CLEVELAND BAIT-ED THE HOOK

On one of his fishing excursions, says the New York Times, Grover Cleveland came across a little girl sitting beside a stream dangling a line in the water. The child knew Mr. Cleveland by sight, having often seen him pass with basket and rod, and, feeling sure of his sympathy in her present occupation, she looked up and addressed him, saying, pleasantly: "Good morning, Mr. Cleveland, I'm fishing."
"But you haven't any bait on your hook," Mr. Cleveland remarked, calling attention to the omission as she pulled the line up out of the water. "You can not catch fish without bait."
"But I don't like to put the bait on the hook," answered the little girl, deprecatingly. "The worms wriggle so. They won't keep still while I put them on. If you'll put the bait on for me, I'll let you have the fish, Mr. Cleveland, if I catch one."
"Ha! ha!" laughed the ex-President. This isn't the first time I've met with such a proposition. Give me your hook little politician," and he proceeded to grapple the young angler by baiting her hook for her.

"Somebody has found out that blondes are rarely insane."
"And yet there is no doubt they get mad when the genuineness of their blondness is called into question."—(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)

Mrs. Fairbanks tells how neglect of warning symptoms will soon prostrate a woman. She thinks woman's safeguard is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Ignorance and neglect are the cause of untold female suffering, not only with the laws of health but with the chance of a cure. I did not heed the warnings of headaches, organic pains, and general weariness, until I was well nigh prostrated. I knew I had to do something. Happily I did the right thing. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound faithfully, according to directions, and was rewarded in a few weeks to find that my aches and pains disappeared, and I again felt the glow of health through my body. Since I have been well I have been more careful, I have also advised a number of my sick friends to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and they have never had reason to be sorry. Yours very truly, Mrs. MAY FAIRBANKS, 216 South 7th St., Minneapolis, Minn." (Mrs. Fairbanks is one of the most successful and highest salaried travelling saleswomen in the West.)

When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhoea, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, bloating (or flatulence), general debility, indigestion, and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, "all-gone" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, blues, and hopelessness, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles. Refuse to buy any other medicine, for you need the best.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For over two years I suffered more than tongue can express with kidney and bladder trouble. My physician pronounced my trouble catarrh of the bladder, caused by displacement of the womb. I had a frequent desire to urinate, and it was very painful, and lumps of blood would pass with the urine. Also had backache very often.
"After writing to you, and receiving your reply to my letter, I followed your advice, and felt that you and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have cured me. The medicine drew my womb into its proper place, and then I was well. I never feel any pain now, and can do my housework with ease."—Mrs. ALICE LAMON, Kincaid, Miss.

No other medicine for female ills in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement.
Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

RAPID TRANSIT COMPANY LOSES ITS TAX APPEAL

Assessed Nearly Double Its Original Return and $350,000 More Than Its Offered Compromise—Two Decisions Filed.

The assessment of the Honolulu Rapid Transit & Land Co., Ltd., is increased by $350,000 more than it wished to compromise with the tax assessor for. As compared with the original return of the company, the assessment is nearly doubled. Tax Assessor Holt figured out $1,409,200 as about right, when the company had returned its assessable valuation at $682,082.80. The company offered to amend its return to a neat million, but the greatest concession the assessor would make was a reduction of his estimate to a round $1,350,000. Now the Tax Appeal Court decides that $1,351,015.95 is the just valuation. Mr. Holt only differed from the court in his figuring by omitting a 5 per cent discount on bonds which the court allowed.

TWO DECISIONS FILED.
Two unanimous decisions were filed yesterday by the Tax Appeal Court, consisting of Theo. F. Lansing, J. R. Galt and J. F. Brown. Besides the case of the Rapid Transit Co., two appeals of Emily C. Judd were decided together, substantially in favor of the assessor. The decisions are as follows:

RAPID TRANSIT CASE.
Honolulu Rapid Transit & Land Co. vs. James L. Holt, tax assessor. Robertson & Wilder for assessor; W. R.

Castle for appellant. Assessed at $1,409,200. Returned at $682,082.80.
Following the basis outlined by the Supreme Court in its decision in a former appeal by said appellant as shown in 15 Hawaiian, pages 3 and 4, the following is the basis for assessment:

$500 shares common stock at $52.50 per share	$ 660,000.00
3390 shares preferred stock at $100 per share	339,000.00
Total	$ 999,000.00
Less 20 per cent	199,800.00
	$ 799,200.00
$610,000 bonds less 5 per cent	579,500.00
	$1,378,700.00

Deducting value of material not in use 27,684.05
Balance $1,351,015.95
The court fixes the amount of assessment as above given at $1,351,015.95.
THE JUDD CASE.
Emily C. Judd vs. Jas. L. Holt, tax assessor. Robertson & Wilder for assessor; W. H. Baird for appellant.
Manoa property—Assessed at $42,000, returned at $33,000.
Long Branch property—Assessed at $22,500, returned at $17,000.
Manoa property. There is no evidence to show any depreciation in the value of said property between 1903 and 1904, and the expert testimony is to the effect that the assessment is a fair one.

The court, therefore, sustains the assessor and fixes the assessment at $42,000.
Long Branch property. There is no evidence to show any depreciation in the value of said property between 1903 and 1904. The expert testimony and voluntary returns for adjoining and adjacent property show the assessment made by the assessor to be a fair one. In view of the fact that the assessor testified that he had fixed the assessment at $20,000, and was satisfied with this amount, the court fixes the assessment on said property at $20,000.
