INTERPRETER COLLAPSES

In Translating Murder
Indictment Takes Stage Fright.

Arraignments under the new batch of indictments were the occasion of a session of Judge Gear's court yesterday morning.

Arroyo's arraignment for murder had to be postponed owing to the Spanish interpreter, Gomez, being overcome with nervousness when orally translating the indictment to the defendant in court. It appeared to be a mere case of stage fright or an overwhelming wave of self-consciousness striking the interpreter.

Mary Manu was arraigned for larceny in the first degree. J. J. Dunne appeared and had plea reserved until Monday.

Robert P. Kellias, burglary in the first degree, pleaded guilty and his sentence was continued until Monday.

James E. Fullerton, malicious injury, was represented by J. J. Dunne and Geo. A. Davis. He had his plea reserved and he furnished $300 bail. The charge arises out of the Bertelmann ejection.

Aklona, conducting the fa game, pleaded not guilty.

M. Souza, selling liquor without a license, had his plea continued till Monday.

Lupina Gomes, unlawful use of giant powder, reserved his plea till Tuesday. Ahtum and Achong, maintaining the fa game, had their case continued till Monday.

Lau Kong Kee, embezzlement, pleaded guilty on one indictment and reserved plea on another.

No bills were found against Kaahue, charged with manslaughter, and three others for minor offenses, all of whom were ordered discharged. Kaahue is the cowboy who was driving the cow that threw down William Daly on Richards street, causing his death.

COURT NOTES.

Received the Grand Prize.

Work in sight has never been accomplished by any standard typewriter of high grade machine until now. This is accomplished in the Underwood typewriter absolutely and practically, without the sacrifice of a single existing advantage, but with the addition of many others never before obtainable. This machine received the grand prize at the St. Louis Exposition which goes to show that it is considered the best typewriter in the world.
