the evidence for the plaintiff was being taken. Therefore he denied leave to reopen the case and granted the motion for a nonsuit.

Mr. Ballou noted an exception to the court's ruling, "especially on the ground of abuse of discretion."

Judge Robinson then dismissed the jury and excused its members from further attendance in court until Friday morning.

Geo. W. Smith, member of the Board of Health; Dr. J. S. B. Pratt, its executive officer, and Andrew Brown, member of the Board of Fire Commissioners, when the fire was started under orders of the Board of Health on that memorable day, were on waiting orders as witnesses in the case all day.

LESSON TO LAWYERS.

Judge De Bolt gave the attorneys in civil cases allotted to him what they seemed to need most—time in which to get ready for trial. Yesterday was the second day on which cases were set for trial, but with none of the attorneys who had answered "ready" at the calling of the calendar prepared to go on with anything. Accordingly the court excused the jurors from further attendance until Tuesday, October 4, or fifteen court days later.

THE HUSBAND'S STORY.

Kojiro Nakamura answers the libel for divorce of his wife, Tsune Nakamura, in the first place saying he was sued erroneously by the name of Kojima Nakamura. He denies her accusations of ill-treatment and alleges her repeated desertion of him—once at Napoopo, then at Honolulu and again at Lahaina. On the last-mentioned occasion, according to his story, they were on their way to Hawaii when they agreed to stop over at Lahaina to see some friends. This was on August 10 last, and the respondent thus tells of what happened:

"That on or about the 12th day of August said petitioner without cause or provocation and without the consent or knowledge of your respondent again left and deserted him, taking with her $50 in cash and certain valuable papers, all property of your respondent; that your respondent immediately instituted search for petitioner and thereafter, to wit, on the 19th day of August, found petitioner at Honolulu aforesaid."

Kojiro denies the affluent circumstances attributed to him in his wife's libel. He says he is growing coffee in Kona upon five acres of leased land, one-half of the area being under cultivation but without expectation of a crop for at least two years. Concluding, he says: "That your affiant is wholly without available money and your affiant alleges that he has spent more than $350 pursuing said petitioner over the islands, $135 of which he was forced to borrow from friends. That the entire assets of your respondent over his debts and obligations does not exceed one hundred dollars. And your respondent further shows that he is, now, and at all times herein mentioned has been ready and willing to support and maintain petitioner to the best of his ability provided she will return to his bed and board."

KAPIOLANI TRACT TAXES.

W. C. Achi enters a demurrer to the bill to enforce a tax lien brought against him by James L. Holt, assessor. He says the complaint is bad in substance, also that there is a misjoinder of parties. "That is to say," the demurrer proceeds, "there are several persons who are necessary parties in this action, whose interests would be suffered in case the petition of the complainant shall be granted: said persons are intended buyers of lots in the Kapiolani tract who had contracts from the defendant, W. C. Achi, to buy lots in said tract, and further this defendant says that their names were given to the petitioner, or his predecessor in office." In order that these persons may be made proper parties, the defendant states the names of between seventy and eighty of them, adding, "and several others of whom the petitioner knows their names." The prayer of demurrer reads: "Wherefore this defendant requests on account of said misjoinder of parties to dismiss the bill with costs."

AN ANCIENT CONTEST.

Clarissa Amy Monsarrat and Elizabeth Renjes, executrices of the will of Annederia Amy Haalelea, enter a joinder in error to the petition and assignment of errors of Junius Kaee, in the matter of the estate of Kelliahonui, deceased. This is the latest of many attempts to break the will of Kelliahonui, which was admitted to probate about half a century ago. The case involves valuable property in Honolulu, including the premises at Richards and Hotel streets devised by the will of the late Mrs. Haalelea. Kalakaua, before he was king, was a party to the litigation. Junius Kaee is trying by writ of error to set aside a recent decision adverse to his claim rendered by Judge Gear.

COURT NOTES.

This morning Judge De Bolt will call the odd-numbered cases in which jury has been waived to set them for hearing or other disposition. Taguchi, Nishamura and Shimada, indicted at the June term for "being present in a place where gambling is carried on," were discharged on nolle prosequere granted by Judge Gear.

Judge Robinson overruled the demurrer, giving defendant ten days to answer, in the suit of R. C. A. Peterson against R. N. Halstead, D. L. Withington appeared for plaintiff; and A. A. Wilder for defendant.

A joinder in demurrer is filed in the covenant suit of Frank Luweiko and Minna Luweiko vs. Territory of Hawaii, the plaintiffs saying they can establish that the grounds of demurrer are not well taken.

W. J. Lowrie vs. Kalau Kalkalahaole (w) is discontinued. It was a suit started several years ago, when plaintiff was manager of Ewa plantation, for trespass upon land.

In the libel case of W. A. Kinney against Samuel Parker, the argument

ROOM FOUND FOR PUPILS

Miss Davison Doing the Best She Can at Present.

Captain Coyne's attempt to enter a child in one of the schools failed when first made because the application was not made in the proper quarter. When Miss Rose Davison, school agent, saw his published complaint, she communicated with him promptly and the child is now a pupil in Kaahumanu school, where he belongs, according to the locality of his home. Miss Davison yesterday received the following note from Miss Felker, principal of Kaahumanu school:

"Dear Miss Davison: No children between the ages of six and fifteen have been refused admittance to the Kaahumanu school. I write you this because there was an error in last night's Bulletin.

"Very truly yours, "A. M. FELKER.

"Sept. 14, 1904." Miss Davison admits that the city schools are crowded, but feels assured that when the new Royal school is opened there will be room for all-comers of school age.

In the meantime, precedence is given in a particular school to pupils that are promoted therein, the lowest primary grade being open first to children from the neighborhood of the school. Belated children crowded out of their nearest school are placed to the next best convenience elsewhere. Children above the compulsory school attendance age, fifteen, have in case of necessity to give way to children under that age promoted.

With regard to the High school, Miss Davison states that she gave public notice to children wishing to enter that school that they would require to pass an examination beforehand. All of the schools are feeders of the High school grades, but the schools within the High school grounds are not all integral parts of that institution. Some of them are in the same class as the primary schools outside and their pupils are not High school pupils until they have passed the examination like others and entered one of the departments of the High school.

So Different

Lots of Claims Like This, But so Different—Local Proof is What Honolulu People Want.

There are a great many of them. Every paper has its share. Statements hard to believe, harder to prove.

Statements from far-away places. What people say in Florida. Public expressions from California. Ofttimes good endorsement there. But of little service here at home. Honolulu people want local proof. The sayings of neighbors, friends and citizens.

Home indorsement counts. It disarms the skeptic; is beyond dispute.

This is the backing that stands behind every box of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is a case of it: Mr. Cyrus S. Edison of Kapiolani Park, this city, says: "I am at present a teamster and came to the Islands fifteen years ago. Previous to that I drove a stage coach in the United States. These occupations necessitating my being out at all seasons were no doubt the cause of my kidney disorder. I had the ordinary symptoms of this complaint, and resorted to a host of things to cure it. All of them failed to do so, however, and when I had almost given up hope I heard about Doan's Backache Kidney Pills and got some at the Hollister Drug Co.'s store. They did indeed relieve me and I am quite satisfied with the benefit they have been to me."

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers; price 50 cents per box (six boxes $2.50). Mailed by the Hollister Drug Co., Honolulu, wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

Tenders for Road.

Bids were opened at the Public Works office yesterday for construction of a portion of the road between Puu-a-luu and Muoiea, Maul, as follows: L. M. Whitehouse, 120 days.....$ 9,745 Wilson & Duggan, 150 days..... 12,340 on demurrer was set by Judge De Bolt for hearing on Saturday, October 8.

Judge De Bolt overruled the demurrer, giving the defendant ten days in which to answer, in the suit of the Oriental Life Insurance Co. Ltd., vs. C. Winam, defendant, and Bishop & Co. et al., garnishees.

Joinder in demurrer is filed in the case of Chung See vs. Kahanuu Meeke, plaintiff saying her complaint is good in law.

Ahi et al. vs. New Zealand Insurance Co. is discontinued.
