EX-DETECTIVES ARRESTED FOR BRIBE-TAKING

McDuffie and Ah On In the Toils --- Both Indicted By the Grand Jury---Mossman Also In Quod.

At 4:40 yesterday afternoon Ah On, the Chinese officer who resigned when Brown and Chillingworth left the department, was arrested on three bench warrants charging him with the crime of "acceptance of a bribe by an executive officer." This arrest caused considerable excitement among the hangers-on at the police station but an absolute sensation was evident when an hour later Arthur McDuffie, a detective under the late administration, appeared in tow of an officer and was booked on five warrants of a similar nature.

At about the same time Harry Mossman, late clerk to Deputy High Sheriff Chillingworth, was taken into custody on five warrants charging him with embezzlement. He had been previously arrested but was out on bail. Ah On and McDuffie were released on $1000 bonds each which were furnished by William Mahuka. Mossman was locked up. As the indictments are still on the secret file the exact charges against Ah On and McDuffie could not be learned but it is rumored that the ex-officers acted as go-betweens and that further investigations may make some startling exposures.

At about nine o'clock last night Mrs. Mossman appeared at the police station and demanded an interview with the High Sheriff. As soon as she was admitted to Mr. Henry's office she had a fit of hysteria and raved about her husband's innocence and said that he knew that Mr. Magoon would put up the bail, or she would herself. The Sheriff tried to reason with her but she became violent and it took the combined efforts of two officers to remove her from the room. Screaming and fighting and calling for "Harry" she was carried to a cell and her husband admitted. At the sight of him she became calmer and soon recovered her senses.

The grand jury found indictments against M. P. Luga, who is charged with embezzling funds from the Oahu Railway & Land Company and against Ah Tam, Ah Koon, Ah Hee, Ah Young, Ah Cheong, Ah Wong, Ah Kam, Ah See, Ah Chong, Ah Chin and Ah Wai, all charged with being unlawfully present at a gambling game.

THE AUTOMOBILE FIESTA THIS MORNING

Beauty, both floral and feminine, will characterize the parade of the first Thanksgiving Automobile Floral Fiesta ever held in Honolulu. The committee in charge of the affair has met with success in working up the parade and it is definitely known that there will be at least eighteen cars in line, sixteen of which will be decorated more or less elaborately. The others have consented to go in to help out the display. The cars will assemble at Union Square at 10 a. m. and will there be judged. As soon as the judges have completed their task the procession will proceed to Kapiolani Park. Governor Carter will not be able to go to the park and he will deliver his vote as judge to Ex-Governor Cleghorn and he will make the awards at the park.

During the parade the cars will maintain intervals of twenty or twenty-five feet so that all sides of each machine will be visible. Arriving at the park the cars will form a semi-circle under the banyan tree and will be photographed. The pennants, blue for first place, red for second and white for third, will then be awarded. The winner will also be presented with a silver-plated monkey wrench as a souvenir of the occasion. The awards will be based solely on the picture presented by the car and will not be governed by size or speed in any way. After the award of prizes the parade will return to the city over the route named in the Advertiser yesterday. The cars will be stationed on the Waikiki side of the football field this afternoon.

The following are the entries to date: Tonneau cars—C. W. C. Deering, Mrs. E. M. Boyd and Captain Jargstropp, Geo. N. Rolph and A. A. Young; Convertible Tonneaus—Dr. A. S. Knudsen, Dr. Anderson, C. C. von Hamm, Gus Schuman, Capt. Robt. Graham and Harry Wilder; Surreys and Dos-a-dos—C. C. Wight and Col. Samuel Parker; Runabouts—Dr. E. C. Waterhouse, Dr. Walter Hoffmann, Mr. Menaugh, J. W. Schoening, Max Kuhn, R. Frazier and Robt. Barclay.

The committee in charge consists of C. L. Wight, C. W. C. Deering, A. A. Young, Gus Schuman and E. M. Boyd, the latter being secretary and the grand marshal of the parade.

CITY SANITATION IN THREE MONTHS

Dr. J. S. B. Pratt, chief sanitary officer, had a report before the Board of Health yesterday for August, September and October. In those three months 19 alleged nuisances had been investigated on complaints and, where found existent, abated. Twelve deaths had been investigated.

Recommendations of licenses to 62 hotels, restaurants and lodging houses had been issued. The total of persons who could lawfully be lodged in the buildings was 1747.

Graves to the number of 180 had been inspected. In four cases coffins and in one case a body was exposed by the digging. One burial in twelve inches of water took place in the Catholic cemetery, King street.

Forty-eight permits to keep pigs and 13 to keep ducks had been granted.

There had been several prosecutions for breaches of sanitary regulations and Dr. Pratt appeared as a witness in court twice and at a coroner's inquest once. He visited several places in company with the president of the Board of Health, and made a trip to Waiahole and Waikane on special work. In the absence of the president he made a report to Dr. Cooper on trachoma in the schools, from which he had sent a number of children to the dispensary.

Most of Dr. Pratt's time was taken up in the examination of the schools, where 3264 children were examined and 709 vaccinations made, of which 52 proved unsuccessful.

WORK OF INSPECTORS.
In September the sanitary inspectors made 7213 inspections, ordered 1297 items of sanitary work and saw 1261 completed. The number of pig and duck ranches inspected was 89 and sanitary work therein was ordered in 231 cases, of which 214 orders were completed.

MASKERS AT MOANA

The Helelani masquerade at the Moana Hotel last night was not a mad revel, but there was plenty of fun. The maskers were many, their costumes ranging from the beautiful to the unique and ridiculous.

By common consent the first prize for the most beautiful costume was awarded to the Princess Kawanakoa, who represented Cleopatra. Her throne, borne by lusty Hawaiians in Oriental garb, the mass of barbaric jewels adorning her person and her gorgeous costume shimmering with ornaments, all went to faithfully carry out the design.

The hall itself was a most attractive place for the revels. From festoons of malle strung beneath the ceiling dangled scores of masks. Beneath the music gallery, over which hung various colored silks, was the throne of the carnival king and queen, which was hung in representation of the Hawai-garb, the mass of barbaric jewels
